Sentence Discounts and the Criminal Process Ralph J. Henham, 2017-09-20 This title was first published in 2001. This volume presents the results of an empirical investigation into the operation of sentence discounts for guilty pleas in the Crown Court. It focuses primarily on the nature of judicial compliance with the S48 Criminal Justice and Public Order Act 1994 and those variables in sentence decision making which impact on this process. It also examines the relative use made of sentence discounts and the nature and relevance of court of appeal guidance. In doing so, it raises important theoretical issues relating to sentencing research and addresses the implications for sentencing policy and practice. With empirical research on the operation of the sentencing process being comparatively rare, the book should make an important contribution to the existing literature.

Writing First with Readings Laurie G. Kirsznar, Stephen R. Mandell, 2011-12-28 Best-selling authors and veteran college writing instructors Laurie Kirsznar and Stephen Mandell believe that students learn to write best when they use their own writing as a starting point. In Writing First with Readings, Practice in Context designed for the paragraph to essay course, Kirsznar and Mandell take seriously the ideas and expressive abilities of developmental students as well as their need to learn the rules of writing and grammar. Visual writing prompts that open every chapter get students writing immediately. By moving frequently between their own writing, writing models, and instruction and workbook style mastery exercises, students get constant reinforcement of the skills they are learning. Thoughtful chapters on college success, research, and critical reading along with high-interest essays round out the text, making it the perfect introduction to college writing. Read the preface.
