Sentencing Matters:

Sentencing Matters Michael Tonry, 1996-01-18 Tonry has written the most inclusive and up to date study of American sentencing practices now available To my knowledge no other work approaches Sentencing Matters field of vision particularly in its sustained attention to developments in the states No other scholar has taken on the painstaking and unglamorous work of learning what so many jurisdictions are doing and then keeping up with their progress over time The tedious nature of this effort should not be undersold Without Michael Tonry virtually no literature on state sentencing would exist His intellectual center of gravity is different from the image sometimes offered of legal scholars that they speak only to each other and are disdainful of practitioners Tonry runs contrary to stereotype the influence of his work over the years has not been due to the intricacy of his theories or the fluency of his writing style Instead his achievements have come from knowing what he is talking about Sentencing Matters is a compendium of the best work of the leading scholar on American sentencing innovations Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology Sentencing Matters Michael H. Tonry, 1997

Sentencing Guidelines and Commissions Julian V. Roberts, Arie Freiberg, Rhys Hester, 2025 In Sentencing Guidelines and Commissions Julian V Roberts Arie Freiberg and Rhys Hester synthesize existing literature on commissions and guidelines identify key issues and problems and clarify the future of commissions and guidelines since the creation of the first commissions in 1980 Drawing upon almost fifty years of additional developments and accumulated research on guidelines commissions and councils the authors explore the benefits of sentencing councils and commissions and sentencing guidelines Further the authors look back to the cumulative experience since the first guidelines were created and propose model regimes for legislatures to consider based on the American English and Australian approaches Life Without Parole

Charles J. Ogletree, Austin Sarat, 2012-06-04 Is life without parole the perfect compromise to the death penalty Or is it as ethically fraught as capital punishment This comprehensive interdisciplinary anthology treats life without parole as the new death penalty Editors Charles J Ogletree Jr and Austin Sarat bring together original work by prominent scholars in an effort to better understand the growth of life without parole and its social cultural political and legal meanings What justifies the turn to life imprisonment How should we understand the fact that this penalty is used disproportionately against racial minorities What are the most promising avenues for limiting reforming or eliminating life without parole sentences in the United States Contributors explore the structure of life without parole sentences and the impact they have on prisoners where the penalty fits in modern theories of punishment and prospects for as well as challenges to reform Sentencing

Fragments Michael Tonry, 2015-12-02 In lucid and engaging prose Michael Tonry reveals the historical foundation for the current state of the American criminal justice system while simultaneously offering a game plan for long overdue reform

Prosecuting Conflict-Related Sexual Violence at the ICTY Baron Serge Brammertz, Michelle Jarvis, 2016-04-14 Although sexual violence directed at both females and males is a reality in many on going conflicts throughout the world today accountability for the perpetrators of such violence remains the exception rather than the rule While awareness of the problem is growing more effective approaches are urgently needed for the investigation and prosecution of conflict related sexual violence crimes Upon its establishment in 1993 the Office of the Prosecutor OTP of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia ICTY began the challenging task of prosecuting the perpetrators of conflict related sexual violence crimes alongside the many other atrocities committed during the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia This book documents the experiences achievements challenges and fundamental insights of the OTP in prosecuting conflict related sexual violence crimes at the ICTY over the past two decades It draws on an extensive dossier of OTP documentation court filings trial exhibits testimony ICTY judgements and other materials as well as interviews with current and former OTP staff members The authors provide a unique analytical perspective on the obstacles faced in prioritizing investigating and prosecuting conflict related sexual violence crimes While ICTY has made great strides in developing international criminal law in this area this volume exposes the pressing need for determined and increasingly sophisticated strategies in order to overcome the ongoing obstacles in prosecuting conflict related sexual violence crimes The book presents concrete recommendations to inform future work being done at the national and international levels including that of the International Criminal Court international investigation commissions and countries developing transitional justice processes It provides an essential resource for investigators and criminal lawyers human rights fact finders policy makers rule of law experts and academics

Death Penalty Mitigation Jose B. Ashford, Melissa Kupferberg, 2013-08-08 This book provides an introduction to socio legal forms of mitigation in capital sentencing It helps mitigation specialists defense investigators social scientists and lawyers in developing socio cultural themes of mitigation It examines scientific formulations concepts and frameworks for structuring social history investigations and assessments of moral culpability A fundamental aim of this handbook was to provide mitigation professionals not only with an understanding of the context of mitigation in criminal justice thinking but also ways of contextualizing issues of blame and culpability Cases are used to illustrate how to identify evaluate and present mitigation evidence in assessing issues of culpability in the mitigation of punishment in death penalty cases It also exposes mitigation professionals to recent developments in the social sciences with implications for assessing issues of practical rationality diminished volition unfortunate forms of socialization criminal propensities socio cultural deprivation and gang involvement These topics are linked with legal and philosophical conceptions of moral culpability that offer mitigation professionals new ways of thinking about both proximal and remote forms of mitigation These socially oriented lenses used in examining these concepts and legal issues offer alternative ways of thinking about issues of capacity choice and character in assessing diminished forms of moral culpability The book concludes with recommendations for future research and other strategies for promoting the improvement of practice in the field of capital mitigation Unlike other books on death penalty mitigation this book examines issues of relevance to social scientists as well as mental health professionals In fact it is one of the only books written on the subject that includes opportunities for the inclusion of expert testimony on socio legal matters by social criminologists sociologists social psychologists and social workers

How Judges Sentence Geraldine Mackenzie, 2005 How do judges sentence This question is frequently asked but infrequently explored What factors are taken into account How do judges see their role How do they apply the aims and purposes of sentencing How are factors such as public opinion taken into account How Judges Sentence explores these questions through interviews with Queensland judges The judges explain how they come to their decisions when sentencing how they view judicial discretion and how they exercise it The book carefully examines their comments within the legislative and theoretical contexts of sentencing The analysis yields valuable insights into judicial methodologies perceptions and attitudes towards the sentencing process How Judges Sentence provides a major contribution to debates on sentencing
