John Rennie Short

Seoul Map Beetle:

Korea John Rennie Short, 2012-04-02 The first general history of Korea as seen through maps Korea A Cartographic History provides a beautifully illustrated introduction to how Korea was and is represented cartographically John Rennie Short one of today's most prolific and well respected geographers encapsulates six hundred years of maps made by Koreans and non Koreans alike Largely chronological in its organization Korea begins by examining the differing cartographic traditions prevalent in the early Joseon period in Korea roughly 1400 to 1600 and its temporal equivalent in early modern Europe As one of the longest continuous dynasties Joseon rule encompassed an enormous range and depth of cartographic production Short then surveys the cartographic encounters from 1600 to 1900 distinguishing between the early and late Joseon periods and highlighting the influences of China Japan and the rest of the world on Korean cartography In his final section Short covers the period from Japanese colonial control of Korea to the present day and demonstrates how some of the tumultuous events of the past hundred years are recorded and contested in maps He also explores recent cartographic controversies including the naming of the East Sea Sea of Japan and claims of ownership of the island of Dokdo A common theme running throughout Short's study is how the global flow of knowledge and ideas affects mapmaking and Short reveals how Korean mapmakers throughout history have embodied reflected and even contested these foreign depictions of their homeland The Black Hills Beetle Andrew Delmar Hopkins, 1905 General Technical Report PNW-GTR, 1987

PATA Compass, 2005 Advances in Threat Assessment and Their Application to Forest and Rangeland Management John M. Pye, 2010 In July 2006 more than 170 researchers and managers from the United States Canada and Mexico convened in Boulder Colorado to discuss the state of the science in environmental threat assessment This two volume general technical report compiles peer reviewed papers that were among those presented during the 3 day conference Papers are organized by four broad topical sections Land Air and Water Fire and Pests Biota and are divided into syntheses and case studies Land topics include discussions of forest land conversion and soil quality as well as investigations of species responses to climate change Air and water topics include discussions of forest vulnerability to severe weather and storm damage modeling Fire topics include discussions of wildland arson and wildfire risk management as well as how people perceive wildfire risk and uncertainty Pests biota topics include discussions of risk mapping and probabilistic risk assessments as well as investigations of individual threats including the southern pine beetle and Phytophthora alni Ultimately this publication will foster exchange and collaboration between those who develop knowledge and tools for threat assessment and those who are responsible for managing forests and rangelands Koreana Collection Yongsan Library, 1982
