Separate God The Esoteric Christianity Of Gnosticism:

A Separate God Simone Pétrement,1990 First Century Gnosticism Gerard van Groningen,1967 Esoteric Traditions in Islamic Thought Leonard Lewisohn,2024-09-12 The notion of esoteric knowledge is one of the pillars of Islamic intellectual tradition Though most visible in Sufism it also dominated the first three and a half centuries of Shi'ite thought In this rich anthology Leonard Lewisohn explores Islamic esotericism through the works of eleven authors who flourished in Persia Central Asia and Asia Minor from the eleventh to the nineteenth centuries He presents excerpts from each text in translation accompanying these with introductions to the author's life works and thought In the course of his erudite and enlightening commentary he explores the common ground of esoteric thought and terminology revealing a unity of perspective among Muslim thinkers Gnosticism and the History of Religions David G. Robertson,2021-08-12 Building on critical work in biblical studies which shows how a historically bounded heretical tradition called Gnosticism was invented this work focuses on the following stage in which it was essentialised into a sui generis universal category of religion At the same time it shows how Gnosticism became a religious self identifier with a number of sizable contemporary groups identifying as Gnostics today drawing on the same discourses This book provides a history of this problematic category and its relationship with scholarly and popular discourse on religion in the twentieth century It uses a critical historical method to show how and why Gnosis Gnostic and Gnosticism were taken up by specific groups and individuals practitioners and scholars at different times It shows how ideas about Gnosticism developed in late nineteenth and twentieth century scholarship drawing from continental phenomenology Jungian psychology and post Holocaust theology to be constructed as a perennial religious current based on special knowledge of the divine in a corrupt world David G Robertson challenges how scholars interact with the category Gnosticism and contributes to our understanding of the complex relationship between primary sources academics and practitioners in category formation History of the Concept of Mind Paul S. Macdonald,2019-07-23 Exploring the roads less travelled MacDonald continues his monumental essay in the history of ideas The history of heterodox ideas about the concept of mind takes the reader from the earliest records about human nature in Ancient Egypt the Ancient Near East and the Zoroastrian religion through the secret teachings in the Hermetic and Gnostic scriptures and into the transformation of ideas about the mind soul and spirit in the late antique and early medieval epochs These transitions include discussion of the influence of Central Asian shamanism Manichean ideas about the soul in light and darkness and Neoplatonic theurgy working on god within Sections on the medieval period are concerned with the rediscovery of magical practices and occult doctrines from Roger Bacon to Francis Bacon the adaptation of Neoplatonic and esoteric ideas in the medieval Christian mystics and the survival of these ideas mixed with natural science in the works of von Helmont Leibniz and Goethe The book concludes with an investigation of the many forms of dualism in accounts of the human mind and soul and the concept of dual life which underpins our aspiration to understand how humans
