Separating Losing And Excluding Children:

Separating, Losing, and Excluding Children Tom Billington, 2000 Separating Losing and Excluding Children challenges our assumptions about children who are labelled as different and questions the truth of expert opinion Jacket

Separating, Losing and Excluding Children Tom Billington, 2012-10-12 There has been an outpouring of children from schools over the last few years The reasons for their exclusion from schools include learning difficulties behavioural problems or physical disability Other reasons that are not dependent on a deficit model of the children relate to Conservative led initiatives involving school league tables greater accountability inspections etc Whatever the reasons the new government are committed to reducing the number of children who are forced out of mainstream schooling The author addresses the key issues and relates them to the main theory literature in the area He unpicks the major theories and applies them to possible ways of working with children in the classroom Four case studies are used in order to make these proposed ways of working more accessible As with other books in the series exercises readings and questions are set throughout
