Sert, Mediterranean Architecture: Edited by Maria Lluïsa Borràs (translated by Kenneth Lyons). José Luis Sert, 1975 Sert, Mediterranean Architecture José Luis Sert, 1975-01-01 Sert Maria Lluïsa Borràs, 1975 Sert Maria Lluïsa Borràs, 1975 Sert: Mediterranean Architecture. Edited by Maria Lluïsa Borràs Maria Lluïsa Borràs, 1975

An Architecture of Ineloquence J.K. Birksted, 2016-12-05 Set on a hillside near Cluny in a region associated with religious institutions and sacred architecture including Le Corbusier's La Tourette Le Carmel de la Paix designed by José Luis Sert remains tranquilly unvisited and quietly erased from architectural history Why This unusual convent falls outside the standard categories of Sert's architecture and has been overlooked in most publications about his work As J K Birksted explains the design and construction process for this building proved nightmarish resulting in a building which at first sight appears to be ineloquent This first detailed examination of this building shows how the convent and the story of its creation offer valuable and important new insights into Sert his architecture and his life However the study also opens up discussions on wider subjects such as the relationships between modernist architecture and ecclesiastical architecture The design and construction of the Carmel de la Paix 1968 1972 followed the Second Ecumenical Council of the Vatican 1962 1965 which introduced fundamental changes and proposals for renewing the relationship between the Church and the changing modern world and the convent provides an interesting illustration of this period In addition it offers insights into the fascinating world of the Carmelite order and its specific liturgical requirements and reflecting on the nuns active involvement in the design and construction process it also explores wider issues of women in architecture Modern Architecture and the Mediterranean Jean-Francois Lejeune, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2009-12-04 Considering the influence of the forms and tectonics of the Mediterranean vernacular on modern architectural practice and discourse from the 1920s to the 1960s

Regional Architecture in the Mediterranean Area Alessandro Bucci, Luigi Mollo, 2010 Modernism and the Mediterranean Jan K. Birksted, 2017-07-05 Situated in a Mediterranean landscape the Maeght Foundation is a unique Modernist museum product of an extraordinary collaboration between the architect José Luis Sert and the artists whose work was to be displayed there The architecture garden design and art offer a rare opportunity to see work in settings conceived in active collaboration with the artists themselves By focusing on the relationship between this art foundation and its Arcadian setting including Joan Mir labyrinth George Braque's pool Tal Coat's mosaic wall and Giacometti's terrace Jan K Birksted demonstrates how the building articulates many of the ideas that preoccupied this group of artists during the culminating years of their lives The study pays special attention to the ways in which architecture can shape the experience of time and addresses the Modernist desire for wilderness and its problematic roots in the classical Mediterranean ideal In showing how the design of the Maeght Foundation is a Modernist representation of Mediterranean culture the author has developed an interpretation of architecture that accommodates not only the architect's handling of material or function but shows as well how it can be the embodiment of a particular vision of space and time The Writings of Josep Lluís Sert

Josep Lluís Sert, 2015-07-01 Josep Lluís Sert 1902 1983 was the last president of CIAM International Congresses of Modern Architecture and dean of the Harvard University Graduate School of Design from 1953 to 1969 where he founded the discipline of urban design His writings offer a new view of his activities in architecture and urban planning and provide the intellectual context for his own work as an architect much of which is still controversial and often poorly understood This book includes 16 essays dating from 1951 to 1977 ten of which are previously unpublished The Writings of Josep Lluís Sert illuminates Sert's contributions to 20th century architecture urban design and design pedagogy and makes clear the similarities and differences between his ideas and those of his mentor Le Corbusier The essays reveal Sert's advocacy both for pedestrian urbanism and for planning in relation to the natural environment ideas that have become important issues in contemporary urban design Each text is introduced by the editor Eric Mumford a scholar of CIAM Sert and modern urbanism
