English Age 5-6 Glenys O'Connell, 2002 This is a home study series designed to teach children core skills that will build confidence at school Each book supports the literacy or numeracy framework for the relevant school year The English titles cover a wide range of topics ranging from comprehension to story writing and the maths titles cover topics ranging from algebra to fractions The books magical wizard theme should entertain as well as educate Motivation is encouraged by giving gold stars which can be added to a certificate of excellence at the back of each book Parental guidance on how to make the best use of the book is included The Age of STEM Brigid Freeman, Simon Marginson, Russell Tytler, 2014-10-24 Across the world STEM learning and work in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics has taken central importance in education and the economy in a way that few other disciplines have STEM competence has become seen as key to higher productivity technological adaptation and research based innovation No area of educational provision has a greater current importance than the STEM disciplines yet there is a surprising dearth of comprehensive and world wide information about STEM policy participation programs and practice The Age of STEM is a state of the art survey of the global trends and major country initiatives in STEM It gives an international overview of issues such as STEM strategy and coordination curricula teaching and assessment women in STEM indigenous students research training STEM in the graduate labour markets STEM breadth and STEM depth The individual chapters give comparative international analysis as well as a global overview particularly focusing on the growing number of policies and practices in mobilising and developing talent in the STEM fields The book will be of particular interest to anyone involved in educational policy those in education management and leaders in both schooling and tertiary education It will have a wider resonance among practitioners in the STEM disciplines particularly at university level and for those interested in contemporary public policy Beginning, Ending and Vowel Sounds

Hunter Calder, 2003 In English Books 3 4 and 5 in this series children learn about the beginning sounds ending sounds and vowel sounds of words in detail Excel English Early Skills Beginning Ending and Vowel Sound conso lidates and revises your child's knowledge in these areas. In the book, your child will understand further the relationship between letters and their sounds, practise writing letters to match sounds, identify sounds at the beginning, middle and end of words. Learning these skills is essential for children to later develop their abilities in reading and comprehension. The activities in each book are divided into double pages. Each double page allows your child to practise one particular skill many times so that the skill is reinforced. A clear, easy-to-follow page design has been developed with clear explanations to help both parents and children.

Affect and Mathematics Education Markku S. Hannula, Gilah C. Leder, Francesca Morselli, Maike Vollstedt, Qiaoping Zhang, 2019-06-03. This open access book, inspired by the ICME 13 topic study group 'Affect, beliefs and identity in mathematics education', presents the latest trends in research in the area. Following an introduction and a survey chapter providing a concise overview of the state of art in the field of mathematics-related affect, the book is divided into three main sections: motivation and values, engagement and identity in mathematics education. Each section comprises several independent chapters based on original research as well as a reflective commentary by an expert in the area. Collectively, the chapters present a rich methodological spectrum from narrative analysis to structural equation modelling. In the final chapter, the editors look ahead to future directions in the area of mathematics education-related affect. It is a timely resource for all those interested in the interaction between affect and mathematics education.
