Located in the northwestern corner of Africa the Kingdom of Morocco has an ancient society with a rich cultural history. Morocco is a young nation that only achieved independence in 1956. An Islamic state Moroccans face the conflict of balancing their traditions with the attractions of modern society. From the Sahara Desert to the capital city of Rabat from the ruins of Volubilis to the splendor of the Hassan II Mosque and from the traditional Berber people to women in the workforce this book showcases a fascinating country that is proud of its past heritage and committed to moving forward into the future.

Book jacket     Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21

Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors. Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media. This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity. By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter, print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia. Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath. Through a combination of archival resources, art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians, literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism.
