سُورَةُ الزُّوْر

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ
أَزْوَاجًا لِيَسْكُنُوا إِلَيْكُمْ وَيُحِبُّواكُمْ
وَرَحْمَةً بَيْنَهُمَا ذَٰلِكُمْ آيَاتُ اللَّهِ لِلْمُتَفَكِّرِينَ ﴿١٠﴾

*And among His Signs
Is this, that He created
For you mates from among Yourselves, that ye may
Dwell in tranquillity with them,
And He has put love
And mercy between your (hearts):
Verily in that are Signs
For those who reflect.*

Qur'an (30:21)

Matrimonial Education In Islam:

Matrimonial Education in Islam Ahmad Hussein Sakr, 2004-07 Homosexuality in Islam Scott Siraj Al-Haqq Kugle, 2010-01-01 Homosexuality is anathema to Islam or so the majority of both believers and non believers suppose Throughout the Muslim world it is met with hostility where state punishments range from hefty fines to the death penalty Likewise numerous scholars and commentators maintain that the Qur'an and Hadith rule unambiguously against same sex relations This pioneering study argues that there is far more nuance to the matter than most believe In its narrative of Lot the Qur'an could be interpreted as condemning lust rather homosexuality While some Hadith are fiercely critical of homosexuality some are far more equivocal This is the first book length treatment to offer a detailed analysis of how Islamic scripture jurisprudence and Hadith can not only accommodate a sexually sensitive Islam but actively endorse it The Islamic Marriage Contract Asifa Quraishi, Frank E. Vogel, 2022-10-07 It is often said that marriage in Islamic law is a civil contract not a sacrament If this is so this means that the marriage contract is largely governed by the same rules as other contracts such as sale or hire But at the same time marriage is a profound concern of the Islamic scriptures of Qur'an and Sunna and thus at the very core of the law and morality of Islam and of the individual familial and social life of Muslims This volume collects papers from many disciplines examining the Muslim marriage contract Articles cover doctrines as to marriage contracts e.g. may a wife stipulate monogamy historical instances e.g. legal advice from thirteenth century Spain comparisons with Jewish and canon law contemporary legal and social practice and projects of activists for women worldwide Demonstrating a new and powerful focus for comparative and historical inquiries into Islamic law and social practices this book marks a fresh point of departure for the study of Muslim women Marriage, Gender and Islam in Indonesia Maria Platt, 2017-05-12 Marriage is central to Indonesia's social fabric and critical in defining socially legitimate relationships This book offers a rich anthropological account of Muslim Indonesian women's experiences of courtship love marital discord and separation polygamy divorce and remarriage By applying a new approach to theorising marital experiences as playing out across a dynamic marital continuum it expands static and dichotomous understandings of marriage and divorce It offers new insights on how local modalities of Islam shape gender relations and are actively negotiated by women in pursuing their marital desires The book draws upon ethnographic case studies from the eastern Indonesian island of Lombok where early marriage divorce and remarriage are common place for Muslim women In this context up to 70 per cent of marriages are legitimated through Islamic ceremonies and remain unregistered with the state While these unregistered marriages are legally valid within the communities in which they occur such unions exclude women from accessing the marital rights theoretically enshrined in Indonesian marriage law A key contribution of this book lies in its exploration of legal plurality in relation to Indonesian marriage which involves investigating the salience of Islamic law local customary law and state law for women's varied marital trajectories Women and Islam: Women's movements in Muslim societies Haideh

Moghissi, 2005 This three volume interdisciplinary collection is of use not only in Middle East studies but also in various other disciplines including women's studies political science religion cultural studies sociology of gender and anthropology The collection offers the most influential writings in the field by both renowned scholars as well as those by the new generation of scholars of Islam and gender and includes a wide variety of cases from Middle Eastern and Islamic societies By including case based articles the collection highlights the clear links between concepts and theories and actual practices Titles also available in this series include Shamanism March 2004 3 volumes 395 and the forthcoming titles Childhood 2005 4 volumes c 495 Gender 2005 4 volumes c 495 and Knowledge 2005 4 volumes c 495

Case Studies in Society, Religion, and Bioethics Sana Loue, 2020-06-29 This book explores through case studies the interplay between religion culture government and politics in diverse societies on questions arising in the domain of bioethics The case studies draw from multiple disciplinary perspectives including history theology law bioethics public policy science and medicine The text's global perspective permits a comparison of the differing approaches adopted by countries facing similar bioethical quandaries and the extent to which religion has or has not been instrumental in addressing such dilemmas Secular and religious societies across the globe are being confronted with complex questions involving religious belief and the extent to which specific religious perspectives have in the past or should in the future be adopted as official policy Bioethical issues involving the interplay of religion and government have become particularly notable in recent years How these issues are resolved has major implications for individuals healthcare providers and the future of medical research and medical care Topics explored among the chapters include Homosexuality Sin Crime Pathology Identity Behavior Medical Error Truth-telling Apology and Forgiveness Refusal of Medical Treatment Medical Deportation Case Study Nazism Religion and Human Experimentation The New Frontier Cloning Case Studies in Society Religion and Bioethics will find an engaged audience among researchers and scholars in history religion theology medicine and bioethics interested in the influence of religion on bioethical decision making Students particularly upper level undergraduate and graduate students interested in bioethics humanities and theology will find the text helpful in understanding the processes through which religion may serve as a basis for both societal policy and law and individual decision making in health related matters Marriage and Matrimonial Remedies

Mohammed Ahmad Qureshi, 1978 Women in Islam Terence Lovat, 2012-06-12 The role of women in Islamic societies not to mention in the religion itself is a defining issue It is also one that remains resistant to universal dogma with a wide range of responses to women's social roles across the Islamic world Reflecting this heterogeneity the editor of this volume has assembled the latest research on the issue which combines contemporary with historical data The material comes from around the world as well as from Muslim and non Muslim researchers It takes in work from majority Muslim nations such as Bangladesh Iran Iraq Lebanon Pakistan Palestine Tunisia and Turkey as well as countries with troubled interfaith relations such as India and Israel Nations with minority Muslim populations such as France the UK Canada and Australia are also represented. The work also features varying Islamic sub groups such as the two main ones Sunni and Shi'a as well as less well known populations such as the Ismaili Muslims. In each case the work is underpinned by the very latest socio theological insights and empirical data.

Muslim and Christian Women in Dialogue Kathleen McGarvey, 2009 Observations about dialogue and about the theology of religions are common enough these days but they are rarely grounded in the analysis of a particular reality and are therefore of little help to practitioners. This book on the other hand gives an exhaustive documentation of the background and the actual situation of Muslim-Christian relations in Northern Nigeria before proceeding to proposals for understanding the contribution of women's discourse in the development of dialogue and to a feminist theology of religions. Drawing from her empirical findings in Northern Nigeria as well as some feminist insights, the author suggests an approach to other religions grounded in people's lived experience and a shared commitment to justice, peace and transformed human relations. Recognizing the limitations of some pluralist theories, she suggests a feminist ethical approach to religious pluralism. The practicality and feasibility of such an approach are shown as she elaborates on its possible application in the concrete context of Northern Nigeria.

China and Islam Matthew S. Erie, 2016-09-01 China and Islam examines the intersection of two critical issues of the contemporary world: Islamic revival and an assertive China questioning the assumption that Islamic law is incompatible with state law. It finds that both Hui and the Party State invoke and interpret and make arguments based on Islamic law, a minjian (unofficial) law in China, to pursue their respective visions of the good. Based on fieldwork in Linxia, China's Little Mecca, this study follows Hui clerics, youthful translators on the New Silk Road, female educators who reform traditional madrasas, and Party cadres as they reconcile Islamic and socialist laws in the course of the everyday. The first study of Islamic law in China and one of the first ethnographic accounts of law in postsocialist China, China and Islam unsettles unidimensional perceptions of extremist Islam and authoritarian China through Hui minjian practices of law.

Imagining the Perfect Society in Muslim Brotherhood Journals Kiki M. Santing, 2020-08-24 The investigation of the Egyptian Muslim Brotherhood during the presidencies of Anwar Sadat and the early years of Hosni Mubarak is based on the movement's main journals, al-Da'wa and Liw al-Islam.

presenting its history during two relevant periods 1976 1981 1987 1988 These journals show that contrary to the focus in modern research e a sharia laws gender relations or ideas of democracy the Brotherhood is a much more broadly oriented social political opposition movement taking Islam as its guideline The movement s own versatile discourse discusses all aspects of daily and spiritual life An important adage of the Brotherhood is Islam as a ni m k mil wa sh mil a perfect and all encompassing system Faith should play a role in every aspect of daily life from cooking dinner and housekeeping to education holidays enemy images legislation and watching television Islam is everything and everything is Islam In its journals the Brotherhood provided its unique reflection of the spirit of the age The movement presented itself as a highly reactive group that responded to current events and positioned itself as a moral religious and political opposition to the Egyptian regime

Family Ethnicity Harriette Pipes McAdoo,1999-04-20 Family ethnicity is the sum total of our ancestry and cultural dimensions how families collectively identify the core of their beings Our ethnicity is fundamental to the all encompassing core of our identity Families differentiate themselves from other groups and form linkages with families that assume similar identifications and provide reference groups for their members Ethnicity involves the unique family customs proverbs and stories that are passed on for generations Almost all of us are from families that are part of ethnicities This new edition provides extensive information about the various cultural elements that different family groups have drawn on in order to exist in the United States today In each chapter the authors are intimately familiar with the particular groups by way of membership in the group or intensive study of the group The eight sections of the book cover Native American Indians Native Hawaiian Mexican American and Spanish African American Muslim American and Asian American families

The Muslim Matrimonial Court in Singapore Judith Djamour,2021-01-07 This book is an anthropologist s field study of the new court set up in Singapore to deal with matrimonial suits chiefly divorce among Muslims The study is based on careful observation of the court in action and analyses in detail the relationship between the reformist aims of the new law and the values and expectations of litigants The book takes its departure from the argument developed in Dr Djamour s earlier work Malay Kinship and Marriage in Singapore Athlone Press 1959 paperback edition 1965 and discusses the effect of recent attempts to promote the stability of Muslim marriage Social scientists lawyers students of Islam and those interested in Malayan problems will find in this book the same qualities that distinguished Dr Djamour s previous study lively and sympathetic descriptive powers joined to an ability for clear factual analysis The Divine Bureaucracy and Disenchantment of Social Life Maznah Mohamad, 2020-03-02 This book traces the expansion of Islamisation within a modern and plural state such as Malaysia It elaborates on how elements of theology sacred space resources and their interactivity with secular instruments such as legislative electoral and new social technological platforms are all instrumentally employed to consolidate a divine bureaucracy The book makes the point that religious social movements and political parties are only few of the important agents of Islamisation in society The other is the modern and secular state structure itself Weber s legal rational bureaucracy or Hegel s ethical bureaucracy predominantly characterises a modern feature of governmentality In this instance an Islamic bureaucracy is advantageously situated not only within an ambit of modernity and therefore legality but divinity and therefore sacrality as well This positioning gives religious state agents more salience than any other form of bureaucracy leading to their unquestioned authority in the current contexts of societies with Muslim majority rule One of the requisites of this condition is the homogenisation of Islam followed by ring fencing of its constituents The latter can involve contestations with women other genders secular Muslims non Muslims as well as dissenting Muslims with their differing truthful Islams Islamic Horizons ,2003 Changing Marriage Patterns in Southeast Asia Gavin W. Jones, Terence H. Hull, Maznah Mohamad, 2015-08-04 Various forms of partnering such as officially registered marriages cohabiting relationships and other kinds of relatively stable relationships are crucial in the formation of families throughout the world Although today forms of partnering in the region are not restricted to formal marriage the norm remains for couples to marry to establish a new family and to accept the cultural requirement to have children This book provides a comprehensive and up to date picture of partnerships and marriage in the Southeast Asian region using quantitative data alongside qualitative approaches Through the research of demographers sociologists and anthropologists it examines the way trends in the formation and dissolution of marriages are related to changes in the region s economy and society illuminating both the broad forces affecting marriage patterns and the way these forces work out at the individual and family level Presenting the variety of contemporary marriage patterns in the region with an emphasis on the ways in which marriage issues impinge on the welfare of those concerned this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Southeast Asia and the sociology of the family
