Mission San Jose De Guadalupe Missions Of California:

Mission San Jose Amy Margaret, 2003-12-15 Mission San Jose was founded in 1797 by a Spanish friar named Fray Fermín Francisco Lasuñ. Like other missions, the purpose of San Jose was to convert local Indians to Christianity and Spanish ways of living. Famously, in 1828 a local named Estanislao tried to lead a revolt against the mission. In 1829 he fought a battle with the Spanish troops but was forced to give up the revolt and return to the mission. The content provided in this book aligned to California state standards will provide students with a greater insight into the story of San Jose and California's mission system. This book is filled with excellent primary source materials and visuals including illustrations, paintings, and maps.

California Missions & Presidios Alastair Worden, Randy Leffingwell, The missions and presidios of California are among the state's oldest structures and are the most visited historical monuments. These notable buildings are an integral part of California's history. The state's recorded history essentially began with the Spanish missions along the ambitious chain of 21 missions on El Camino Real, The Royal Highway, and the men who founded them. California Missions and Presidios is a gorgeous book that presents the history of these intriguing sanctuaries of peace and beauty. The eye-popping photography of Alastair Worden and Randy Leffingwell captures their unique character, while Leffingwell's accessible text brings to life the overall history of California's conquest by the Spanish, the construction and operation of the missions, presidios, ranchos, and adobes, and the background of the mission architecture and style. Seemingly unchanged, these missions and presidios have survived the centuries remarkably well, still welcoming visitors as a refuge of serenity and splendor while providing a glimpse into the lives of the spirited pioneers who built these structures and lived and worked there. The Spirit of a Mission: San Jose, 2015 JOEY Award of Excellence. San Jose Film Commission.

Mission San Jose, the 14th of California's 21 Spanish Missions, was founded on June 11, 1797, by Father Fermín Francisco de Lasuñ and helped secure Spain's claim to the land while its padres taught the native people Christianity and the Spanish way of life. The only mission on the east side of San Francisco Bay, the mission's site had been inhabited for generations by the Ohlone Indians. This program offers an in-depth study of the mission while examining the interaction of the clashing cultures. We learn how the mission was one of the most prosperous of all the California Missions, becoming the center of industry and agriculture with livestock roaming mission lands from present-day Oakland to San Jose. However, its prosperity did not last, and secularization by the Mexican government brought an end to the mission system. An earthquake in 1865 ruined the original church, and it wasn't until June 11, 1985, that construction was completed on a replica of the original mission. Some people mistakenly call this Mission San Jose de Guadalupe, but records prove that the true name is Mission San Jose in honor of the patron Saint Joseph.
