

Number One, the Number One Man, Lemie. So I think Joe Glass is Number One as representative of the state of society he observed for Lemie, who was a man to recognize it. The fact that he did work showed him it is where really didn't have to work. (The offense to Lemie's ancestral way, a manner is meant to be here. (The offense to Lemie's ancestral way,
a manner is meant to be here, such as well.)
Lemie, who also worked and here, such as well.)
Lemie, who also worked and here, such as well.)

Long Anemone was the epitome of grace and elegance. It was the only long anemone in the magnificent series of Joe Glavin.

At Christmas, Joe gave everybody he represented sweet and talking cards. He paid the salaries in Louis' hand the kind of money men want printed. He paid the salaries in Louis' hand the kind of money men want printed. He paid the salaries in Louis' hand the kind of money men want printed.

I loved and respected Louis Armstrong. He was born poor, died rich, and never lost anyone on the way.

JILL HUTCHINGS AND NORMAN GRACE

We had the great privilege of recording a collection of our compositions with Ella Fitzgerald for Norman Granz's Verve label. Billy Stresson and I wrote a hit-jug Portrait of Ella Fitzgerald and introduced its various numbers with the following observations:

"While Billy breathes into the model (on the piano), we gather the material for our musical portrait of Ella Fitzgerald by allowing our imaginations to browse through her family album. We see there many people, poor people, young people, steady, solid people—people and events of great dignity and dimension, and all with a love! As we turn the pages, we observe that she is of 'Royal Ancestry,' and in our first movement we try to capture and convey some of the majesty of Her Majesty.

'As the expression of our royal subject gains momentum, we imagine we have been granted a confidential glimpse into her diary, and the more we del through the pages the more we realize that this is a personality of wonderful warmth, and that she is 'All Yours.'

"Ella Fitzgerald is a great philanthropist. She gives as generously of her talent, not only to the public, but to the composers whose works she performs. Her artistry always brings to mind the words of the Maroon, Mr. Tusciano, who said concerning singers, 'Either you're a good musician or you're not.' In terms of musicianship, Ella Fitzgerald is Beyond Compare."

"In our textual search for a total portrait of Ella Fitzgerald, we find a mirabile parallel in which vocal discovery, gracefulness of heart, and talent beyond category are the principal components in the quest for 'Total Jazz.'"
