Realistic Illustrations In Japan No 2:

Block Printing & Book Illustration in Japan Louise Norton Brown, 2024-12-06 Block Printing Book Illustration in Japan 1924 was one of the first guides to Japanese illustration and remains indispensable to this day The author travelled widely in Japan persuading Japanese collectors to open their archives to her for study and here compiles a wealth of unique research

Envisioning the Empress: The Lives and Images of Japanese Imperial Women, 1868-1952 Alison J. Miller, 2024-12-02 Envisioning the Empress illuminates dynamic and powerful empresses who impacted not only women in their own time but whose influence extended to later generations of royalty creating a greater role for imperial women and elevating the status of women's roles at a crucial juncture in Japanese history The central focus of this book is visual monarchy exploring how the empress biographies were primarily expressed in visual culture and how their images worked in support of Japan's imperial policies in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The book begins with a brief overview of premodern and modern imperial women to orient the reader In each chapter different media audiences and distribution channels for constructing the narrative of feminine imperial power in Japan are addressed alongside biographical information It is argued that the ultimate purpose of all of these images was to elevate the empress and promote her image as a conventional role model for modern women but one with enough celebrity cache to maintain popularity The images of the modern empresses as distributed by the Imperial Household Agency strike a balance between propaganda and popular media noble philanthropist and upper middle class role model celebrity and mother of the nation The modern empress image was crafted to be both exalted and approachable and worked to establish individual biographies while simultaneously establishing the position of the empress as timeless in the public eye Envisioning the Empress introduces students of royal studies as well as modern Japanese history and art history to this fascinating element of the history of monarchy and women's history more broadly

American Watercolor in the Age of Homer and Sargent Kathleen A. Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor's central place in American art and culture

Graphic History Richard Iadonisi, 2012-11-30 When it comes to recounting history issues arise as to whose stories are told and how reliable is the telling This collection of fourteen essays explores the unique ways in which graphic novels can aid us in addressing those issues while shedding new light on a variety of texts including those by canonical North American and European writers Art Spiegelman Maus In the Shadow of No Towers Alan Moore From Hell The League of Extraordinary Gentlemen Frank Miller The Dark Knight Returns Chris Ware Jimmy Corrigan Chester Brown Louis Riel and Harvey Pekar Recognizing the global appeal of graphic novels this collection also provides a fresh look at history seen through the eyes of canonical non Western writers Marjane Satrapi Persepolis and Yoshihiro Tatsumi A Drifting Life and the highly vexed relationship of the West and the Middle East The array of contributors from the fields of art literature history and cultural studies is matched by the array of theoretical perspectives and by the depth and breadth of subjects ranging from the sixteenth century voyages of Sebastian Cabot to Jack the Ripper from the Chicago World's Columbian Exposition of 1893 to lynching in the early twentieth century American South and from post war Japan to the fall of the Shah in Iran

Art, Politics, and Commerce in Chinese Cinema Ying Zhu, Stanley Rosen, 2010-06-01 Ying Zhu and Stanley Rosen have brought together some of the leading scholars and critics of Chinese cinema to rethink the political mutations market manifestations and artistic innovations that have punctuated a century of Chinese screen memories From animation to documentary history of the industry to cinematic attempts to recreate history propaganda to piracy the influx of Hollywood imports to Chinese style blockbusters Art Politics and Commerce in Chinese Cinema presents a fresh set of critical approaches to the field that should be required reading for scholars students and anyone interested in the past present and future of one of the most vibrant and dynamic film industries in the world Michael Berry author Jia Zhangke's Hometown Trilogy and A History of Pain An excellent collection of articles that together offer a superb introduction to contemporary Chinese film studies Richard Pena Program Director Film Society of Lincoln Center This is one of the most important comprehensive and profoundly important books about Chinese cinema As correctly pointed out by the editors of the volume understanding of the emerging film industry in China requires a systematic examination of arts politics and commerce of Chinese cinema By organizing the inquiry of the Chinese film industry around its local and global market politics and film art the authors place the current transformation of Chinese cinema within a large framework The book has set a new standard for research on Chinese cinema It is a must read for students of arts culture and politics in China Tianjian Shi Duke University Art politics and commerce are intertwined everywhere but in China the interplay is explicit intimate and elemental and nowhere more so than in the film industry Understanding this interplay in the era of market reform and globalization is essential to understanding mainland Chinese cinema This interdisciplinary book provides a comprehensive reappraisal of Chinese cinema surveying the evolution of film production and consumption in mainland China as a product of shifting relations between art politics and commerce Within these arenas each of the twelve chapters treats a particular history development genre filmmaker or generation of filmmakers adding up to a distinctively comprehensive rendering of Chinese cinema The book illuminates China's changing state-society relations, the trajectory of marketization and globalization, the effects of China's start, historical shifts, Hollywood's role, the role of nationalism and related themes of interest to scholars of Asian studies, cinema and media studies, political science, sociology, comparative literature and Chinese language. Ying Zhu is professor of cinema studies in the Department of Media Culture and co-coordinator of the Modern China Studies Program at the City University of New York College of Staten Island. Stanley Rosen is director of the East Asian Studies Center and a professor of political science at the University of Southern California.

Modern Japanese Painting Techniques Shinichi Fukui, 2022-05-10 This book makes it easy to create and admire wonderful Japanese style paintings and portraits. Modern Japanese style paintings are recognizable by their restrained use of three dimensionality and perspective, reliance upon expressive lines, and the bold use of color to direct the viewer's eye. There are other ways that artists imbue their work with Japanese-inspired attributes, including through the skillful use of shape, texture, and facial expression. Author Shinichi Fukui introduces readers to 7 notable modern Japanese artists: Kazuo Kawakami, Chiaki Takasugi, Miho Tanaka, Ryohei Nishiyama, Jose Franky, Ryohei Murata, and Keiji Yano, who specialize in shin hanga style portraiture of Japanese women. He then presents instructions to create 21 different original paintings, from sketching models, preparing and mixing paints, blocking in color, and rendering fine details. Using these techniques and a bit of acrylic paint, readers will be able to create eye-catching works of art that express a timeless Japanese aesthetic.
