The Professionalization of Pastoral Care T. Dale Johnson Jr., 2020-07-21 When the organization and structure of the church in America was altered in the early 1900s to meet modern demands the role of the pastorate became more specialized to adapt to the burdens of the new efficient structure In 1920 Gaines Dobbins utilized the business efficiency model at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary to formulate a distinct ecclesiology Discontent with traditional methods of instruction in theological education Dobbins sought to implement theories and methodologies from modern educationalists He adopted a psychologized educational methodology and utilized the psychology of religion as an empirical measure of the soul human nature and human behavior Use of the social sciences seemed to grant Dobbins as a practitioner academic respectability within the realm of theological education Both the professionalization that resulted from Dobbins's efficiency standards and a working theory of human nature derived from psychological models were synthesized into a specialized system of pastoral care Dobbins followed the new shape of pastoral theology in America adopting Clinical Pastoral Education CPE as the model for pastoral training As a result CPE became an integral part of the curriculum at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for over sixty years and spread to influence many other SBC entities solutions with not for the counselee The focus is on the possibility of life without the problem through an understanding of what is different when the problem does not occur or is less intrusive The goal is healthy change sooner rather than later by helping the counselee see and work on the solution with God s activity already present in his or her life The solution focused approach does not require the counselor to be a highly trained psychological expert It requires biblically based sensitivity and common sense Yet this approach also recognizes its limitations and understands that there are situations in which other professional and or medical help is required

Pastoral Counseling: Where One Encounters the Enormity of God's Love Gerald V. Miller, 2022-08-05 The pastoral counselor brings God's presence to the counseling session. The counselor radiates God's enormous unconditional love and forgiveness to the client. Clients come in because they are spiritually broken and prey to the allies of darkness: fear of abandonment from God and those they love, resentment, frustration, anxiety, and callousness. He is the prodigal son. Through empathy, compassion, and counseling skills, the pastoral counselor connects them to the God who runs to meet him with joy, throws his arms around him, kisses him, forgives him, and makes him psychologically and spiritually whole again by giving him the signet ring. The pastoral counselor's role is to facilitate this occurrence. Biblical Counsel, 1993

Introduction to Pastoral Counseling Loren L. Townsend, 2009 An in-depth look at who pastoral caregivers are, what they do, and how and why they do it.

Worship as Pastoral Care Bishop William H. Willimon, 1982-06-01 Demonstrates how worship and pastoral care can be blended to sustain and enrich each other. Using insights gained from pastoral care and pastoral psychology, William H. Willimon explores what happens to people when they become involved in Christian worship. True pastoral care, he shows, cannot take place apart from an active worshipping community of faith. Worship as Pastoral Care sensitizes pastors to the many ways Christian worship and pastoral care methods can be blended to enrich and support one another. It encourages pastors to broaden their understanding of corporate worship and to become aware of the importance of their role as priests. To illustrate his concepts, Dr. Willimon examines four familiar acts of worship: the funeral, the wedding, baptism, and the Lord's Supper. The psychological dimensions are discussed, and suggestions are given on ways pastors can nurture and sustain their congregations through these services.
