Girma, 2012-12-05 Religiosity is one aspect without which Ethiopian society cannot be fully understood This book aims to map out the terrain of the discourse in religion social change nexus in Ethiopian using the notion of covenant as an interpretive tool

What is Time? G. J. Whitrow, 2003 In this engaging volume Professor G J Whitrow 1912 2000 takes us on a good humored and wide ranging tour of the thing that clocks keep more or less He discusses how our ideas of time originated and coaxes the layment to contemplate with pleasure the differences between cyclic linear biological cosmic and space time while providing frequent diversions into fascinating topics such as the Mayan calendar the migration of birds and the dances of bees This reissue of the classic and authoritative What is Time includes a new introduction by Dr J T Fraser founder of the International Society for the Study of Time and a bibliographic essay by Dr Fraser and Professor M P Soulsby of the Pennsylvania State University

Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Helena Feder, 2016-04-29 Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture s own origin story Moving from Voltaire s Candide to Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf s Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid s Lucy the book dramatizes humanism s own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others

Dynamis of Healing Pia Sophia Chaudhari, 2019-08-06 This book explores how traces of the energies and dynamics of Orthodox Christian theology and anthropology may be observed in the clinical work of depth psychology Looking to theology to express its own religious truths and to psychology to see whether these truth claims show up in healing modalities the author creatively engages both disciplines in order to highlight the possibilities for healing contained therein Dynamis of Healing elucidates how theology and psychology are by no means fundamentally at odds with each other but rather can work together in a beautiful and powerful synergia to address both the deepest needs and deepest desires of the human person for healing and flourishing

The Sunflower Forest William R. Jordan, 2012-02-07 Ecological restoration the attempt to guide damaged ecosystems back to a previous usually healthier or more natural condition is rapidly gaining recognition as one of the most promising approaches to conservation In this book

William R Jordan III who coined the term restoration ecology and who is widely respected as an intellectual leader in the field outlines a vision for a restoration based environmentalism that has emerged from his work over twenty five years Drawing on a provocative range of thinkers from anthropologists Victor Turner Roy Rappaport and Mary Douglas to literary critics Frederick Turner Leo Marx and R W B Lewis Jordan explores the promise of restoration both as a way of reversing environmental damage and as a context for negotiating our relationship with nature Exploring restoration not only as a technology but also as an experience and a performing art Jordan claims that it is the indispensable key to conservation At the same time he argues restoration is valuable because it provides a context for confronting the most troubling aspects of our relationship with nature For this reason it offers a way past the essentially sentimental idea of nature that environmental thinkers have taken for granted since the time of Emerson and Muir Future Survey Annual 1992 Michael

Marien,1993-01-30 Beyond Preservation A. Dwight Baldwin,Judith De Luce,Carl Pletsch,1994 Beyond Preservation was first published in 1993 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Addressing current ecological issues from the philosophical to the practical Frederick Turner and William R Jordan III Here offer a new paradigm for understanding the relationship between the humans and nature Challenging the idea that preserving nature is the only solution to environmental problems they advocate going beyond preservation to restoration and actual construction of our landscape Fifteen respondents reflect on the implications and consequences of Turner s and Jordan s bold proposals Ecological restoration is the most helpful and provocative contribution to our thinking about nature to come along in many years and Beyond Preservation is without a doubt the best book on the subject to date Michael Polan Harper s Contributors include Gary W Barrett Ann Cline David L Gorchov William Jordan III G Stanley Kane Jack Temple Kirby Dora G Lodwick Orie L Loucks Kimberly E Medley Constance Pierce Ellen Price Frederick Turner John E Wierwille and Gene E Willeke The Ecocriticism Reader Cheryll Glotfelty,Harold Fromm,1996 This book is the first collection of its kind an anthology of classic and cutting edge writings in the rapidly emerging field of literary ecology Exploring the relationship between literature and the physical environment literary ecology is the study of the ways that writing from novels and folktales to U S government reports and corporate advertisements both reflects and influences our interactions with the natural world Healing Breath Ruben L. F. Habito,2013-02-08 Healing our wounded Earth is not unrelated to healing our own personal wounds The pains of the Earth and those of the individuals making up our Earth community cannot be separated Thus the healing of our individual lives can become the basis of the healing of Earth This book sheds light on Zen as a spiritual path that leads to healing in the personal social and ecological dimensions of our being If you are seeking a form of spiritual practice that addresses all three of these dimensions or simply seeking to deepen your understanding of the Zen path it is written for you If instead of fragmentation disorientation and vacuity you seek wholeness groundedness and integrity in your life it is written for you

Perhaps you too have come to realize that our global community is in a sad state of affairs that we need to radically change how we live and relate to one another and to the Earth. You may already be engaged in some form of social or ecological action addressing these issues and you may feel overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task. If you've been tempted to pessimism or have thrown up your hands in despair when your best efforts don't seem to make a dent, this book is for you. Healing Breath offers a way to integrate a spiritual path with active socio-ecological engagement as the ground. This book also addresses another set of questions: can a Christian genuinely practice Zen? How is Zen practice compatible with a Christian faith commitment? To fully engage in a Zen practice, what kind of belief system is presupposed or required? How can spiritual practice in an Eastern tradition inform Christian life and understanding? In the process of describing the Zen way of life, Healing Breath will consider various Christian expressions, symbols, and practices not as an apologetic for that belief system but to show how they too point to the transformative and healing perspectives and experiences provided by Zen.

Designing the Reclaimed Landscape Alan Berger, 2007-12-03. The first practical yet in-depth exploration of how to reclaim the post-industrial landscape, this volume includes excellent case studies by practitioners and policy makers from around the US, giving first-rate practical examples. The book addresses new thinking about landscape which applies new techniques to the task of transforming outdated and disused post-extraction landscapes through design. In the USA alone, there are nearly 500,000 abandoned mines in need of reclamation, and this book provides the first in-depth guidance on this real and pressing issue. Drawing on the work of the well-known Project for Reclamation Excellence at Harvard's Graduate School of Design, this volume outlines the latest design thinking theory and practice for landscape planners, landscape architects, and designers and others interested in maximizing the future potential of reclaimed land. General Technical Report RM. ,1994 Design + Values Council of Educators in Landscape Architecture. Meeting, Council of Educators in Landscape Architecture. Meeting 1992, 1991. Centering Educational Administration Robert J. Starratt, 2003-04-02. In this book, Starratt enters the national conversation among educational administration scholars and practitioners about what constitutes the core of their knowledge and practice. In Part I, he develops three main themes: cultivating meaning, community, and moral responsibility, which he then positions against national themes about the core of educational administration: school improvement, democratic community, and social justice. Rather than focusing on the routine managerial tasks normally associated with school administration—budgeting, personnel, and legal problems, time and resource management, etc.—this text asks aspiring school leaders to reflect first on the underlying philosophical and sociological perspectives that constitute the substance of administrative work in education. Centering Educational Administration provides a unique perspective on leadership. The author views leadership as organically related to teaching and learning, as concerned with internal capacity building in response to state-imposed accountability pressures, and as an existential process of writing one's autobiography through their day-to-day work. An Interdisciplinary View of Educational Administration. Centering Educational Administration asks educational administrators to bring contemporary philosophical ethical and anthropological issues as well as learning theory social theory and political theory into their thinking about the daily operation of the school

A Unique Perspective on School Improvement This text asserts that school improvement narrowly defined as improving results on high stakes tests can likewise place the nation at risk An equally important agenda is teaching the young the basic satisfactions norms and potential of using their knowledge in the service of the community and of a wider humanity

Exercises in Reflective Practice This book challenges the reader to use the ideas of each chapter to analyze the current practices in their school and to propose concrete changes to improve the teaching and learning environment of their school

The Botany of Desire Michael Pollan, 2001-06-12 The book that helped make Michael Pollan the New York Times bestselling author of Cooked and The Omnivore's Dilemma one of the most trusted food experts in America In 1637 one Dutchman paid as much for a single tulip bulb as the going price of a town house in Amsterdam Three and a half centuries later Amsterdam is once again the mecca for people who care passionately about one particular plant though this time the obsessions revolves around the intoxicating effects of marijuana rather than the visual beauty of the tulip How could flowers of all things become such objects of desire that they can drive men to financial ruin In The Botany of Desire Michael Pollan argues that the answer lies at the heart of the intimately reciprocal relationship between people and plants In telling the stories of four familiar plant species that are deeply woven into the fabric of our lives Pollan illustrates how they evolved to satisfy humankind's most basic yearnings and by doing so made themselves indispensable For just as we've benefited from these plants the plants in the grand co evolutionary scheme that Pollan evokes so brilliantly have done well by us The sweetness of apples for example induced the early Americans to spread the species giving the tree a whole new continent in which to blossom So who is really domesticating whom Weaving fascinating anecdotes and accessible science into gorgeous prose Pollan takes us on an absorbing journey that will change the way we think about our place in nature

A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling, 2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music It is all about after After having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection design and beauty The book relates five areas of general human interest spirituality philosophy science art and body awareness The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music their patterns of discipline are comparable to self discipline A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills there is enjoyment in being yourself which is a neglected liberal art Design + Values Council of Educators in Landscape Architecture. Meeting 1992,1992 Shakespeare's Twenty-First Century Economics Frederick Turner,1999-09-23 I love you according to my bond says Cordelia to her father in King Lear As the play turns out Cordelia proves to be an exemplary and loving daughter A bond is both a legal or financial obligation and a connection of mutual love How are these things connected In As You Like It Shakespeare describes marriage as a blessed bond of board and bed the emotional religious and sexual sides of marriage cannot be detached from its status as a legal and economic contract These examples are the pith of Frederick Turner s fascinating new book Based on the proven maxim that money makes the world go round this engaging study draws from Shakespeare s texts to present a lexicon of common words as well as a variety of familiar familial and cultural situations in an economic context Making constant recourse to well known material from Shakespeare s plays Turner demonstrates that the terms of money and value permeate our minds and lives even in our most mundane moments His book offers a new humane evolutionary economics that fully expresses the moral spiritual and aesthetic relationships among persons and between humans and nature Playful and incisive Turner s book offers a way to engage the wisdom of Shakespeare in everyday life in a trenchant prose that is accessible to lovers of Shakespeare at all levels Religion without Belief Jean Ellen Petrolle,2008-06-05 Shows there is a strong religious impulse in postmodern literature and film
