My Hope Is Built Lorna Brown, 2018-11-14 You stand at the altar and repeat the wonderful words of the marriage vows As you exit the church a congregation of loved ones and friends send up cheers of congratulations But now the marriage has fallen apart here you are separated perhaps even divorced And instead of applause you hear the sound of your tears and the footsteps of fear You feel hurt broken empty abandoned The shame of failing is so overwhelming that for a while you do an Oscar-winning job of faking for the loved ones even the congregation that all is well All the while the enemy is grabbing at your self-esteem and grabbing at your hope But with God there is no faking it He sees and knows it all even the thoughts and feelings you would like to pretend you don't have The congregation may no longer be cheering for you but God is Rather than letting you spiral into hopelessness he cheers you on to hope again He heals he fills up the empty places in your heart and he comforts He restores hope No one rebuilds hope like God Why art thou cast down O my soul and why art thou disquieted within me hope thou in God for I shall yet praise him who is the health of my countenance and my God Psalms 42:11 KJV This book includes poetry devotionals and encouragement to strengthen you as you partner with God in rebuilding your hope Tears fears and jeers he hears them all and responds with cheer

At a time when psychiatry was stigmatized and rarely chosen by women, she stepped into the field with determination and redefined what it meant to be a healer of the mind. Facing skepticism, societal barriers, and professional challenges, she rose to become one of the most respected psychiatrists in Andhra Pradesh, touching the lives of thousands of patients.
