Collection Setsuko Nagasawa & Partners ,2001 The Prize of Success Jonas Berthod,2024-04-02 In the small world of Swiss graphic design prizes such as the Swiss Design Awards SDA are followed closely The winners works are admired envied and emulated The generous prize money allows designers to launch their careers and focus on lesser paid but critically recognised work Awards thus play the role of bellwethers of the scene However criticisms inevitably arise Speaking in hushed tones designers speculate as to why a colleague won over another Rumours have it that jury members favour their inner circles and exclude competitors Analysing this universe in detail Jonas Berthod retraces the recent history of the SDA and the emergence of a new design culture in Switzerland Setsuko Nagasawa ,2008 Setsuko Nagasawa ,1994

portrait selected examples of their work and an intimate interview conducted by the authors over several in person visits from 2004 to 2019 At the core of each story is the artist s personal relationship to clay often described as a collaboration with the material rather than an imposing of intention The oldest artist interviewed Hayashi Yasuo enlisted in the army during WWII at age fifteen and trained as a kamikaze pilot He was born into a family that had fired ceramics in cooperative kilns for generations but he rejected traditional modes and went on to be the first artist in Japan to make truly abstract ceramic sculpture In the late 1960s another artist Mishima Kimiyo developed a technique of silkscreening on clay and began making ceramic newspapers to comment on the proliferation of the media She became fascinated with trash recreating it out of clay and worked in relative obscurity for decades until she had a major exhibition in Tokyo in 2015 Featuring a preface by curator writer and historian Glenn Adamson and a foreword by Monika Bincsik the Associate Curator for Japanese Decorative Arts at The Metropolitan Museum of Art Listening to Clay has been a project more than fifteen years in the making for authors Alice and Halsey North respected and knowledgeable collectors and patrons of contemporary Japanese ceramics and Louise Allison Cort Curator Emerita of Ceramics National Museum of Asian Art Smithsonian Institution The book also includes conversations with five important dealers of contemporary Japanese ceramics who have played and are playing a critical role in introducing the work of these artists to the world several detailed appendices and a glossary of terms relevant people and relationships Listening to Clay is a long overdue and insightful book that for the first time spotlights some of Japan s most celebrated contemporary ceramic artists through personal idiosyncratic accounts of their day to day lives giving special access to their creative process and artistic development
