The Handbook of Visual Culture Ian Heywood, Barry Sandywell, 2017-04-20 Visual culture has become one of the most dynamic fields of scholarship a reflection of how the study of human culture increasingly requires distinctively visual ways of thinking and methods of analysis Bringing together leading international scholars to assess all aspects of visual culture the Handbook aims to provide a comprehensive and authoritative overview of the subject The Handbook embraces the extraordinary range of disciplines which now engage in the study of the visual film and photography television fashion visual arts digital media geography philosophy architecture material culture sociology cultural studies and art history Throughout the Handbook is responsive to the cross disciplinary nature of many of the key questions raised in visual culture around digitization globalization cyberculture surveillance spectacle and the role of art The Handbook guides readers new to the area as well as experienced researchers into the topics issues and questions that have emerged in the study of visual culture since the start of the new millennium conveying the boldness excitement and vitality of the subject Gilles Deleuze's Philosophy of Time James Williams, 2011-02-23 Throughout his career Deleuze developed a series of original philosophies of time and applied them successfully to many different fields Now James Williams presents Deleuze's philosophy of time as the central concept that connects his philosophy as a whole Through this conceptual approach the book covers all the main periods of Deleuze's philosophy the early studies of Hume Nietzsche Kant Bergson and Spinoza the two great philosophical works Difference and Repetition and Logic of Sense the Capitalism and Schizophrenia works with Guattari and the late influential studies of literature film and painting The result is an important reading of Deleuze and the first full interpretation of his philosophy of time Documentary Films in India Aparna Sharma, 2015-05-26 This book introduces the diverse practices of three non canonical practitioners David MacDougall Desire Machine Collective and Kumar Shahani It offers analysis of their documentary methods and aesthetics exploring how their oeuvres constitute a critical and self reflexive approach to documentary making in India The US Sports Film: A Genre of American Dream Time Danny Gronmaier, 2022-12-05 Sports and film are media that create time They are temporal not only in the sense that they are defined and regulated by certain temporalities as a result of processes of social negotiation but also in the sense of modulating and intervening in these processes in the first place They are determined by multiple temporalities referring to and aligning along perceptual corporeality but at the same time they also produce time through and along temporalities of bodily expression and perception Thus as much as we perceive and understand sports and film by means of our culturally coded conceptions of time this comprehension is itself already the product of these media's fabrication and modulation of certain audiovisual imaginations of time This book examines these imaginations with regard to US team sports feature films understanding the former as the latter's constitutive conflict which makes these films graspable as a genre in the first place By addressing temporality as an ever new crystallization of a heroic past and an unattainable future in a saturated yet volatile present this conflict connects substantially to the American Dream as an idea of community building historicity Departing from a non taxonomic approach in genre theory and such philosophical recognition of the American Dream as less an ideological narrative but more a social and socially effective imaginary embedded in an audiovisual discourse of time this book demonstrates the interrelation of sports cinema and American subjectivization along close readings of the poetics of affect of five exemplary sports films FIELD OF DREAMS WE ARE MARSHALL KNUTE ROCKNE ALL AMERICAN JIM THORPE ALL AMERICAN MIRACLE

Sportswomen in Cinema Nicholas Chare, 2015-03-17 Sportswomen in Cinema considers both documentary and fiction films from a variety of periods and cultures by directors including Kathryn Bigelow Gurinder Chadha Im Soon rye George Kukor Ida Lupino and Leni Riefenstahl Drawing from psychoanalytic and phenomenological theories the book presents a series of landmark close readings of films featuring a variety of different forms of athletic activity including baseball basketball bodybuilding boxing climbing football rollerderby surfing tennis and track and field In focusing on themes such as gesture screen space and sound it moves beyond a purely narrative analysis of sports films What s more as well as building on existing scholarship in sports studies to argue that sport should always be conceived of as more than simply competitive the book also contributes to ongoing efforts in film theory to foster new feminist discourses on sexual difference The ideas of thinkers such as Judith Butler Bracha Ettinger Griselda Pollock and Michel Serres are employed to explore how films featuring female athletes reflect changing perspectives on femininity and sexuality and also potentially contribute to transforming our perceptions about sportswomen and cinema Sportswomen in Cinema is an important addition to the literature of film studies gender studies and sports studies

Film, Theory and Philosophy Felicity Colman, 2014-12-05 Philosophy and in particular continental philosophy has provided a conceptual underpinning for cinema since its beginnings especially in the development of cinematic aesthetics In its turn film has rethought the abstractions of space and time and the categories of sex and gender and has created new concepts which illuminate phenomenology metaphysics and epistemology Film and Philosophy brings together leading scholars to provide a detailed overview of the key thinkers who have shaped the field of film philosophy The thinkers include continental and post continental philosophers analytic philosophers film makers film reviewers sociologists and cultural theorists The essays reveal how philosophy can be applied to film analysis and how film can be used to illustrate philosophical problems But more importantly the essays explore how film has shaped what philosophy thinks and how philosophy has lead to a reappraisal of film The book will prove an invaluable reference and guide to readers interested in a deeper understanding of the issues and insights presented by film philosophy Film and Philosophy includes essays on Hugo Munsterberg Vilem Flusser Siegfried Kracauer Theodor Adorno Antonin Artaud Henri Bergson Maurice Merleau Ponty Emmanuel Levinas Andre Bazin Roland Barthes Serge Daney Jean Luc Godard Stanley Cavell Jean Luc Nancy Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Sarah Kofman Paul Virilio Jean Baudrillard Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson Felix Guattari Raymond Bellour Christian Metz Julia Kristeva western art music studies sound and performance art and reality TV talent shows to deaf musicians and indigenous music The book also highlights such fresh ways of doing analysis and shaping the methodological tools of music and sound studies that are enabled by Deleuze and Guattari's philosophy Their philosophy too gains renewed capacities and potential when responding to ethnographic cultural ethnomusicological participatory aesthetic new materialist feminist and queer perspectives to music and sound
