Earenfight, 2010-03-15 The twelve essays in Women and Wealth in Late Medieval Europe re-examine the vexing issue of women money wealth and power from distinctive perspectives literature history architectural history using new archival sources The contributors examine how money and changing attitudes toward wealth affected power relations between women and men of all ranks especially the patriarchal social forces that constrained the range of women's economic choices Employing theories on gender culture and power this volume reveals wealth as both the motive force in gender relations and a precise indicator of other more subtle forms of power and influence mediated by gender

The Boundaries of the Human in Medieval English Literature Dorothy Yamamoto, 2000 This study analyzes the fear of beastly transformation that recurs throughout Medieval literature Yamamoto explores how humans envisioned animals with human characteristics in bestiaries and literatures that involve aspects of the hunt and heraldry Minor texts as well as major works like Chaucer's Knight's Tale are investigated Additionally she explores both examples of humans changing into animal form and those that hover enigmatically between species as wild men and women Investigating this topic she looks to Alexander romances the poetry of Gower and other sources

Women, dowries and agency Dana Wessell Lightfoot, 2016-05-16 This book examines labouring status women in late medieval Valencia as they negotiated the fundamentally defining experience of their lives marriage Through the use of notarial records and civil court cases it argues that the socio economic and immigrant status of these women greatly enhanced their ability to exercise agency not only in choosing a spouse and gathering dotal assets but also in controlling this property after they wed Although the prevailing legal code in Valencia appeared to give wives little authority over these assets court records demonstrate that they were still able to negotiate a measure of control In these actions labouring status wives exercised agency by protecting their marital goods from harm using legal statutes to their own advantage In looking at the experiences of labouring status women this monograph shifts the debate regarding women's access to and control of property in the medieval period Exploring a group previously unexamined by scholars it argues that our understanding of women's marital strategies changes challenging the central role of blood and marital kin in these negotiations

The Centre as Margin: Eccentric Perspectives on Art Maria de Lurdes Craveiro, Carla Alexandra Gonçalves, 2019-10-01 The Centre as Margin Eccentric Perspectives on Art is a multi authored volume of collected essays that answer the challenge of thinking Art History and the Arts in a broader sense from a liminal point of view Its main goal is thus to discuss the margin from the centre drawing on its concomitance within study themes and subjects ontological and epistemological positions or research methodologies themselves Marginality eccentricity liminality and superfluity are all part of a dynamic relationship between centre and margin's that will be approached and discussed from the point of view of disciplines as different and as close as art history philosophy literature and design from medieval to contemporary art Resulting from recent research developed from the privileged viewpoint offered by the margin this volume brings together the contributions of young researchers along with the work of career scholars Likewise it does not obey a traditional or a rigid diachronic structure being rather organized in three major parts that organically articulate the different essays Within each of these parts in which the book is divided papers are sometimes organized according to their timeframes providing the reader with an encompassing though not encyclopedic overview of the common ground over which the various artistic disciplines build their methodological theoretical and thematic centers and margins The intended eccentricity of this volume and the original essays herein presented should provide researchers scholars students artists curators and the general reader interested in art with a refreshing approach to its various scientific strands

Prostitution and Subjectivity in Late Medieval Germany Jamie Page, 2021-01-15 Prostitution played an important part in structuring gender relations in medieval Germany Prostitutes were often viewed as an example of the extreme female sinfulness which all women risked falling into yet their social role was also seen as vital to the unmarried men for whom they provided a sexual outlet Prostitution and Subjectivity in Late Medieval Germany is the first full length study of medieval prostitution to focus primarily on how gender discourse shaped the lives of prostitutes themselves Based on three legal case studies from the late medieval Empire Prostitutes and Subjectivity in Late Medieval Germany examines constructions of subjectivity between 1400 and 1500 This period saw the rapid rise of tolerated prostitution across much of western Europe and the emergence of the public brothel as a central institution in the regulation of social order followed by its equally rapid suppression from the early 1500s By analysing how individuals interacted with cultural discourses surrounding the body sexuality and sin the book explores how the concepts which defined prostitution in the Middle Ages shaped individual lives and how individuals were able or not to exert agency both within the circumstances of their own lives and in response to official attempts to regulate sexual behaviour

Intersections of Sexuality and the Divine in Medieval Culture Susannah Chewning,2017-03-02 As distinct from the many recent collections and studies of medieval literature and culture that have focused on gender and sexuality as their major themes this collection considers and serves to re think and re situate religion and sexuality together Including traditional works such as Chaucer and the Pearl poet as well as less well known and studied texts such as alchemical texts and the Wohunge group the contributors here focus on the meeting point of these two often examined concepts They seek an understanding of where sex and religion distinguish themselves from one another and where they do not This volume locates the Divine and the Erotic within the continuum of experience and devotion that characterize the paradox of the medieval world Not merely original in their approaches these authors seek a new vision of how these two inter connected themes sexuality and the Divine meet connect distinguish themselves and merge within medieval life language and literature

twelve essays published between 1988 and 2014 two of which are here translated into English from respectively their original French or German All the essays use gender as the main category of analysis whether of late ancient or early medieval texts or of modern medievalist films The historical studies of medieval Europe emphasize the use of manuscript level evidence that is actual sources from the period in question arguably this approach provides a more accurate understanding of the period than does work done on the basis of printed and edited sources Furthermore many of the manuscript based essays specifically exploit liturgical or liturgy adjacent materials this is an area of research and a type of manuscript that has rarely been approached through a gendered lens Meanwhile the cinematic medievalism essays focus on the processes of remediation and adaptation searching specifically for points at which filmmaking teams diverged from their sources as evidence for the main goals of the films while also attending to production contexts and to reception The juxtaposition in a single collection of scholarship on medieval manuscripts and modern movies illustrates how period specialists can contribute to conversations in the field of historical film studies The book will be of interest to historians of women gender Christian liturgy medieval Europe medievalism and historical film CS 1110 Rights at the Margins Virpi Mäkinen, Jonathan William Robinson, Pamela Slotte, Heikki Haara, 2020-11-04 The essays in this volume explore the ways rights were available to those in the margins of society By tracing pivotal judicial concepts such as right of necessity and subjective rights back to their medieval versions and by situating them in unexpected contexts such as the Franciscans theory of poverty and colonization or today s immigration and border control this volume invites its readers to consider whether individual rights were in fact or at least in theory available to the marginalized By focusing not only on the economically impoverished but also those who were disenfranchised because of disability gender race religion or infidelity this book also sheds light on the relationship between the early history of individual rights and social justice at the margins Contributors are Wim Decock Heikki Haara Virpi Mäkinen Alejandra Mancilla Julia McClure Ilse Paakkinen Mikko Posti Jonathan Robinson John Salter Pamela Slotte and Jussi Varkemaa Carnal Knowledge Martin Ingram, 2017-03-10 How was the law used to control sex in Tudor England What were the differences between secular and religious practice This major study reveals that contrary to what historians have often supposed in pre Reformation England both ecclesiastical and secular especially urban courts were already highly active in regulating sex They not only enforced clerical celibacy and sought to combat prostitution but also restrained the pre and extramarital sexual activities of laypeople more generally Initially destabilising the religious and institutional changes of 1530 60 eventually led to important new developments that tightened the regime further There were striking innovations in the use of shaming punishments in provincial towns and experiments in the practice of public penance in the church courts while Bridewell transformed the situation in London Allowing the clergy to marry was a milestone of a different sort Together these changes contributed to a marked shift in the moral climate by 1600
