Arnoldian, 1984 A Genealogy of Modernism Michael Harry Levenson, 1986-06-27 A Genealogy of Modernism is a study of literary transition in the first two decades of the twentieth century a period of extraordinary ferment and great accomplishment during which the avant garde gradually consolidated a secure place within English culture Michael Levenson analyses that complex process by following the successive phases of a literary movement Impressionist Imagist Vorticist Classicist as it attempted to formulate the principles on which a new aesthetic might be founded The emphasis here falls on the ideology of modernism but throughout the book the ideological question is tied on the one hand to specific literary works and on the other to general movements in philosophy and the fine arts The major figures under discussion Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Ezra Pound Wyndham Lewis and T S Eliot are placed in relation to thinkers who have been largely neglected in the history of modernism Max Stirner Wilhelm Worringer Pierre Lasserre Allen Upward and Hilaire Belloc Levenson thus situates the emergence of a modernist aesthetic within the context of literary theory literary practice and cultural history Taking the Fight to the Enemy Adam L. Fuller, 2012-01-01

read and the thinkers they either learned from or came to fear The book looks at the ways in which the neoconservatives adapted Lenin's formula for success to conservative efforts in the United States arguing that neoconservatism is an anti ideology ideology in that it considers a New Class of professional ideologically motivated reformers to be the greatest problem facing the United States because of their increased efforts to technocratize ordinary life their moral relativism their efforts to usurp human nature and supplant it with their own utopian visions their anti Americanism and their unwillingness to face imminent dangers threatening the American way of life The book argues that the neoconservative political strategy is to take the fight to the enemy
