Mister Smith:

Don't Stop Thinking About the Music Benjamin S. Schoening, Eric T. Kasper, 2011-12-16 In this insightful erudite history of presidential campaign music musicologist Benjamin Schoening and political scientist Eric Kasper explain how politicians use music in American presidential campaigns to convey a range of political messages From Follow Washington to I Like Ike to I Got a Crush on Obama they describe the ways that song use by and for presidential candidates has evolved including the addition of lyrics to familiar songs the current trend of using existing popular music to connect with voters and the rapid change of music s relationship to presidential campaigns due to Internet sites like YouTube JibJab and Facebook Readers are ultimately treated to an entertaining account of American political development through popular music and the complex two way relationship between music and presidential campaigns

The Star Creek Papers Horace Mann Bond, 2011-03-15 The Star Creek Papers is the never before published account of the complex realities of race relations in the rural South in the 1930s When Horace and Julia Bond moved to Louisiana in 1934 they entered a world where the legacy of slavery was miscegenation lingering paternalism and deadly racism The Bonds were a young well educated and idealistic African American couple working for the Rosenwald Fund a trust established by a northern philanthropist to build schools in rural areas They were part of the Explorer Project sent to investigate the progress of the school in the Star Creek district of Washington Parish Their report which decried the teachers lack of experience the poor quality of the coursework and the students chronic absenteeism was based on their private journal The Star Creek Diary a shrewdly observed sharply etched and affectionate portrait of a rural black community Horace Bond was moved to write a second document Forty Acres and a Mule a history of a black farming family after Jerome Wilson was lynched in 1935 The Wilsons were thrifty landowners whom Bond knew and respected he intended to turn their story into a book but the chronicle remained unfinished at his death These important primary documents were rediscovered by civil rights scholar Adam Fairclough who edited them with Julia Bond s support

Heromaker G.B. Chavez, 2024-04-03 Ezekiel Amadeus is the eldest of nine children all raised by a single mother and tends to show total independence a lot younger than expected An enigmatic change in his body compared to his fellow teenagers and a past life he cannot remember he rises to prove himself capable of standing up for those he wishes to protect Hildegard is an orphan raised by an abusive aunt who wishes to one day become a singer and actress But the more she learns about her parents the more of a target she becomes But when things get tough she will do what she can to stand up for herself Cadence is an incredibly intelligent yet shy young woman who has ideas to advance humanity s understanding of science all the while a stranger to true affection And yet beyond going through school they encounter more than what most people know Secrets such as an underground nation comprised of Neo Nazis the mysterious society of the Knights of the Peace Equation the experimental city of Mega among the fate of the race of Elfs among other mythological creatures About the Author About the time he reached middle school G B Chavez began thinking of ideas for a television series he'd wish to someday create By the time he graduated high school in 2019 he had begun to reinvent the story upon realizing how much of a challenge it would be but still wished to get a version of the story out In March of 2021 Chavez began to write Heromaker A British Story Written By An American which he plans to eventually be the first installment of an extensive series of books surrounding the main protagonist s Chavez has always had a fascination with culture affiliated with the United Kingdom which has stemmed from watching Peter Pan as a child This fascination is not only what inspired for this story to take place in the United Kingdom but has him wishing to one day travel to the European nation

I, Zombie Al Ewing, 2008-06-15 My name is John Doe I've been dead for ten years I have no heartbeat no breath no smell just cold clammy flesh animated by something I don't understand So I sell my dead flesh to the highest bidder If the price is right I'll kill for you steal for you or save your life for you There's no mystery you can't hire me to solve apart from this one The bent copper torn apart in his flat by something not quite human The hidden rooms underneath the Tower of London The hollow eyed boxer Morse and strange strange Mr Smith with his head full of the future And the secret they found The secret of who I am A secret so big and black and terrible that it changed everything we thought we knew about existence And now I'm the only person who can stop the end of all life on this planet I Zombie

The Clarke County Democrats Phil Brady, 2013-08-20 It is 1921 a year after the Clarke County Democrats stole a bus that would change everything for the semi professional baseball team of Thomasville Alabama With their owner and manager Win Harrigan behind the wheel the Democrats head out on the road where they hope to achieve financial success As the team of unlikely players follows a schedule of eight away games it soon becomes evident that it is going to take more than just brains and ingenuity to create a winning record for the folks back in Thomasville that include young newlyweds Leonard and Frances Cassity When tragedy strikes the Cassitys Leonard is eventually recruited to play for the Democrats as he attempts to create a better life for his new bride But when his desire to please Frances leads him to carry out an unthinkable act Leonard is about to discover that there are consequences for every choice in life The Clarke County Democrats shares the compelling tale of a young recruits journey through tragedies and challenges during 1920s America after he decides to play for an Alabama baseball team
