facts and the fiction of the five men who have worn the shirt with the most distinction With the help of players journalists and a psychologist he analyses what made Best Robson Cantona Beckham and Ronaldo tick and assesses their credentials for a permanent place in the Old Trafford hall of fame For example he looks at how Best finally ripped away the cobwebs of Munich by winning the European Cup almost single handedly for United how Cantona turned the club back into winners after a dismal spell in the wilderness and how Ronaldo has offered hope and glitter to a United in transition It also explores the often darker side to the five men and how mischief so often goes hand in hand with their success and how it made them the entertainers they are scribe and literary Hammer Pete May writes with humour and eloquence about the most turbulent year of change at the Boleyn since Ken's Caf got a tub of Flora Phill Jupitus West Ham's final season at the Boleyn Ground was always going to be memorable It featured a new manager in Slaven Bilic the arrival of a French magician called Dimitri Payet and away wins at Arsenal Liverpool and Man City not to mention an unexpected tilt at the top four and an epic last game at the Boleyn against Man United But a new beginning is around the corner and as he and his fellow Hammers prepare to swap the gritty East End streets of E13 for the shiny shopping centres of Stratford lifelong supporter Pete May reflects on the special place the Boleyn Ground has occupied in the hearts of generations of Irons fans Whether it's the infamous chants of the Bobby Moore Stand the pre match fry ups at Ken's Caf or the joys of sticky carpets rubbish ale and blokes singing on pool tables in the pubs around Upton Park Pete's memories are sure to resonate with legions of the claret and blue army as they say farewell to the Boleyn and enter a new era at the London Stadium
