searching world The Most Pleasant and Delectable Questions of Love Giovanni Boccaccio, 2006-07 Riveting questions about love and all the finer emotions thereof are presented in the book Each question is followed by a love story and a debate upon it The stories are judged by the Queen of love Engrossing Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum s published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements The Romantic Love Question & Answer Book Nathaniel Branden, E. Devers Branden, 1982 Marion, Love, and Nihilism Matthew C. Kruger, 2024-11-19 The foundation of this book is the work of Jean Luc Marion who writes at length about the problems of vanity and nihilism and offers an answer in love specifically Christian love A complication that arises however is that Marion argues that love is absent in the respective responses to nihilism of Friedrich Nietzsche and Martin Heidegger two figures who play a key role in the development of his thought and who also have their own notions of love In Marion Love and Nihilism Matthew C Kruger explores this series of questions by providing first an overview of the responses to nihilism found in these figures then a close reading of Marion s thoughts on the matter before moving to accounts of the concept of love in Nietzsche and Heidegger The book then finishes with a further critique of Marion s work relying on the thought of Nishitani Keiji Kruger argues that while Marion correctly identifies an answer in love as did Heidegger Nietzsche and Nishitani in their own ways Marion s thought ends in world denial and thus fails find a complete answer to nihilism If Love is the Answer, what is the Question? Uta West,1977-01-01

The Radicality of Love Srećko Horvat,2016-01-11 What would happen if we could stroll through the revolutionary history of the 20th century and without any fear of the possible responses ask the main protagonists from Lenin to Che Guevara from Alexandra Kollontai to Ulrike Meinhof seemingly na ve questions about love Although all important political and social changes of the 20th century included heated debates on the role of love it seems that in the 21st century of new technologies of the self Grindr Tinder online dating etc we are faced with a hyperinflation of sex not love By going back to the sexual revolution of the October Revolution and its subsequent repression to Che s dilemma between love and revolutionary commitment and to the period of 68 from communes to terrorism and its commodification in late capitalism the Croatian philosopher Srećko Horvat gives a possible answer to the question of why it is that the most radical revolutionaries like Lenin or Che were scared of the radicality of love What is so radical about a seemingly conservative notion of love and why is it anything but conservative This short book is a modest contribution to the current upheavals around the world from Tahrir to Taksim from Occupy Wall Street to Hong Kong from Athens to Sarajevo in which the question of love is curiously surprisingly absent Consciousness Dialogues Peter Ralston,2018-06-12 Peter Ralston responds to 150 questions about consciousness from a global spectrum of people striving to grasp the nature of their own selves This illuminating collection of 150 questions and responses between Peter Ralston and a global spectrum of seekers provides a rare and nuanced look at the nature of consciousness and the path to understanding our true selves Ralston is the author of the groundbreaking trilogy on the existential foundations of the human condition The Book of Not Knowing Pursuing Consciousness and The Genius of Being Here he has selected inquiries from more than two decades of question and answer exchanges with students as they work their way through his communications The mosaic of viewpoints from an astonishing diversity of real people at all levels of consciousness work yields a narrative that is intricate wide ranging intimate and emotionally honest These dialogues expand our understanding of consciousness test our assumptions and interrogate the very process of inquiry Anchored
