Sanders,1898 The Aesthetics of Enchantment in the Fine Arts M. Kronegger,Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2013-03-14 Let us revive the true sense of fine arts enchantment In the conceptualised commercialised artificial approach to fine arts we forgot its authentic experiential sense It lies at the imaginative heart of all arts there to be retrieved by the creative recipient as the very truth of it all In Our Own Image Wesley J. Wildman,2017-12-15 In Our Own Image is a work of comparative philosophical theology It is a study of the roles anthropomorphism and apophaticism play in the construction of conceptual models of ultimate reality Leading scholar Wesley J Wildman considers whether we create our ideas of God He offers a comparative analysis of three major classes of ultimacy models paying particular attention to the way those classes are impacted by anthropomorphism while tracing their relative strengths and weaknesses Wildman provides a constructive theological argument on behalf of an apophatic understanding of ultimate reality showing how this understanding subsumes challenges and relates ultimacy models from the three classes being compared He describes and compares competing ultimacy models fairly and sympathetically The conclusion is that all models cognitively break on the shoals of ultimate reality but that the ground of being class of models carries us further than the others in regard to the comparative criteria that matter most

Plato and Hegel (RLE: Plato) Gary Browning,2012-11-12 Hegel and Plato are united as political theorists by the convergence of their philosophical aspirations But their political writings manifest the general disparities involved in their particular ways of seeking to fulfil these aspirations Professor Browning compares the political thought of Plato and Hegel by locating their political theorizing within the context of their divergent modes of philosophizing New Sincerity Adam Kelly,2024-10-08 The years 1989 2008 were an era of neoliberal hegemony in US politics economy and culture Post 45 scholar Adam Kelly argues that American novelists who began their careers during these years specifically the post baby boom generation of writers born between the late 1950s and early 1970s responded to the times by developing in their fiction an aesthetics of sincerity How and in what way these writers ask can you mean what you say and avow what you feel when what you say and feel can be bought and sold on the market What is authentic art in a historical moment when the artist has become a model for neoliberal subjectivity rather than its negation Through six chapters focused on key writers of the period including Susan Choi Helen DeWitt Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers George Saunders Dana Spiotta Colson Whitehead and David Foster Wallace the book explores these central questions while intervening critically in a set of debates in contemporary literary studies concerning aesthetics economy gender race class and politics Offering the capstone articulation of a set of influential arguments made by the author over a decade and more New Sincerity constitutes a field defining account of a period that is simultaneously recent and historically bound and of a generation of writers who continue to shape the literary landscape of the present Incomprehensible Certainty Thomas Pfau,2022-06-01 Thomas Pfau s

study of images and visual experience is a tour de force linking Platonic metaphysics to modern phenomenology and probing literary philosophical and theological accounts of visual experience from Plato to Rilke Incomprehensible Certainty presents a sustained reflection on the nature of images and the phenomenology of visual experience Taking the image eikōn as the essential medium of art and literature and as foundational for the intuitive ways in which we make contact with our lifeworld Thomas Pfau draws in equal measure on Platonic metaphysics and modern phenomenology to advance a series of interlocking claims First Pfau shows that beginning with Plato's later dialogues being and appearance came to be understood as ontologically distinct from but no longer opposed to one another Second in contrast to the idol that is typically gazed at and visually consumed as an object of desire this study positions the image as a medium whose intrinsic abundance and excess reveal to us its metaphysical function namely as the visible analogue of an invisible numinous reality Finally the interpretations unfolded in this book from Plato Plotinus Pseudo Dionysius John Damascene via Bernard of Clairvaux Bonaventure Julian of Norwich and Nicholas of Cusa to modern writers and artists such as Goethe Ruskin Turner Hopkins Cézanne and Rilke affirm the essential complementarity of image and word visual intuition and hermeneutic practice in theology philosophy and literature Like Pfau's previous book Minding the Modern Incomprehensible Certainty is a major work With over fifty illustrations the book will interest students and scholars of philosophy theology literature and art history
