with existential guilt Death now over fed still has to be faced but Everyman has the harder problem of living with the awareness of human wickedness without the possibility of salvation All three plays have tended to be viewed in their specific historical contexts but by viewing them less rigidly and as part of a long dramatic tradition Murdoch shows that all present a message of lasting and universal significance They pose directly to the theater audience questions not just of how to cope with death but how to cope with life

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
