The Dark Side of Hope Karen Krett, 2011-11-30 Using her deep understanding of self psychological theory and her own extensive clinical experience Karen Krett offers us a scholarly yet down to earth examination of hope For too long hope has been promoted as an unmitigated virtue without any consideration of its dark side Yet as Krett shows through revealing clinical examples hope may also impede development and contribute to psychological suffering Her book serves as a wonderful guide from hope's dark side to the light Doris Brothers Ph D author of Toward a Psychology of Uncertainty Trauma Centered Psychoanalysis and Falling Backward An Exploration of Trust and Self Experience Hope saturates the cultural air we breathe in movies songs advertising political slogans and self help books Now for the first time Karen Krett LCSW is putting hope on the therapist's couch Krett examines the duality of hope In childhood hope can be the emotional glue that keeps us from falling apart from losing the thread of life In adulthood unconscious patterns of hoping for what can never be often interfere with our ability to make good choices in love and work It may seem as if giving up any hope would mean the end of us but Krett offers a refreshingly different perspective by breaking the hold of the dark side of hope we can become free to direct ourselves toward hopes which can be realized

Nature Conservation in Southern Africa ,2018-11-26 Nature conservation in southern Africa has always been characterised by an interplay between Capital specific understandings of Morality and forms of Militarism that are all dependent upon the shared subservience and marginalization of animals and certain groups of people in society Although the subjectivity of people has been rendered visible in earlier publications on histories of conservation in southern Africa the subjectivity of animals is hardly ever seriously considered or explicitly dealt with In this edited volume the subjectivity and sentience of animals is explicitly included The contributors argue that the shared human and animal marginalisation and agency in nature conservation in southern Africa and beyond could and should be further explored under the label of sentient conservation Contributors are Malcolm Draper Vupenyu Dzingirai Jan Bart Gewald Michael Glover Paul Hebinck Tariro Kamuti Lindiwe Mangwanya Albert Manhamo Dhoya Snijders Marja Spierenburg Sandra Swart Harry Wels
