Matlock, 2019-06-15 Signs of Reincarnation provides the first comprehensive look at the belief in reincarnation and the evidence for past lives from historical records anthropological studies and contemporary research Matlock discusses various ways the evidence may be interpreted and shows that although reincarnation entails a rejection of the materialist notion that consciousness is generated by the brain it does not require the acceptance of any radically new concepts or the abandonment of well established findings in mainstream psychology or biology This book offers students scholars and anyone interested in the possibility of reincarnation an essential grounding in beliefs cases and theory while opening doors for future research into the extension of consciousness beyond our present lives

death is how we die what minds we need at death and what happens after death only by knowing about death and rebirth can we actually fully understand what life is and so learn how to live fully Lama Zopa Rinpoche There is arguably no truth more foundational to Buddhism than this everything is impermanent We can see this in the world all around us old systems break down relationships change Death comes for those we love and inevitably for us In this book the late beloved teacher Lama Zopa Rinpoche walks us through the traditional revelatory practices of meditating on the fact of impermanence and even especially on death itself Rather than shy away from this reality we look straight at it and thus we learn not only how to not fear death but how to live

Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek, 2013-07-09 We all face death but how many of us are actually ready for it Whether our own death or that of a loved one comes first how prepared are we spiritually or practically In Preparing to Die Andrew Holecek presents a wide array of resources to help the reader address this unfinished business Part One shows how to prepare one's mind and how to help others before during and after death The author explains how spiritual preparation for death can completely transform our relationship to the end of life dissolving our fear and helping us to feel open and receptive to letting go in the dying process Daily meditation practices the stages of dying and how to work with them and after death experiences are all detailed in ways that will be particularly helpful for those with an interest in Tibetan Buddhism and in Tibetan approaches to conscious dying Part Two addresses the practical issues that surround death Experts in grief hospice the funeral business and the medical and legal issues of death contribute chapters to prepare the reader for every practical concern including advance directives green funerals the signs of death warnings about the funeral industry the stages of grief and practical care for the dying Part Three contains heart advice from twenty of the best known Tibetan Buddhist masters now teaching in the West These brief interviews provide words of solace and wisdom to guide the dying and their caregivers during this challenging time Preparing to Die is for anyone interested in learning how to prepare for death from a Buddhist perspective both spiritually and practically It is also for those who want to learn how to help someone else who is dying both during the time of illness and death as well as after death

Living, Dreaming, Dying Rob Nairn, 2004-08-03 The Tibetan Book of the Dead is one of the best known Tibetan Buddhist texts It is also one of the most difficult texts for Westerners to understand In Living Dreaming Dying Rob Nairn presents the first interpretation of this classic text using a modern Western perspective avoiding arcane religious terminology keeping his explanations grounded in everyday language Nairn explores the concepts used in this highly revered work and brings out their meaning and significance for our daily life He shows readers how the Tibetan Book of the Dead can help us understand life and self as well as the dying process Living Dreaming Dying helps readers to live deliberately and confront death deliberately One thing that prevents us from doing that according to Nairn is our tendency to react fearfully whenever change occurs But if we confront our fear of change and the unknown we can learn to flow gracefully with the unfolding circumstances of life rather than be at their mercy Of course change occurs throughout our life but a period of transition also occurs as we pass from the waking state into sleep and likewise as we pass into death Therefore the author s teachings apply equally to living as well as to dreaming and dying Through meditation instructions and practical exercises the author explains how to Explore the mind through the cultivation of deep meditation states and expanded consciousness Develop awareness of negative tendencies Use deep sleep states and lucid dreaming to increase self understanding as well as to train oneself in how to die so that one is prepared for when the time comes Confront and liberate oneself from fear of death and the unknown
