Black Poets of the United States Jean Wagner, 1973 Traces the evolution of Afro American poetry highlighting individual poets up to the time of the Harlem Renaissance Singing in a Strange Land Nick Salvatore, 2007-10-15 A prizewinning historian pens this biography of C L Franklin the greatest African American preacher of his generation father of Aretha and civil rights pioneer Hard, Hard Religion John Hayes, 2017-09-19 In his captivating study of faith and class John Hayes examines the ways folk religion in the early twentieth century allowed the South s poor both white and black to listen borrow and learn from each other about what it meant to live as Christians in a world of severe struggle Beneath the well documented religious forms of the New South people caught in the region s poverty crafted a distinct folk Christianity that spoke from the margins of capitalist development giving voice to modern phenomena like alienation and disenchantment Through haunting songs of death mystical tales of conversion grassroots sacramental displays and an ethic of neighborliness impoverished folk Christians looked for the sacred in their midst and affirmed the value of this life in this world From Tom Watson and W E B Du Bois over a century ago to political commentators today many have ruminated on how despite material

commonalities the poor of the South have been perennially divided by racism Through his excavation of a folk Christianity of the poor which fused strands of African and European tradition into a new synthesis John Hayes recovers a historically contingent moment of interracial exchange generated in hardship

The American Experiment James MacGregor Burns, 2013-05-21 The Pulitzer Prize winning author's stunning trilogy of American history spanning the birth of the Constitution to the final days of the Cold War In these three volumes Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner James MacGregor Burns chronicles with depth and narrative panache the most significant cultural economic and political events of American history In The Vineyard of Liberty he combines the color and texture of early American life with meticulous scholarship Focusing on the tensions leading up to the Civil War Burns brilliantly shows how Americans became divided over the meaning of Liberty In The Workshop of Democracy Burns explores more than a half century of dramatic growth and transformation of the American landscape through the addition of dozens of new states the shattering tragedy of the First World War the explosion of industry and in the end the emergence of the United States as a new global power And in The Crosswinds of Freedom Burns offers an articulate and incisive examination of the US during its rise to become the world's sole superpower through the Great Depression the Second World War the Cold War and the rapid pace of technological change that gave rise to the American Century

Reformed Evangelicalism and the Search for a Usable Past Ian Hugh Clary, 2020-09-07 The question of how theology shapes a Christian historian's reading of the past has been debated thoroughly in various academic periodicals Should historians recognise the role of providence in their accounts of past events Should they sympathise with their subject's theology Can objectivity be lost due to theological bias And last but not least is there a compromise of faith if one writes natural instead of supernatural history Such questions are important for understanding the historian's profession Arnold Dallimore who trained and specialised in pastoral ministry in Canada wrote an influential biography of the revivalist George Whitefield as well as others on Charles and Susanna Wesley Edward Irving and Charles Spurgeon How did his Reformed theological perspective impact his historiography How does his work fit into larger historiographical debates concerning the nature of Christian history While other books look at Christian historiography using abstract and methodological approaches this book examines the subject precisely by looking at the life and work of an individual historian It does so by placing Dallimore in the context of being a minister in twentieth century Canada as well as his role in the development of Reformed Theology in the Anglosphere It also examines the quality of his various biographies focusing on key issues such as the nature of religious revival the problem of Christianity and slavery and the question of charismatic religious experience His study concludes by examining the relationship between the discipline and profession of church history and asking what is required for one to be considered a church historian

What Mama Said Osonye Tess Onwueme, 2003 An explosive political drama projecting an African people's revolutionary struggle to confront government forces and foreign oil corporations that have ravaged their land and strangled the voices of their mothers and daughters Secret Doctors Bloomsbury Publishing,1994-08-23 Based on an ethnographic study of the traditional medicine of African Americans in the rural southern United States this work concentrates on the original Louisiana Territory with its Native and African American indigenous traditions and the French migration and Black Haitian freed and enslaved population influx during the 1700s and 1800s Fontenot finds strong ties between rural Louisiana practices and Haitian and West African medicine The ethnographer a native of the region where she did her research is respected among local practicing secret doctors and is able to give a unique insider s view Aside from documenting a rare treasure of our American cultural diversity this study has a wider purpose in the field of health practices and policy The high cost of Western medicine lack of access to quality care and the patient doctor ratio are areas of major national concern and rural residents and people of color are recognized to be the most at risk populations The alternative health care system presented here can strengthen mainstream medicine s understanding of such patient populations while preserving valuable knowledge of healing plants and culturally sensitive therapies The God of the Dangerous Sermon Frank A. Thomas,2021-10-19 Learn to engage with a dangerous God to preach the sermons your community needs today Every sermon has a theology and a god of that theology behind it Preaching is more effective and has more integrity when preachers understand the god behind their theology Specifically whether the god is a universal God like the one expressed by Christ and the Christian faith or a tribal god which is sometimes dressed up to resemble Christianity but is something else entirely Frank A Thomas culminates his exploration of the Dangerous Sermon with this book which leads readers through the process of identifying and understanding the gods behind theology and their connection to preaching The reader is equipped to discern the metaphors symbols and rhetorical indicators which point to the god a preacher is serving and calling others to serve Praise for The God of the Dangerous Sermon Enlightening vibrant and memorable A vital resource for anyone who seeks to preach substantive sermons Donyelle McCray Associate Professor of Homiletics Yale Divinity School New Haven CT With dexterous and definitive argument Thomas compels preachers to be accountable for the God behind their rhetoric Karoline M Lewis Marbury E Anderson Chair of Biblical Preaching Professor of Biblical Preaching Luther Seminary St Paul MN The God of the Dangerous Sermon and its two companion books will raise up the next wave of preachers who simultaneously nurture faith communities and bear witness to the God of justice we know in the face of Jesus Christ Gregory V Palmer Resident Bishop of the Ohio West Episcopal Area United Methodist Church Warning to all preachers Do not open this book by Frank Thomas unless you are ready to be changed No one else lays out the promise and perils of preaching with such clarity and compassion I know I do not live up to the call of the God of the Dangerous sermon every single Sunday but Frank Thomas sure makes me want to Great teachers and preachers will do that Lillian Daniel senior pastor of First Congregational Church in Dubuque IA author of Tired of Apologizing for a Church I Don t Belong To In God of the Dangerous Sermon Frank Thomas refines his theoretical vision of celebration in African American preaching and demonstrates how and why theological content is at the heart of his project For Thomas celebration is rhetorical theology made possible because of the actions and character of a God whose divine performance consists of healing the brokenhearted liberating the oppressed and refusing to be tribal A legend in his time this is Thomas at the height of his native genius and creative powers Kenyatta R Gilbert professor of homiletics Howard University School of Divinity Washington DC author of Exodus Preaching Crafting Sermons about Justice and Hope from Abingdon Press Opening the Field of Practical Theology Kathleen A.

Mission, Worldly Ambition Adele Oltman, 2010-01-25 Using Savannah Georgia as a case study Sacred Mission Worldly Ambition tells the story of the rise and decline of Black Christian Nationalism This nationalism emerged from the experiences of segregation as an intersection between the sacred world of religion and church and the secular world of business The premise of Black Christian Nationalism was a belief in a dual understanding of redemption at the same time earthly and otherworldly and the conviction that black Christians once delivered from psychic spiritual and material want would release all of America from the suffering that prevented it from achieving its noble ideals The study s use of local sources in Savannah especially behind the scenes church records provides a rare glimpse into church life and ritual depicting scenes never before described Blending history ethnography and Geertzian dramaturgy it traces the evolution of black southern society from a communitarian nationalist system of hierarchy patriarchy and interclass fellowship to an individualistic one that accompanied the appearance of a new black civil society Although not a study of the civil rights movement Sacred Mission Worldly Ambition advances a bold revisionist interpretation of black religion at the eve of the movement It shows that the institutional primacy of the churches had to give way to a more diversified secular sphere before an overtly politicized struggle for freedom could take place The unambiguously political movement of the 1950s and 1960s that drew on black Christianity and radiated from many black churches was possible only when the churches came to exert less control over members quotidian lives A Sarah Mills Hodge Fund Publication Black Theology—Essays on Gender Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins, 2017-06-15 What do African American men have to do with gender In this collection of riveting and wide ranging essays Dwight N Hopkins draws on over thirty five years of wrestling with these questions Too often gender is seen as a woman s only discussion But in reality men have a gender too Some say it is biological others claim it has to do with socialization Hopkins's career has focused on defining what a black American man is and how he builds bridges of support and engagement with women Hopkins's research as a theologian and his experiences substantiate that the importance of religious viewpoints principled values and future hope remain key to any successful creation of a new African American male and new healthy male female interactions

Religion in the Contemporary South Corrie Norman (E.), Donald S. Armentrout, 2005 Religion has always been crucial to the cultural identity of the South The field of southern religious studies is quite young however and most scholarship has focused on the kinds of evangelical fundamentalist activity for which the phrase Bible Belt was coined Religion in the Contemporary South is the first book to fully address the emerging religious pluralism in the South today Featuring an introduction by Samuel S Hill Religion in the Contemporary South brings together fourteen essays by both established and emerging scholars that deal with a spectrum of topics These topics include religious identities in the South that weave in and out of the past new religious expressions in the South and the shifting position of old minority traditions and a microcosmic look at the Episcopal Church The collection comes at a time of sweeping change in the South as the 150 year stronghold of evangelical Protestantism the Baptist Methodist hegemony gives way to a more diverse religious tradition one that includes leadership by women decreasing marginalization for Roman Catholicism and Judaism and the growing presence of so called alien religious traditions Buddhism Hinduism and Islam In his essay A Crumbling Empire Bill J Leonard talks about the future of the Baptist denomination which grows more uncertain as moderates break ties with the fundamentalist leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention In Our Lady of Guadeloupe Visits the Confederate Memorial Thomas Tweed notes the growth of Hindu Buddhist and Muslim traditions in the South Susan Ridgely Bales examines the state of southern Catholicism in Sweet Tea and Rosary Beads and in Quiet Revolutionaries D Jonathan Grieser Corrie E Norman and Don S Armentrout discuss the ways in which women priests in the Southern Episcopal Church construct their lives and callings These and other offerings are varied comprehensive and provocative As the South changes and its religious life evolves so must scholarship Religion in the Contemporary South is a guide to the new southern religions more diverse sometimes controversial but as vital to the region as ever

Uplifting the People Wilson Fallin, 2007-08-17 Uplifting the People is a history of the Alabama Missionary Baptist State Convention its origins churches associations conventions and leaders Fallin demonstrates that a distinctive Afro Baptist faith emerged as slaves in Alabama combined the African religious emphasis on spirit possession soul travel and rebirth with the evangelical faith of Baptists The denomination emphasizes a conversion experience that brings salvation spiritual freedom love joy and patience and also stresses liberation from slavery and oppression and highlights the exodus experience In examining the social and theological development of the Afro Baptist faith over the course of three centuries Uplifting the People demonstrates how black Baptists in Alabama used faith to cope with hostility and repression Fallin reveals that black Baptist churches were far more than places of worship They functioned as self help institutions within black communities and served as gathering places for social clubs benevolent organizations and political meetings Church leaders did more than conduct services they protested segregation and disfranchisement founded and operated schools and provided community leaders for the civil rights movement of the mid 20th century Through black churches members built banking systems insurance companies and welfare structures Since the gains of the civil rights era black Baptists have worked to maintain the accomplishments of that struggle church leaders continue to speak for social justice and the rights of the poor and churches now house day care and Head Start programs Uplifting the People also explores the role of women the relations between black and white Baptists and class formation within the black church

Voices of Black Folk Terri Brinegar, 2022-04-19 Recipient of a 2023 Certificate of Merit for Best Historical Research in Recorded Blues R B Gospel Hip Hop or Soul Music from the Association for Recorded Sound Collections In the late 1920s Reverend A W Nix 1880 1949 an African American Baptist minister born in Texas made fifty four commercial recordings of his sermons on phonographs in Chicago On these recordings Nix presented vocal traditions and styles long associated with the southern rural Black church as he preached about self help racial uplift thrift and Christian values As southerners like Nix fled into cities in the North to escape the rampant racism in the South they contested whether or not African American vocal styles of singing and preaching that had emerged during the slavery era were appropriate for uplifting the race Specific vocal characteristics like those on Nix s recordings were linked to the image of the Old Negro by many African American leaders who favored adopting Europeanized vocal characteristics and musical repertoires into African American churches in order to uplift the modern New Negro citizen Through interviews with family members musical analyses of the sounds on Nix s recordings and examination of historical documents and relevant scholarship Terri Brinegar argues that the development of the phonograph in the 1920s afforded preachers like Nix the opportunity to present traditional Black vocal styles of the southern Black church as modern Black voices These vocal styles also influenced musical styles The moaning voice used by Nix and other ministers was a direct connection to the blues moan employed by many blues singers including Blind Willie Blind Lemon and Ma Rainey Both Reverend A W Nix and his brother W M Nix were an influence on the Father of Gospel Music Thomas A Dorsey The success of Nix s recorded sermons demonstrates the enduring values African Americans placed on traditional vocal practices

Black Church Studies Stacey Floyd-Thomas, Juan M. Floyd-Thomas, Carol B. Duncan, Dr. Stephen G. Ray JR., Nancy Lynne Westfield, 2007-11-01 Religious Studies Over the last thirty years African American voices and perspectives have become essential to the study of the various theological disciplines Writing out of their particular position in the North American context African American thinkers have contributed significantly to biblical studies theology church history ethics sociology of religion homiletics pastoral care and a number of other fields Frequently the work of these African American scholars is brought together in the seminary curriculum under the rubric of the black church studies class Drawing on these several disciplines the black church studies class seeks to give an account of the broad meaning of Christian faith in the African American experience Up to now however there has not been a single comprehensive textbook designed to meet the needs of students and instructors in these classes Black Church Studies An Introduction will meet that need Drawing on the work of specialists in several fields it introduces all of the core theological disciplines from an African American standpoint from African American biblical interpretation to womanist theology and and ethics to sociological understandings of the life of African American churches It will become an indispensable resource for all those preparing to serve in African American congregations or to understand African American contributions to the study of Christian faith Looks at the diverse definitions and functions of the Black Church as well as the ways in which race class religion and gender inform its evolution Provides a comprehensive view of the contributions of African American Scholarship to the current theological discussion Written by scholars with broad expertise in a number of subject areas and disciplines Will enable the reader to relate the work of African American theological scholars to the tasks of preaching teaching and leading in local congregations Will provide the reader the most comprehensive understanding of African American theological scholarship available in one volume Stacey Floyd Thomas Brite Divinity School Juan Floyd Thomas Texas Christian University Carol B Duncan Wilfrid Laurier University Stephen G Ray Jr Lutheran Theological Seminary Philadelphia Nancy Lynne Westfield Drew University Theology Theology and Doctrine Contemporary Theology
