and teachers). London New Church, Camden road,1876 Literary Intention, Literary Interpretations, and Readers
John Maynard,2009-04-17 This accessible personal and provocative study returns to the major subject in literary discussion before and during the relatively recent flourishing of literary theory that of literary intention Does the author s personal intention or historical site determine a correct interpretation of a literary work Probing the entire range of issues connected with this many faceted and knotty concept this book engages with interpretation on both theoretical and practical levels It argues that the hard questions about interpretation connected to issues of intention cannot be sidestepped or ignored It does not argue for conservative concepts of literature itself nor against the major historical engagements of critics in our time But in addressing those who continue to read or teach literature it does insist on a level of sophistication in issues of literary interpretation that cannot be assured by historical research and knowledge of the social and cultural connections to literary works The overall aim of the work is to recall readers to the great complexity pleasure and interest of literary interpretation

Talks to the Children. Addresses [by J. Speirs and others]. ... Edited by J. Speirs James Speirs,1876 Education and Knowledge Kevin Harris,2016-09-13 In this book first published in 1979 Kevin Harris explores the idea that in capitalist liberal democracies formal education functions essentially not to reveal reality but rather to transmit to each new generation a structured misrepresentation of reality In defence of this controversial and thought provoking view the author argues that all knowledge of the world is theory laden and that a neutral detached objective description of the world is impossible This title will be of interest to students of the philosophy of education Talks to Children James Speirs,1876 For all the Bishops and Priests in Christendom, to measure themselves by the Scriptures of Truth ... And to all that call themselves Papists, Bishops, Ministers and Teachers of the Gospel; and Professors in Christendom ... for them to try themselves and their actions, etc George Fox,1664
