Silent Extras A Novel:

Silent Extras Arnon Grunberg, 2000 Een onafscheidelijk drietal jongeren droomt van een toekomst in de wereld van de film The Last Word Justin Gautreau, 2021 The Last Word argues that the Hollywood novel opened up space for cultural critique of the film industry at a time when the industry lacked the capacity to critique itself While the young studio system worked tirelessly to burnish its public image in the wake of celebrity scandal several industry insiders wrote fiction to fill in what newspapers and fan magazines left out Throughout the 1920s and 1930s these novels aimed to expose the invisible machinery of classical Hollywood cinema including not only the evolving artifice of the screen but also the promotional discourse that complemented it As likeminded filmmakers in the 1940s and 1950s gradually brought the dark side of the industry to the screen however the Hollywood novel found itself struggling to live up to its original promise of delivering the unfilmable By the 1960s desperate to remain relevant the genre had devolved into little more than erotic fantasy of movie stars behind closed doors perhaps the only thing the public couldn't already find elsewhere Still given their unique ability to speak beyond the institutional restraints of their time these earlier works offer a window into the industry's dynamic creation and re creation of itself in the public imagination Extra Innings: A Novel Based on the Life of Jack "Lucky" Lohrke,

Amuse-Bouche Arnon Grunberg, 2013-12-03 When you're dead I figure you can quit adjusting to other people but until then life is all about adjusting So reflects Arnon Grunberg as he finds himself high fiving an elderly drug dealer and her husband in a Las Vegas hotel room We use it before sex Bizarre garrulous self confident often desperately lonely such is the variety of characters Grunberg meets in Amsterdam or New York it's thanks only to this ability to adjust and quietly tune in that we're able to share so many private worlds or be moved by the most fleeting encounters From the rich widow blowing her husband's fortune on slot machines because she doesn't believe in an afterlife to the language student telling of her arrival in America under the hood of a truck Grunberg moves effortlessly between worlds Be it cynical high society New York claustrophobic family arguments back in Amsterdam or simply small talking with waiters in the people watching capital of the world Grunberg steals glimpses deep into the most guarded of lives sharing moments of joy and absurdity at every turn The perfect appetiser for a major emerging voice Deadpan offbeat quirkily comic but steeped in loneliness The Independent 20 March The wit and sardonic intelligence that shine through Arnon Grunberg's prose make it a continual pleasure to read J M Coetzee on The Jewish Messiah A literary treat Hans Warren Rotterdams Dagblad The Complete Review Guide to Contemporary World Fiction M.A. Orthofer, 2016-04-19 A user friendly reference for English language readers who are eager to explore contemporary fiction from around the world Profiling hundreds of titles and authors from 1945 to today with an emphasis on fiction published in the past two decades this guide introduces the styles trends and genres of the world's literatures from Scandinavian crime thrillers and cutting edge Chinese works to Latin American narco fiction and award winning French novels The book's critical selection of titles defines the arc of a country's literary development Entries illuminate the fiction of individual nations cultures and peoples while concise biographies sketch the careers of noteworthy authors Compiled by M A Orthofer an avid book reviewer and the founder of the literary review site the Complete Review this reference is perfect for readers who wish to expand their reading choices and knowledge of contemporary world fiction A bird s eye view of titles and authors from everywhere a book overfull with reminders of why we love to read international fiction Keep it close by Robert Con Davis Udiano executive director World Literature Today M A Orthofer has done more to bring literature in translation to America than perhaps any other individual This book will introduce more new worlds to you than any other book on the market Tyler Cowen George Mason University A relaxed riverine guide through the main currents of international writing with sections for more than a hundred countries on six continents Karan Mahajan Page Turner blog The New Yorker

Mentors, Muses & Monsters Elizabeth Benedict,2012-02-01 Thirty writers look back at the the people events and books that launched their literary lives

Worldly Spirits, Extra-Human Dimensions, and the Global Anglophone Novel Hilary Thompson,2023-12-28 Engaging a diverse range of contemporary anglophone literature from authors of the Asian Middle Eastern and Caribbean diasporas this book explores how such works turn to spirit forces spirit realms and spirit beings were animals mystical birds and snake goddesses as positive forces that assert perceptual dimensions beyond those of the human and present a vision of Earth as agentive and animate With previous scholarship downplaying these aspects of modern works as uncanny hauntings or symptoms of capitalism s or anthropocentrism s destructiveness or within a blanket rubric of magical realism Hilary Thompson rejects this partitioning of them as products of an exotic East or global South By contrast this book builds a new critical framework for analysis of worldly spirits drawing on anthropological discussions of animism the newly recovered 1930s boundary crossing art movement Dimensionism and multispecies theories of animals diverse perceptual worlds Taking stock of novels published from 2018 2020 by such writers as Amitav Ghosh Andr Alexis Yangsze Choo Azareen Van der Vliet Oloomi Zeyn Joukhadar and Tanya Tagaq Thompson illuminates how these works extend an ecological call to decentre the human and align with multidimensional theories of art and literature to provide ways to read for rather than reduce the extra human dimensions emerging in contemporary fiction A refreshing rejection of ecological apocalypticism this book unsettles typical conceptualizations of both anglophone and Anthropocene literatures by invoking European art theory philosophy and non Western ideas on animism and spirits to put forward perceptions of the extra human as a form of dealing with the many uncertainties of today s different crises

The Low Countries Jozef Deleu,2002 The Low Countries is a yearbook aimed at presenting to the world the culture and society of the Dutch speaking area which embraces both the Netherlands and also Flanders the northern part of Belgium The articles in this yearbook survey the living contemporary culture of the Low Countries as well as their cultural heritage It provides information about literature and the arts but also about broad social and historical development in Flanders and the Netherlands

Sex, Power and the Folly of Marriage in Women's Novels of the 1920s Judy Cornes,2015-10-26 The Americans experienced great social change in the decade following World War I They were restless often discontented searching for the good life the one promised to the generation who cheered on by patriotic slogans and propaganda enlisted to fight on European battlefields While young writers such as Hemingway and Fitzgerald romanticized the lives of Americans in postwar Europe and the U S a number of women authors in the 1920s looked through a darker lens The novels of Edith Wharton Willa Cather Margaret Wilson Edna Ferber Ellen Glasgow Dorothy Scarborough and Dawn Powell set mainly in the 19th century searched the past for the origins of postwar upheaval especially with respect to the status of women Today a few iconic male novelists of the 1920s are synonymous with the spirit and culture of the Jazz Age This book focuses on their female contemporaries largely neglected by both critics and readers who remain relevant for their exploration of timeless social and psychological themes the battle of the sexes and its tragic consequences *One of "us".
