Silent Woman Sylvia Plath And Ted Hughes:

The Silent Woman Janet Malcolm, 2013-01-16 In an astonishing feat of literary detection one of the most provocative critics of our time and the author of In the Freud Archives and The Purloined Clinic offers an elegantly reasoned meditation on the art of biography In The Silent Woman Janet Malcolm examines the biographies of Sylvia Plath to create a book not about Plath's life but about her afterlife how her estranged husband the poet Ted Hughes as executor of her estate tried to serve two masters Plath's art and his own need for privacy and how it fell to his sister Olwyn Hughes as literary agent for the estate to protect him by limiting access to Plath's work Even as Malcolm brings her skepticism to bear on the claims of biography to present the truth about a life a portrait of Sylvia Plath emerges that gives us a sense of knowing this tragic poet in a way we have never known her before And she dispels forever the innocence with which most of us have approached the reading of any biography

An Emotional History of the United States Peter N. Stearns, Jan Lewis, 1998 Emotions lie at our very core as human beings How we process and grapple with our emotions how and what we emot and how we respond to the emotions of others constitute the essence of our social universe In a very real sense we exist only through the prism of our emotions And yet the profound effect of human emotion on history politics religion and culture remains underexamined While the influence of emotion in such realms as American foreign policy has been well documented other emotional aspects of American history have escaped notice What role for instance does emotion have in the practice of African American religion How do shame and self hatred influence American conceptions of identity How does our emotional life change as we age To what degree is American consumerism driven by basic human emotion With this landmark anthology historians Peter N Stearns and Jan Lewis provide a road map of the American emotional landscape From the emotional world of working class Massachusetts to the prayers of evangelical and pentecostal women and the gendered nature of black rage these essays provide a multicultural snapshot of the unique nature and evolution of American emotions numerous poetic genres Covering a range of cultural traditions from Britain Ireland North America Japan and the Caribbean among others this valuable collection considers ancient genres such as the elegy the ode the ghazal and the ballad before moving on to Medieval and Renaissance genres originally invented or codified by the Troubadours or poets who followed in their wake The book also approaches genres driven by theme such as the calypso and found poetry Each chapter begins by defining the genre in its initial stages charting historical developments and finally assessing its latest mutations be they structural thematic parodic assimilative or subversive A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil

Roberts,2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century Literary thermodynamics Zeno who purportedly hanged himself after stubbing his toe on a turtle and Yukio Mishima's sensational and bloody hara kiri performance. Suicides are arranged by type: Existential suicides brought on by metaphysical issues; emotionally rich Romantic suicides; political suicides; manic depressive mortal coil shuffling à la Sylvia Plath and the bizarre and often nonchalant suicides of many Surrealists. Lachman focuses on little known or forgotten characters such as Polish avant garde figure Witkacy Thomas Chatterton, the original tragic Romantic genius narcissistic publisher Harry Crosby and the tormented Austrian poet Georg Trakl. The second part of Dead Letters is a selection of writings about suicide whose real value lies in Lachman's research and his knack of smoothly relating obscure biographical tidbits and philosophical ideas. This work on a grim subject never becomes overly morbid and Lachman remains respectful of his troubled subjects. Suicide is not recommended but this volume surely is a splendid summary of self destruction. Mike Pursley in Fortean Times     Any Person Is the Only Self Elisa Gabbert, 2024-06-11 Contagiously curious essays on reading art and the life of the mind from the acclaimed author of The Unreality of Memory. Who are we when we read? When we journal? Are we more ourselves alone or with friends? Right now or in memory? How does time transform us and the art we love? In sixteen dazzling expansive essays the acclaimed essayist and poet Elisa Gabbert explores a life lived alongside books of all kinds: dog-eared and destroyed, cherished and discarded, classic and clichéd, familiar and profoundly new. She turns her witty searching mind to the writers she admires from Plath to Proust and the themes that bind them: chance, freedom, envy, ambition, nostalgia, and happiness. She takes us to the strange edges of art and culture from hair metal to surf movies to party fiction. Any Person Is the Only Self is a love letter to literature and to life, inviting us to think alongside one of our most thrilling and versatile critics.     Biography Catherine N. Parke, 2020-10-28 Catherine Parke explores biography through detailed examinations of Samuel Johnson, Virginia Woolf, Langston Hughes, Gertrude Stein and other masters of the genre.     Eight American Poets Joel Conarroe, 1997-02-25 In this generous anthology Joel Conarroe has assembled the work of eight poets who have shaped and to some extent defined American verse since 1940: Elizabeth Bishop, James Merrill, Sylvia Plath, Allen Ginsberg, Theodore Roethke, John Berryman, Anne Sexton, and Robert Lowell. The 164 selections in Eight American Poets include widely anthologized works like Roethke's My Papa's Waltz, several of Berryman's Dream Songs, and Anne Sexton's Ringed the Bells, as well as poems that are less familiar but just as haunting. Prefaced with a discerning introduction and individual biographical essays.
