Magnum Landscape:

Magnum Landscape Magnum Photos, 1996 In the tradition of monumental Magnum books this publication brings together an eclectic assortment of work by the finest photographers of our time capturing a riveting and seductive series of fleeting moments around the world For half a century Magnum photographers through countless commissions and their own personal work have produced images that comment on the state of the world In photographing the landscape they are not just spectators but participants aware that the land itself has been shaped by man and that the very notion of a landscape depends on a human viewpoint As each photographer records and interprets a diversity of subject matter to form a unique personal style the variations on this theme are endless landscapes of war of agriculture of industry of cities and motorways of desolation celebration and tranquillity The photographs assimilated in this book invite us to rediscover landscape and urge us to think more profoundly not only about planet earth in its entirety but about our own place in it Landscape John Wylie, 2007-08-07 Landscape is a stimulating introduction to and contemporary understanding of one of the most important concepts within human geography A series of different influential readings of landscape are debated and explored and for the first time distinctive traditions of landscape writing are brought together and examined as a whole in a forward looking critical review of work by cultural geographers and others within the last twenty to thirty years This book clearly and concisely explores landscape theories and writings allowing students of geography environmental studies and cultural studies to fully comprehend this vast and complex topic To aid the student vignettes are used to highlight key writers papers and texts Annotated further reading and student exercises are also included For researchers and lecturers Landscape presents a forward looking synthesis of hitherto disparate fields of inquiry one which offers a platform for future research and writing Imagining Landscapes Monica Janowski, Tim Ingold, 2016-05-13 The landscapes of human habitation are not just perceived they are also imagined What part then does imagining landscapes play in their perception The contributors to this volume drawn from a range of disciplines argue that landscapes are imagined in a sense more fundamental than their symbolic representation in words images and other media Less a means of conjuring up images of what is out there than a way of living creatively in the world imagination is immanent in perception itself revealing the generative potential of a world that is not so much ready made as continually on the brink of formation Describing the ways landscapes are perpetually shaped by the engagements and practices of their inhabitants this innovative volume develops a processual approach to both perception and imagination But it also brings out the ways in which these processes animated by the hopes and dreams of inhabitants increasingly come into conflict with the strategies of external actors empowered to impose their own ready made designs upon the world With a focus on the temporal and kinaesthetic dynamics of imagining Imagining Landscapes foregrounds both time and movement in understanding how past present and future are brought together in the creative world shaping endeavours of both inhabitants and scholars The book will appeal to anthropologists sociologists and archaeologists as well as to geographers historians and philosophers with interests in landscape and environment heritage and culture creativity perception and imagination The Photo Review Stephen Perloff,1996 Picturing Scotland through the Waverley Novels Richard J. Hill,2016-04-22 Innovative and accessibly written Picturing Scotland examines the genesis and production of the first author approved illustrations for Sir Walter Scott s Waverley novels in Scotland Consulting numerous neglected primary sources Richard J Hill demonstrates that Scott usually seen as disinterested in the mechanics of publishing actually was at the forefront of one of the most innovative publishing and printing trends the illustrated novel Hill examines the historical precedents influences and innovations behind the creation of the illustrated editions tracking Scott s personal interaction with the mechanics of the printing and illustration process as well as Scott s opinions on visual representations of literary scenes Of particular interest is Scott s relationships with William Allan and Alexander Nasmyth two important early nineteenth century Scottish artists As the first illustrators of the Waverley novels their work provided a template for one of the more lucrative publishing phenomena Informed by meticulous close readings of Scott s novels and augmented by a bibliographic catalogue of illustrations Picturing Scotland is an important contribution to Scott studies the development of the illustrated novel and publishing history Landscapes of Memory Gerald Finley,2024-03-29 This title was originally published in 1980 This title was originally published in 1980 Laxton's Building Price Book 2002 V B Johnson,2001-10-10 Laxton s gives you access to the most reliable and current data All 250 000 price elements have been individually checked and updated for the 2002 edition so that your estimates are always accurate and cost competitive Laxton s makes analytical estimating simple and straightforward by displaying a complete breakdown for all measured items under 10 separate headings all on a single page This shows you a complete price build up at a glance and gives you the option to make price adjustments wherever necessary You can find the sections you need quickly and easily via the special marker system on the front cover and page edges The free CD with this price book contains Masterbill s ESTIMATOR software and fully resourced data on all the price elements in Laxtons Not only does the CD offer fast and efficient pricing at the touch of a button it gives details of all the resources required to do the job Laxton s approximate estimating section gives all in pricing for quick reference on the cost of composite items such as floors helping you calculate the cost implications of using plywood sheeting rather than softwood boarding for example Laxton s Basic Price section gives you a quick price on hundreds of items from concrete work to roofing materials to save you going through hundreds of lists from suppliers manufacturers and building merchants Laxton s Brand and Trade Names section lists over 12 000 brands and trade names and company addresses to help you locate specific items Latest wage rates fees and allowances All 250 000 price elements checked and updated Landscape and Englishness ,2006-01-01 In the papers collected in this the first volume of the Spatial Practices series Englishness is reflected in the spaces it occupies or dwells in Broadly influenced by a renewed and growing interest in questions of cultural identity its emergence in Victorian theories and fictions of nationality and the new cultural geography the papers cover a rich variety of spaces and places which have been appropriated for cultural meanings the rural countryside and farmland of the Home Counties in the early nineteenth century as Arcadian idyll in Cobbett as the land to die for in war propaganda and as nostalgia for a unified organic English culture in Lawrence Morton and Priestley's travel writing but also in the Shell Tourist Guides to motoring in rural England English moorland the sacred geographies of monuments in Hardy and others the traditional seaside deconstructed in Martin Parr's photography and the sea as English Victorian imperial territory and its symbolic breezes in Froude's travel writing The English landscape is also a paradigm for the description of other places in D H Lawrence's travel writing or for the colonial territory itself in Rushdie's writing India a displacement of other landscapes This collection of papers examines the assumption that constructions of rural England provide the basis for an understanding of Englishness

Ed Wall, 2020-04-06 Who defines the landscapes around us What practices are employed as contemporary landscapes are produced This issue argues that landscapes are made and remade through interrelations between people and the worlds around them from geographers investigating the lives of urban wastelands to landscape architects projecting future cities and from migrants navigating border systems to artists working with local residents In contrast to tendencies to emphasise the physical forms of landscapes with their potential to be redesigned and represented in drawings this issue brings to the forefront the social constructedness of landscapes by focusing on a range of critical practices and daily actions As conventional frames of landscape are challenged other ways of measuring mapping imagining designing building and occupying them are revealed For centuries artists and designers have represented landscapes of power in paintings and have transformed them through their design proposals But in recent years a number of researchers designers artists and activists have explored an expanded field of landscape investigating populations fleeing conflict zones reimagining cities facing ecological challenges questioning territorial claims and critiquing processes of urbanisation This issue focuses on some of these individuals whose work and lives encompass a diverse range of practices brought together through their critical redefinition of landscape relations Contributors Pierre B langer Harry Bix Neil Brenner and Nikos Katsikis Luis Callejas and Charlotte Hansson James Corner Gareth Doherty and Pol Fit Matamoros Matthew Gandy Christina Leigh Geros Rania Ghosn and El Hadi Jazairy Nina Marie Lister Richard Mosse Kate Orff Toya Peal Neil Spiller Tiago Torres Campos and Tim Waterman Featured practices Advanced Landscape and Urbanism Design Earth East Anglia Records Estudio Teddy Cruz Fonna Forman Furtherfield James Corner Field Operations Larissa Fassler LCLA office OPSYS and SCAPE
