and Pavilions Mohammad Gharipour, 2013-04-02 From Timur's tent in Samargand to Shah Abbas's palace in Isfahan and Humayun's tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur'an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa'di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes onto examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bihzad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa'di's Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia's rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies

Editing the Bible John S. Kloppenborg, Judith H. Newman, 2012-06-21 The Bible is likely the most edited book in history yet the task of editing the Hebrew Aramaic and Greek texts of the Bible is fraught with difficulties The dearth of Hebrew manuscripts of the Jewish Scriptures and the substantial differences among those witnesses creates difficulties in determining which text ought to be printed as the text of the Jewish Scriptures For the New Testament it is not the dearth of manuscripts but the overwhelming number of manuscripts almost six thousand Greek manuscripts and many more in other languages that presents challenges for sorting and analyzing such a large multivariant data set This volume representing experts in the editing of the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament discusses both current achievements and future challenges in creating modern editions of the biblical texts in their original languages The contributors are Kristin De Troyer Michael W Holmes John S Kloppenborg Sarianna Metso Judith H Newman Holger Strutwolf Eibert Tigchelaar David Trobisch Eugene Ulrich John Van Seters Klaus Wachtel and Ryan Wettlaufer

The Old Testament Between Theology and History Niels Peter Lemche, 2008-01-01 From its inception at the time of the Enlightenment until the mid twentieth century the historical critical method constituted the dominant paradigm in Old Testament studies In this magisterial overview Niels Peter Lemche surveys the development of the historical critical method and the way it changed the scholarly perception of the Old Testament In part 1 he describes the rise and influence of historical critical approaches while in part 2 he traces their decline and fall Then in part 3 he discusses the identity of the authors of the Old Testament based on the content of the literature they wrote demonstrating that the collapse of history does not preclude critical study Part 4 investigates the theological consequences of this collapse and surveys Old Testament and biblical theology in its various manifestations in the twentieth century An appendix includes a history of Palestine from the Stone Age to modern times constructed without recourse to the Old Testament

The Dead Sea Scrolls Sarianna Metso, Hindy Najman, Eileen Schuller, 2010-07-26 How were Jewish texts produced and transmitted in late antiquity What role did scribal practices play in the shaping of both scriptural and interpretive traditions which are as the Scrolls show so decisively intimately intertwined How were texts assembled from a variety of earlier sources both oral and written Why were they often attributed to pseudonymous authors from the remote past such as Moses and David How did the composers of these texts understand the enterprise in which they were engaged This volume furthers current debates about Qumran Scribal Practice and the transmission of traditions in Jewish Antiquity It is published with the conviction that the transmission of traditions and the details of scribal practices so often treated separately should be considered in conversation with each other

Changes in Scripture Hanne von Weissenberg, Juha Pakkala, Marko Marttila, 2011-03-29 The articles in this volume investigate changes in texts that became to be regarded as holy and unchangeable in Judaism and Christianity The volume seeks to draw attention to the empirical evidence from Qumran the Septuagint as well as from passages in the Hebrew Scriptures that have been shaped by the use of other texts The contributions are divided into three main sections The first section deals with methodological questions concerning textual changes The second section consists of concrete examples from the Hebrew Bible Qumran and Septuagint on how the texts were changed corrected edited and interpreted The contributions of the third section will investigate the general influence and impact of Deuteronomistic ideology and phraseology on later texts
