The Making of New Zealand Cricket, 1832-1914 Greg Ryan, 2004. This book examines the emergence and growth of cricket in relation to diverse patterns of European settlement in New Zealand, such as the systematic colonization schemes of Edward Gibbon Wakefield and the gold discoveries of the 1860s.

New Zealand Identities James H. Liu, 2006-04-01. Fifteen writers with diverse personal and scholarly backgrounds come together in this collection to examine issues of identity, viewing it as both a departing point and end destination for the various peoples who have come to call New Zealand home. The essays reflect the diversity of thinking about identity across the social sciences, as well as common themes that transcend disciplinary boundaries. Their explorations of the process of identity making underscore the historical roots, dynamism, and plurality of ideas of national identity in New Zealand, offering a view not only of what has been but also what might be on the horizon.

Legends in Black: New Zealand Rugby Greats on Why We Win Tom Johnson, 2014-07-23 In the world of rugby the All Blacks have an unsurpassed legacy of success We are the best of the best Legends in Black comprises frank no holds barred interviews with New Zealand rugby greats each sharing their thoughts on every aspect of what it means to be an All Black first selection the haka international and provincial rugby professionalism team culture camaraderie technical advances coaching and leadership A one of a kind account of New Zealand rugby Legends in Black draws on unprecedented access to some of the biggest names in the game revealing the secrets to why we win The winning ethos was so fundamental to the culture and had been ingrained for years and it just keeps going The wonderful thing about the All Blacks is the tradition of its history the belief by players in what happened before Winning was something that was an absolute focus John Hart Leadership is within the team I had a role as a fixer if there was trouble going on not a dirty role but as the one able to talk to the opposition and tell them I wouldn't do that again if I were you Colin Meads Winning becomes a habit because success is fantastic but when you take those platitudes you've also got to learn how to lose lose well and graciously and learn from your losses Wayne Buck Shelford It was about working out who you played the game for it's not the name of the team or the colour of the jersey but the people around you Andy Haden Also available as an eBook Sports Law in New Zealand Elizabeth Toomey, 2023-05-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of sports law in New Zealand deals with the regulation of sports activity by both public authorities and private sports organizations The growing internationalization of sports inevitably increases the weight of global regulation yet each country maintains its own distinct regime of sports law and its own national and local sports organizations Sports law at a national or organizational level thus gains a growing relevance in comparative law The book describes and discusses both state created rules and autonomous self regulation regarding the variety of economic social commercial cultural and political aspects of sports activities Self regulation manifests itself in the form of by laws and encompasses organizational provisions disciplinary rules and rules of play However the trend towards more professionalism in sports and the growing economic social and cultural relevance of sports have prompted an increasing reliance on legal rules adopted by public authorities This form of regulation appears in a variety of legal areas including criminal law labour law commercial law tax law competition law and tort law and may vary following a particular type or sector of sport It is in this dual and overlapping context that such much publicized aspects as doping sponsoring and media and responsibility for injuries are legally measured This monograph fills a gap in the legal literature by giving academics practitioners sports organizations and policy makers access to sports law at this specific level Lawyers representing parties with interests in New Zealand will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative sports law National Geographic Traveler: New Zealand, 2nd Edition Peter Turner, 2013-10 Annotation Peter Turner presents a rich overview of New Zealand that helps tailor your visit to the time you have and your specific interests Insider tips are provided on favourite
