Frank Sargeson

New Zealand Listener Take 5:

To Bed at Noon Ian Richards, 2013-11-01 This volume examines the life and work of New Zealand author Maurice Duggan His life was turbulent and difficult as he suffered from a black Irish personality the lifelong trauma of an amputated leg and battles with alcoholism relationships and employment This biography looks at the complexity of his life and offers a picture of literary life in New Zealand and especially Auckland in the 1950 s and 1960 s Sex, Lies & Feminism Peter D. Zohrab, 2002

Going to School in Oceania Craig Campbell, Geoffrey Sherington, 2007-10-30 The history and current practices for school systems in the countries of the Oceanic region depend on the economic political and cultural circumstances of their countries Divided into four chronological sections pre nineteenth century nineteenth century twentieth century and present times each chapter traces the factors that have impacted educational philosophy and goals for each country Identifying available options for students of all economic backgrounds each chapter also includes a Day in the Life feature that shares with readers what a typical student in that country will experience at their school Australia Fiji New Zealand Papua New Guinea Samoa

Conversation in a Train and Other Critical Writings Frank Sargeson, 2013-10-01 Frank Sargeson wrote fiction for over half a century as well as occasional criticism in many forms and on many topics Writers considered include D H Lawrence Sherwood Anderson Henry Lawson and Olive Schreiner besides fellow New Zealanders such as Katherine Mansfield Janet Frame Dan Davin James Courage Bill Pearson and Ronald Hugh Morrieson He was particularly concerned with societies which grew on the nineteenth century European colonial frontiers and with the writers they produced A comprehensive bibliography of Sargeson s non fiction prose is included Sing New Zealand Guy E. Jansen, 2020-02-01 New Zealanders love to sing together and we ve done so in choirs for over 200 years In Sing New Zealand Guy E Jansen describes our country s choral music trajectory from the amateur efforts of the nineteenth century to today s internationally renowned choirs It s a story about striving for excellence and achieving it This book is the first to bring together the stories and history of this significant aspect of New Zealand s culture

Flight of the Phoenix James M. Bertram, 1985

Blue Smoke Chris Bourke, 2013-11-01 Bringing to life the musical worlds of New Zealanders both at home and out on the town this history chronicles the evolution of popular music in New Zealand during the 20th century From the kiwi concert parties during World War I and the arrival of jazz to the rise of swing country the Hawaiian sound and then rock n roll this musical investigation brings to life the people places and sounds of a world that has disappeared and uncovers how music from the rest of the world was shaped by Maori and Pakeha New Zealanders into a melody rhythm and voice that made sense on these islands

Treasury Malcolm McKinnon, 2013-10-01 Commissioned by the Ministry for Culture and Heritage this interpretive history tackles New Zealand s most important department of state the Treasury Department The history of the complex interplay between New Zealand s government economy and people is detailed McKinnon shows the perennial jousting of officials with ministers the rise and fall of the accountants the rise of the economists and the impact of changes in the political scene and of events in the world economy

Sites of Sport John Bale, Patricia Vertinsky, 2004-06-01 The study of built environments such as gymnasiums football stadiums swimming pools and skating rinks provides unique information about the historical enclosure of the gendered and sexualised body the body's capabilities needs and desires It illuminates the tensions between the globalising tendencies of sport and the importance of local culture and a sense of place This collection uses spatial concepts and examples to examine the nature and development of sporting practices At a time when the importance of spatial theories and spatial metaphors to sport is being increasingly recognised this pioneering work on the changing landscape of sporting life will appeal to students of the history sociology and management of sport

Rugby League in New Zealand Ryan Bodman, 2023-09-29 This is the story of a sport told through its communities Rugby League in New Zealand A People's History unveils the compelling journey of a game flourishing against the odds Beginning with the game's introduction to the country in 1907 Ryan Bodman reveals the deep rooted connections between rugby league's development and the evolving cultural fabric of New Zealand By questioning the mythic status of rugby union in the nation's identity this history highlights how power politics and people have collectively shaped the country's sporting scene Drawing on first hand interviews and a wide range of illustrations and archival material Bodman locates rugby league history in working class suburbs and among Kaitiaki Māori Pasifika migrants and clubs and communities across the country The people behind the game share accounts of change triumph and resilience while emphasising rugby league's lasting influence on New Zealanders lives

Creating a National Spirit William Leslie Renwick, 2004 By exploring New Zealand's centennial celebration in 1940 this volume paints a vivid picture of New Zealanders and how they perceived themselves and their relationships to the world at that time Detailing the Centennial Exhibition Wellington trade fair and various other public commemorations special publications of dictionaries and pictorial surveys and cultural and art exhibits this text fully examines how the country and citizens commemorated their history and recognized new opportunities in the changing world landscape

Changing Times Jenny Carlyon, Diana Morrow, 2014-02-01 From the golden weather of postwar economic growth through the globalization economic challenges and protest of the 1960s and 1970s to the free market revolution and new immigrants of the 1980s and 1990s and beyond this account the most complete and comprehensive history of New Zealand since 1945 illustrates the chronological and social history of the country with the engaging stories of real individuals and their experiences Leading historians Jennifer Carlyon and Diana Morrow discuss in great depth New Zealand's move toward nuclear free status its embrace of a small state free market ideology and the seeming rejection of its citizens of a society known for the worship of averages Stories of pirate radio in Auckland's Hauraki Gulf the first DC8 jets landing at Mangere airport feminists liberating pubs public protests over the closing of post offices and indigenous language nests vividly demonstrate how a postwar society famous around the world for its dull conformity became one of the most ethnically economically and socially diverse countries on earth
