A New Translation of the Book of Psalms and of the Proverbs George Rapall Noyes, 1880

The Poetical Books Big Dream Ministries, 2004 The Bible is simply a love letter compiled into sixty six books and written over a period of sixteen hundred years by more than forty authors living on three continents Although the authors came from different backgrounds there is one message one theme one thread that runs throughout the entire Bible from the first book Genesis to the last book Revelation That message is God's redeeming love for mankind a message that is as relevant for us today as it was two thousand years ago The Poetical Books reveal the heart of the nation of Israel and are considered some of the finest literature ever written It is as if the authors very hearts have been opened up for all to see Pain is not minimized nor is man's struggle to understand God downplayed Questions of suffering are boldly asked worship is gloriously displayed wisdom is held in highest esteem married sexual love is unashamedly portrayed and philosophy is openly debated Hebrew poetry is not structured around the rhyme or meter we are used to reading and hearing Instead ideas are often stated in one line and then reinforced in the second line or a second line is composed to add to or complete the thoughts of the first In other forms the second line of poetry contrasts the first Job and Song of Solomon were written as dramatic poems that tell a story Most of the psalms were written to be accompanied by an instrument and are thus examples of lyric poetry rich in its language of worship and praise Proverbs and Ecclesiastes are examples of didactic poetry giving instructions or lessons about life in short concise verses
