Poets 88 The New Generation:

African-American Poets Harold Bloom, 2010 This volume examines contemporary African American poets from the well known writers of the late 20th century to the newly established and emerging voices of today Poet in Place and Time Mary Panicia Carden, Jane Falk, 2024-05-15 Poet in Place and Time Critical Essays on Joanne Kyger addresses the work of poet Joanne Kyger from a variety of approaches from her first book The Tapestry and the Web 1965 to her last major work On Time 2015 situating her within various movements of 20th century American poetry Richard Rorty: A Short Introduction Martin Müller, 2022-10-31 The essential offers a systematic guide to a fruitful reading of Rorty At the same time it provides a brief introduction to the main features of Richard Rorty's neopragmatism The author proposes to read it as a fragile balance of pragmatism and romanticism by which Rorty seeks to change our self image Moreover he elucidates this transformative ambition through a sketch of continence irony and solidarity and the utopian figure of the liberal ironist The essential concludes with a reference to Rorty's hitherto unrecognized ethico political motivation and with a methodological suggestion for further reading of his texts One must apply the pragmatist method to himself Ethics for Apocalyptic Times Daniel Shank Cruz, 2023-10-30 Ethics for Apocalyptic Times is about the role literature can play in helping readers cope with our present day crises including the COVID 19 pandemic climate change and the shift toward fascism in global politics Using the lens of Mennonite literature and their own personal experience as a culturally Mennonite queer Latinx person Daniel Shank Cruz investigates the age old question of what literature's role in society should be and argues that when we read literature theapoetically we can glean a relational ethic that teaches us how to act in our difficult times In this book Cruz theorizes theapoetics a feminist reading strategy that reveals the Divine via literature based on lived experiences and extends the concept to show how it is queer decolonial and equally applicable to secular and religious discourse Cruz's analysis focuses on Mennonite literature including Sofia Samatar's short story collection Tender and Miriam Toew's novel Women Talking but also examines a non Mennonite text Samuel R Delany's novel The Mad Man alongside practices of haiku and tarot to show how reading theapoetically is transferable to other literary traditions Weaving together close reading and personal narrative this pathbreaking book makes a significant and original contribution to the field of Mennonite literary studies Cruz's arguments will also be appreciated by literary scholars interested in queer theory and the role of literature in society Beyond the Lyric Fiona Sampson, 2012-09-06 British poetry is enjoying a period of exceptional richness and variety This is exciting but it's also confusing and throws up the need for an enthusiastic guide that can explain and celebrate the many parallel poetry projects now underway Beyond the Lyric does just that This is a book of enthusiasms an intelligent and witty map of contemporary British poetry and a radical accessible guide to living British poets grouped for the first time according to the kind of poetry they write In a series of groundbreaking new classifications beginning with the bread and butter diction of the Plain Dealers and ending on the capacious generosity of the Exploded Lyric it examines the broad range of contemporary tendencies from the baroque swagger of the Dandies to the restrained elegance of the Oxford Elegists from the layered haunting verse of Mythopoeists to the inventive explorations of the New Formalists By probing the cultural context from which these groups emerge and shifting the critical focus back to the work itself Sampson's astute analysis illuminates and demystifies each of these terms and asks the big questions about what makes a poem The result is a celebration of poetry as a connected responsive and above all communitarian form Lively engaging and inviting this is the indispensable and authoritative guide for anyone who's ever wondered what's going on in British poetry today Denise Levertov Dana Greene, 2012-09-30 Kenneth Rexroth called Denise Levertov 1923-1997 the most subtly skillful poet of her generation the most profound and the most moving Author of twenty-four volumes of poetry four books of essays and several translations Levertov became a lauded and honored poet Born in England she published her first book of poems at age twenty-three but it was not until she married and came to the United States in 1948 that she found her poetic voice helped by the likes of William Carlos Williams Robert Duncan and Robert Creeley Shortly before her death in 1997 the woman who claimed no country as home was nominated to be America's poet laureate Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale She wanted the persistence of Cavendish and the depth and generosity of Rilke Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times Vehement and strident her poetry of protest was both acclaimed and criticized The end of both the Vietnam War and her marriage left her mentally fatigued and emotionally fragile but gradually over the span of a decade she emerged with new energy The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself Through all the vagaries of life and art her response was that of a primary wonder In this illuminating biography Dana Greene examines Levertov's interviews essays and self-revelatory poetry to discern the conflict and torment she both endured and created in her attempts to deal with her own psyche her relationships with family friends lovers colleagues and the times in which she lived Denise Levertov A Poet's Life is the first complete biography of Levertov a woman who claimed she did not want a biography insisting that it was her work that she hoped would endure And yet she confessed that her poetry in its various forms lyric political natural and religious derived from her life experience Although a substantial body of criticism has established Levertov as a major poet of the later twentieth century this volume represents the first attempt to set her poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life The Poets' Jesus Peggy Rosenthal, 2000 Peggy Rosenthal considers the world's poets as creators who dreamed or destroyed visions of Jesus which shaped the spiritual climate of their times and nations Twentieth Century Poets: a Selection with Notes Anna Anselmo, 2014-05-07 The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics Stephen Cushman, Clare Cavanagh, Jahan Ramazani, Paul Rouzer, 2012-08-26 The most important poetry reference for more than four decades now fully updated for the twenty first century Through three editions over more than four decades The Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics has built an unrivaled reputation as the most comprehensive and authoritative reference for students scholars and poets on all aspects of its subject history movements genres prosody rhetorical devices critical terms and more Now this landmark work has been thoroughly revised and updated for the twenty first century Compiled by an entirely new team of editors the fourth edition the first new edition in almost twenty years reflects recent changes in literary and cultural studies providing up to date coverage and giving greater attention to the international aspects of poetry all while preserving the best of the previous volumes At well over a million words and more than 1 000 entries the Encyclopedia has unparalleled breadth and depth Entries range in length from brief paragraphs to major essays of 15 000 words offering a more thorough treatment including expert synthesis and indispensable bibliographies than conventional handbooks or dictionaries This is a book that no reader or writer of poetry will want to be without Thoroughly revised and updated by a new editorial team for twenty first century students scholars and poets More than 250 new entries cover recent terms movements and related topics Broader international coverage includes articles on the poetries of more than 110 nations regions and languages Expanded coverage of poetries of the non Western and developing worlds Updated bibliographies and cross references New easier to use page design Fully indexed for the first time
