In Memory's Kitchen Michael Berenbaum, 2006 The sheets of paper are as brittle as fallen leaves the faltering handwriting changes from page to page the words a faded brown are almost indecipherable The pages are filled with recipes Each is a memory a fantasy a hope for the future Written by undernourished and starving women in the Czechoslovakian ghetto concentration camp of Terez n also known as Theresienstadt the recipes give instructions for making beloved dishes in the rich robust Czech tradition Sometimes steps or ingredients are missing the gaps a painful illustration of the condition and situation in which the authors lived Reprinting the contents of the original hand sewn copybook In Memory's Kitchen A Legacy from the Women of Terez n is a beautiful memorial to the brave women who defied Hitler by preserving a part of their heritage and a part of themselves Despite the harsh conditions in the Nazis model ghetto which in reality was a way station to Auschwitz and other death camps cultural intellectual and artistic life did exist within the walls of the ghetto Like the heart breaking book I Never Saw Another Butterfly which contains the poetry and drawings of the children of Terez n the handwritten cookbook is proof that the Nazis could not break the spirit of the Jewish people

From Hardtack to Homefries Barbara Haber, 2010-05-11 Barbara Haber one of America's most respected authorities on the history of food has spent years excavating fascinating stories of the ways in which meals cooked and served by women have shaped American history As any cook knows every meal and every diet has a story whether it relates to presidents and first ladies or to the poorest of urban immigrants From Hardtack to Home Fries brings together the best and most inspiring of those stories from the 1840s to the present focusing on a remarkable assembly of little known or forgotten Americans who determined what our country ate during some of its most trying periods Haber's secret weapon is the cookbook She unearths cookbooks and menus from rich and poor urban and rural long past and near present and uses them to answer some fascinating puzzles Why was the food in Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt s White House so famously bad Were they trying to keep guests away or did they themselves simply lack the taste to realize the truth It turns out that Eleanor s chef wrote a cookbook which solves the mystery How did food lure settlers to the hardship of the American West Englishman Fred Harvey s Harvey Girls tempted them with good food and good women How did cooking keep alive World War II Army and Navy POWs in the Pacific A remarkable cookbook reveals how recollections of home cooking and cooking resourcefulness helped mend bodies and spirits From Hardtack to Home Fries uses a light touch to survey a deeply important subject Women s work and women s roles in America s past have not always been easy to recover Barbara Haber shows us that a single ubiquitous ordinary yet extraordinary lens can illuminate a great deal of this other half of our past Haber includes sample recipes and rich photographs bringing the food of bygone eras back to life From Hardtack to Home Fries is a feast and a delight Tastes
