Reclaiming Medusa Short Stories By Contemporary Puerto Rican Women:

Reclaiming Medusa, 1988 Reclaiming Medusa Diana Lourdes Vélez, 1997 Some of the best writing coming out of Puerto Rico today Telling Their Stories Jean Peterman, 2019-07-09 Abortion and the right of a woman to control her fertility cross boundaries of race ethnicity and social class In this revealing and in depth study Jean P Peterman focuses on a group of Puerto Rican women in Chicago whose decisions about abortion highlight the contradictions between the sexually conservative ethnic and religious beliefs of this community and the fact that Latina women including Puerto Rican women have abortions at a rate one and a half times as high as non Latinas For more than half the women Peterman interviewed their decision to have an abortion allowed them to maintain opportunities for themselves or to resist male control Despite their resistance to traditional gender roles their Puerto Rican identity remains strong The term cultural story coined by sociologist Laurel Richardson explains how cultures create and support their social worlds their cultural and social frameworks as well as beliefs about home community sex roles and family A collective story is an oppositional story a form of resistance and a catalyst for change In this book the stories recounted by these women involve struggles against barriers intrinsic to their social structure such as poverty prejudice and discrimination that ultimately shape newfound feelings of independence inner strength and control over their own fertility and their lives Medusa Stephen R. Wilk, 2007-11-15 Medusa presents a new and different look at the myth of Perseus and Medusa and its interpretation Starting with a look at the nature of myths and a recounting of the story the book looks at the myth and the explanations which have arisen to explain it New interpretations are suggested which are rooted in astronomy psychology art and architecture The role of the gorgon in the modern world is examined showing that the myth of Medusa is very much alive American Women Short Story Writers Julie Brown, 2014-05-01 This collection of original and classic essays examines the contributions that female authors have made to the short story The introductory chapter discusses why genre critics have ignored works by women and why feminist scholars have ignored the short story genre Subsequent chapters discuss early stories by such authors as Lydia Maria Child and Rose Terry Cooke Others are devoted to the influences race class sexual orientation education that have shaped women's short fiction through the years Women's special stylistic formal and thematic concerns are also discussed in this study The final essay addresses the ways our contemporary creative writing classes are stifling the voices of emerging young female authors The collection includes an extensive five part bibliography Green Cane and Juicy Flotsam Carmen C. Esteves, 1991 Perhaps the most salient feature of the stories collected here is their presentation of the multiplicity of voices of Caribbean women Parable II No Dust is Allowed in This House of Nuns and Punishment Reminds us of the accomplishments of Caribbean women and promise of their writing A Reader in Latina Feminist Theology María Pilar Aquino, Daisy L. Machado, Jeanette Rodríguez, 2010-01-01 Speaking for the growing community of Latina feminist theologians the editors of this volume write With the emergence and growth of the feminist theologies of liberation we no longer wait for others to define or validate our experience of life and faith We want to express in our own words our plural ways of experiencing God and our plural ways of living our faith And these ways have a liberative tone With twelve original essays by emerging and established Latina feminist theologians this first of its kind volume adds the perspectives realities struggles and spiritualities of U S Latinas to the larger feminist theological discourse The editors have gathered writings from both Roman Catholics and Protestants and from various Latino a communities The writers address a wide array of theological concerns popular religion denominational presence and attraction methodology lived experience analysis of nationhood and interpretations of life lived on a border that is not only geographic but also racial gendered linguistic and religious Latin American Women Writers Kathy S. They construct and police female identity including their own through the use of idiomatic expressions epithets jokes morality tales and myths The volume begins by examining Judith Ortiz Cofer's Silent Dancing a work that clearly illustrates the role of gatekeepers in perpetuating gendered power relations It then turns to the writings of Christina Garcia Julia Alvarez Rosario Ferre and Magali Garcia Ramis Through their highly critical yet loving characterizations of female gatekeepers these Latina writers suggest a different way of life for Latinas a feminist way
