Reclaiming The Future Womens Strategies For The 21st Century:

Reclaiming the Future Somer Brodribb, 1999 Black women be ready White women get ready Red women stay ready for this is our time and all must realize it This is a call to action by Honey the Phoenix Radio disc jockey in Lizzie Borden's 1983 film Born in Flames The film's themes of violence poverty patriarchy racism heterosexism the media and feminist politics and organizations are also the themes of Reclaiming the Future Women's Strategies for the 21st Century No Place to Go

Nancy Janovicek, 2011-11-01 The first history of the battered women's shelter movement in Canada No Place to Go traces the development of transition houses and services for abused women and the campaign that made wife battering a political issue Nancy Janovicek focuses on women's groups in small cities and rural communities examining anti violence activism in Thunder Bay Kenora Nelson and Moncton She also pays close attention to Aboriginal women in northwestern Ontario where the connections between family violence and the devaluation of indigenous culture in Canadian society complicated efforts to end domestic violence This book lays bare the aims and challenges of establishing women's shelters in non urban areas The local histories presented here show how transition houses became hubs in a larger movement to change attitudes about domestic violence and to lobby for legislation to protect women Information Sources in Women's Studies and

Feminism Hope Olson, 2014-08-29 No detailed description available for Information Sources in Women's Studies and Feminism Discourses of Denial Yasmin Jiwani, 2011-11-01 Canada prides itself on being a tolerant and inclusive culture enriched by its official policies of multiculturalism gender equality and human rights Lulled into complacency by these national maxims the public is occasionally shocked by glaring acts of racist and sexist violence brought to their attention by the sensationalist media But nobody pauses to consider the historical antecedents and root causes of these tragedies Discourses of Denial uncovers how racism sexism and violence interweave deep within the foundations of our society Using examples from the lives of immigrant girls and women of colour Yasmin Jiwani considers the way accepted definitions of race and gender shape and influence public consciousness With a perspective both academic and activist she exposes how media representations of violence serve the status quo and fail to tell the whole story about racialized and gendered inequalities In linking race gender and violence Discourses of Denial makes an important contribution to our understanding of the complex and interconnected influences that shape the violence of contemporary social reality and that contour the lives of racialized women This book is of particular relevance to readers interested in the intersection of race gender and violence in our increasingly mediated society Unfree Labour? Aziz Choudry, Adrian A. Smith, 2016-08-15 Over the past decade Canada has experienced considerable growth in labour migration Moreover temporary labour migration has replaced permanent immigration as the primary means by which people enter Canada Utilizing the rhetoric of maintaining competitiveness Canadian employers and the state have ushered in an era of neoliberal migration alongside an agenda of austerity flowing from capitalist crisis Labour markets have been restructured to render labour more flexible and precarious and in Canada as in other high income capitalist labour markets employers are relying on migrant and immigrant workers as unfree labour This book explores labour migration to Canada and how public policies of temporary and guest worker programs function in the global context of work and capitalist restructuring Contributors are directly engaged with the issues emerging from the influx of temporary foreign workers and Canada's creeping economic apartheid the ongoing racialization of economic inequality for many workers of colour The collection also examines how migrant and immigrant workers have organized for justice and dignity in Canada As opposed to a good deal of current writing that often ignores the working conditions and struggles of racialized migrant and immigrant workers the authors contend that migrant workers labour organizations and migrant worker allies have engaged in a wide range of organizing initiatives with significant political and economic impacts These have included both court challenges to secure legal rights to unionization and grassroots alternatives to traditional forms of unionization through workers centres Contributors include Aziz Choudry Adrian A Smith Sedef Arat Ko Abigail B Bakan Joey Calugay Jennifer Jihye Chun Jill Hanley Jah Hon Koo Mostafa Henaway Deena Ladd Marco Luciano Lo c Malhaire Adriana Paz Ramirez Geraldina Polanco Chris Ramsaroop Eric Shragge Sonia Singh Christopher C Sorio and Mark Thomas
