Recollections of a Minister to France, 1869-1877 Elihu Benjamin Washburne, 1887      From the Memoirs of a Minister of France Stanley John Weyman, 1895      From the memoirs of a minister of France. Popular ed Stanley John Weyman, 1899      Autobiographical Recollections of Charles-Marie Widor Charles-Marie Widor, 2024 The last of the Romantics Widor narrated his recollections in 1936 bringing to life his diverse experiences from the time of Louis Philippe to the cusp of World War II Widor's Toccata is the most famous organ piece composed in the past three hundred years since Bach's ubiquitous Toccata in D Minor Linked inseparably with the organ through his ten seminal organ symphonies and legendary sixty-four years as organist at Saint Sulpice Widor drew crowds of doting admirers from all walks of life around himself and Cavaillé's great organ of one hundred stops It is apparent throughout these Autobiographical Recollections that Widor was well connected moving with ease among the intelligentsia presidents politicians royalty nobility patrons and artists A keen observer and a man of sophistication and extraordinary erudition Widor was an all-embracing musician and notable historical figure who led an active life beyond his famous organ gallery As permanent secretary of the Academy of Fine Arts he was the cultural ambassador of France for more than twenty years Few musicians of any era have had a broader experience wider sphere of influence and greater number of significant and varied accomplishments Preceded by a comprehensive Preface these Autobiographical Recollections narrated in the last months of Widor's life are translated into English for the first time meticulously edited and profusely annotated The person's political details and historical events that Widor spoke of with great fluency are identified in notes that give the reader a full understanding of the narrative Several appendixes and a trove of hitherto unpublished photos illuminate the text      Let France Explain Frederick Bausman, 1923

Memoirs of Benjamin Franklin Benjamin Franklin, 1859      Memoirs of the Court of France Louis-Pierre Anquetil, 1791      The Memoirs of Toussaint and Isaac Louverture Arthur F. Saint-Aubin, 2015-07-15 This book examines the memoir of Toussaint Louverture a former slave general in the French army and leader of the Haitian Revolution and the memoir of his son Isaac The Revolution and its leaders have been studied and written about extensively Until recently 2004 however the memoir of Toussaint has received little attention and only as a historical document This is the first study that explores the 1802 work foremost as a literary text a creative production that deploys the techniques of fiction and drama to make truth claims about the past moreover this is the first book-length study of Isaac Louverture's memoir The two texts are read as examples of how black men thought of themselves as men citizens and therefore how they expressed their masculinity at that historical moment as experiences of mourning and loss This study builds upon three areas of scholarship the tradition of memoir writing historicist readings of Toussaint's memoir and descriptions and theories of men and masculinity within the black Atlantic The study distinguishes itself in ways that will make it of interest to more than just historians in addition to using the intersection of race and masculinity as an analytical tool it speaks to the nature of literary creativity and it draws from studies examining the relationship between history memory and fiction As a result scholars and students in literary and cultural criticism as well as those in gender and diasporic studies will also find this study of interest and value     The Bookman ,1890     Memoirs of the Count de Forbin, Commodore in the Navy of France ...
