Theological Analyses of the Clinical Encounter G.P. McKenny, J.R. Sande, 2013-04-17 Efforts to evaluate the clinical encounter in terms of autonomous agents governed by rationally justified moral principles continue to be criticised These essays written by physicians ethicists theologians and philosophers examine various models of the clinical encounter emerging out of these criticisms and explore the prospects they offer for theological and religious discourse Individual essays focus on the reformulation of covenant models revisions of principles approaches and topics such as power authority narrative rhetoric dialogue and alterity The essays display a range of conclusions about whether theology articulates generally accessible religious insights or is a tradition specific discipline Hence the volume reflects current debates in theology while analysing current models of the clinical encounter Students professionals and scholars who find themselves at the intersection of theology and medicine will welcome these voices in an ongoing conversation

Forgiveness Matthew Ichihashi Potts, 2022-11-22 A deeply researched and poignant reflection on the practice of forgiveness in an unforgiving world In this sensitive and probing book Matthew Ichihashi Potts explores the complex moral terrain of forgiveness which he claims has too often served as a salve to the conscience of power rather than as an instrument of healing or justice Though forgiveness is often linked with reconciliation or the abatement of anger Potts resists these associations asserting instead that forgiveness is simply the refusal of retaliatory violence through practices of penitence and grief It is an act of mourning irrevocable wrong of refusing the false promises of violent redemption and of living in and with the losses we cannot recover Drawing on novels by Kazuo Ishiguro Marilynne Robinson Louise Erdrich and Toni Morrison and on texts from the early Christian to the postmodern era Potts diagnoses the real dangers of forgiveness yet insists upon its enduring promise Sensitive to the twenty first century realities of economic inequality colonial devastation and racial strife and considering the role of forgiveness in the New Testament the Christian tradition philosophy and contemporary literature this book heralds the arrival of a new and creative theological voice

Gospel for Real Life Jerry Bridges, 2014-02-27 The gospel provides for our eternal salvation but how does it benefit us day to day Find out from Navigator author Jerry Bridges how the gospel transforms you daily into Christlikeness Learn more about the character of God and the character of Jesus as you explore this book on your own or with a discipleship partner Includes study guide with discussion questions Can You Let Go of a Grudge? Frank Desiderio, CSP, 2014 In this guide through the issues that prevent us from forgiving Frank Desiderio presents a five step process that will help the reader to let go of a grudge and if it is the right thing to do be reconciled Atonement, Christology and the Trinity Vincent Brummer, 2020-10-07 For many believers today the doctrines of Atonement Christology and the Trinity seem like puzzling constructions produced by academic theologians They are cast in unintelligible forms of thought derived from Platonism or from feudal society and for many their existential relevance for life today remains unclear This book introduces these doctrines and proposes a reinterpretation in the light of the claim of many Christian mystics that ultimate happiness is to be found in enjoying the loving fellowship of God This claim is a matrix of faith in terms of which these doctrines are shown to be relevant for the life of faith of believers today Furthermore since this matrix can be defended within all three Abrahamic traditions Judaism Christianity and Islam the proposed understanding of these doctrines can also contribute usefully to the necessary dialogue between these traditions in a globalised world Reconciliation Mary Cay Senger, 1987 By developing a celebration outlook toward reconciliation this book helps a child learn that conversion of the heart must take place in all who seek reconciliation through this sacrament The eight lessons introduce the child to the Commandments the Beatitudes and the Works of Mercy All parent teacher and child resources are together in this one comprehensive volume Towards African Missiology Francis Anekwe Oborji, 2020-11-22 This volume reflects on a credible and a new language of Christian mission in Africa The author's thoughts and approaches not only provide a missiological insight which contribute to the repertoire of expanding fresh ideas in the missiological studies but also serves the purpose of highlighting the active participation of Africans in the missionary mandate of Jesus Christ In other words the scope of missiology needs a contextualized interpretation Thus he proposes a proactive language for missiology in Africa thereby underlining Africans as normal and full members of the human family In the light of the Vatican II mission theology the new language should be based on the fact that Africans will grow and do better in admiration and not in sympathy Interestingly the arguments in this volume opens the space for the on going discussions in the mission of the church in the era of secularization and post modernity Consequently a new language for missiology in Africa will come from the retrieval and modernization of our African cultural matrix pursued from the point of view of the daily struggles of the Africans themselves for survival which also addresses Africans in the spirit of cooperation
