Reconsidering The Bluestockings:

Reconsidering the Bluestockings Nicole Pohl, 2003 Reconsidering the Bluestockings Nicole Pohl, Betty A. Schellenberg, 2003 From reviews of the original edition By packaging several perspectives together Reconsidering the Bluestockings creates a more thorough context for future scholarship The book is in short the most valuable kind of scholarship it provokes questions rather than answers them New Perspectives on the Eighteenth Century Bluestockings Displayed Elizabeth Eger, 2013-11-21 The conversation parties of the bluestockings held to debate contemporary ideas in eighteenth century Britain were vital in encouraging female artistic achievement The bluestockings promoted links between learning and virtue in the public imagination inventing a new kind of informal sociability that combined the life of the senses with that of the mind This collection of essays by leading scholars in the fields of literature history and art history provides an interdisciplinary treatment of bluestocking culture in eighteenth century Britain It is the first academic volume to concentrate on the rich visual and material culture that surrounded and supported the bluestocking project from formal portraits and sculptures to commercially reproduced prints By the early twentieth century the term bluestocking came to signify a dull and dowdy intellectual woman but the original bluestockings inhabited a world in which brilliance was valued at every level and women were encouraged to shine and even dazzle Bluestockings E. Eger, 2010-01-20 This study argues that female networks of conversation correspondence and patronage formed the foundation for women's work in the higher realms of Shakespeare criticism and poetry Eger traces the transition between Enlightenment and Romantic culture arguing for the relevance of rational argument in the history of women's writing Bluestockings Now! Deborah Heller, 2016-03-03 Bringing together top specialists in the field this edited volume challenges the theory that the eighteenth century British intellectual women known as the Bluestockings were an isolated phenomenon spanning the period from the 1750s through the 1790s On the contrary the contributors suggest the Bluestockings can be conceptualized as belonging to a chain of interconnected networks taking their origin at a threshold moment in print media and communications development and extending into the present The collection begins with a definition of the Bluestockings as a social role rather than a fixed group a movement rather than a static phenomenon an evolving dynamic reaching into our late modern era Essays include a rare transcript of a Bluestocking conversation new previously unknown Bluestockings brought to light for the first time and descriptions of Bluestocking activity in the realms of natural history arts and crafts theatre industry travel and international connections The concluding essay argues that the Blues reimagined and practiced women's work in ways that adapted to and altered the course of modernity decisively putting a female imprint on economic social and cultural modernization Demonstrating how the role of the Bluestocking has evolved through different historical configurations yet has structurally remained the same the collection traces the influence of the Blues on the Romantic Period through the nineteenth century and proposes the reinvention of Bluestocking practice in the present Bluestockings and Landscape in Eighteenth-Century

Britain Markman Ellis, Jack Orchard, 2025-07-08 Captures in unprecedented depth the cultural significance of the designed landscape and its relationship with Bluestocking philosophy Situated within the broader context of eighteenth century intellectual and cultural history this collection redefines the role of the Bluestocking circle in shaping Britain's landscapes and social ideals Against the backdrop of Whiggish notions of improvement encompassing agricultural innovation aesthetic refinement and moral progress it explores how women such as Elizabeth Montagu Mary Delany and Elizabeth Carter navigated the intersections of polite sociability intellectual production and estate management Their contributions reveal a dynamic interplay between cultural critique and practical reform positioning them as active participants in the period's debates on land labour and national identity Drawing on insights from the Elizabeth Montagu's Correspondence Online EMCO project these essays uncover the creative and social tensions embedded in iconic estates such as Montagu's Sandleford and Lord Lyttelton's Hagley Hall They delve into the poetic and philosophical musings of James Woodhouse the sociable artistry of Mary Delany and the symbolic landscapes of Wrest Park By examining correspondence poetry visual arts and cartography this volume offers an unprecedented exploration of the ways Bluestocking women engaged with and redefined the designed landscape as a site of intellectual and environmental innovation This interdisciplinary collection reshapes the historiography of gender environment and cultural progress offering fresh insights into the enduring significance of eighteenth century landscapes and the intellectual communities that shaped them

Bluestockings and Travel Accounts Nataliia Voloshkova, 2021-03-25 This Element proposes to relate the eighteenth century world of travel and travel writing with the bluestocking salon It locates eminent British travellers and explorers in the female presided intellectual space and examines their multifaceted interaction with the bluestockings between 1760 and 1799 The study shows how the bluestockings acquired knowledge of the world through reading discussing writing and collecting travel accounts It explores the social life of manuscript and printed travel texts in the circle their popularity and impact on the bluestockings This Element builds upon the body of evidence provided by their published and unpublished diaries correspondence and private library catalogues

Woman to Woman Mary Waldron, 2010 The collection is in honor of Mary Waldron a founder member of the Women's Studies Group whose distinguished scholarship is exemplified in the first chapter and whose generous encouragement of other specialists in feminist studies in the long eighteenth century

Women and the Art and Science of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century Europe Arlene Leis, Kacie L. Wills, 2020-08-31 Through both longer essays and shorter case studies this book examines the relationship of European women from various countries and backgrounds to collecting in order to explore the social practices and material and visual cultures of collecting in eighteenth century Europe It recovers their lives and examines their interests their methodologies and their collections and objects some of which have rarely been studied before The book also considers women's role as producers that is creators of objects that were collected Detailed examination of the artefacts both visually and in relation to their historical contexts exposes new ways of thinking about collecting in relation to the arts and sciences in eighteenth century Europe The book is interdisciplinary in its makeup and brings together scholars from a wide range of fields It will be of interest to those working in art history material and visual culture history of collecting history of science literary studies women s studies gender studies and art conservation Bluestocking Feminism and British-German Cultural Transfer, 1750-1837 Alessa Johns, 2018-05-09 An examination of British and German processes of cultural transfer as spearheaded by feminist reformists from 1714 to 1837
