Reconstructing Pastoral Theology A Christological Foundation:

Reconstructing Pastoral Theology Andrew Purves, 2004-09-20 In Pastoral Care in the Classical Tradition Andrew Purves argued that pastoral care and theology has long ignored Scripture and Christian doctrine and pastoral practice has become secularized in both method and goal the fiefdom of psychology and the social sciences He builds further on this idea here presenting a christological basis for ministry and pastoral theology

A Perichoretic Pastoral Theology Jim Horsthuis, 2022-09-08 This book articulates a perichoretic pastoral theology offering a pastoral theological response to the question of how ministering persons practice ministry in communion with the triune God Key elements from contemporary pastoral theology theologies of human experience concern for human suffering and situational attentiveness are drawn into conversation with the doctrine of perichoresis Jim Horsthuis provides a vision for life and ministry in relational participational and spiritual communion with the Father Son and Holy Spirit The chapters explore four spiritual movements that foster this vision 1 the move from experience to relationship 2 the move from concern to presence 3 the move from competence to communion and 4 the move from practice to prayer The book represents a unique academic contribution to both pastoral theology and Trinitarian theology

Beyond Snakes and Shamrocks Ross A. Lockhart, 2018-07-02 Somewhere in the mists of time between history and hagiography stands the great evangelist and missionary St Patrick Raised a cultural Christian Patrick's encounter with God during captivity in Ireland transformed his life and the history of a people Freedom from slavery and a return home to Britain produced the divine summons Vox Hibernia to return to Ireland and the place of captivity in order to witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ Christian witness in twenty first century Vancouver Seattle or Portland is a world away from fifth century Armagh Slane or Cashel Yet the great evangelist to pre Christian peoples of Hibernia has much to teach us as we seek to engage our secular post Christian context There is wisdom in the missional leadership of the one we call St Patrick that goes well beyond tales of snakes and shamrocks How might Patrick's mission experience with pre Christian peoples direct our contemporary missional encounter with post Christian peoples Come explore the story of the shepherd slave turned shepherd of souls and discover that there is power still in the legacy of Patrick when yoked with the Spirit filled presence and purpose of the risen Christ

Evangelical Calvinism Myk Habets, Bobby Grow, 2017-05-04 Continuing the discussion initiated in volume one volume two of Evangelical Calvinism further articulates the central motifs of this mood within Reformed theology by examining themes having to do with dogmatics and devotion After further clarifying the methodological and dogmatic aspects common to an Evangelical

Calvinism the heart of the present volume is an explication of the vicarious ministry of Christ as it is worked out in its diverse theological dimensions The volume offers constructive accounts of various aspects of liturgy sacraments and doxology showing the vitality and lived spirituality of this Christian vision of faith and practice Both advocates and critics of Evangelical Calvinism now have an extended and thorough body of work with which to interact As with volume 1 this volume promises to set the agenda for contemporary and constructive Reformed studies in a way that provides an alternative to neo Calvinism and Westminster Calvinism alike
