Reconstructing Eliade Bryan S. Rennie, 1996-01-01 Provides a coherent and defensible interpretation of Eliade's thought which allows less familiar readers to approach Eliade with a greater clarity and precision Foreword by Mac Linscott Ricketts a leading translator of Eliade's writings

The Study of Religion Under the Impact of Fascism Horst Junginger, 2008 Addressing the European study of religion in the interwar period these proceedings tackle one of the most problematic epochs of its history The commonplace that understanding the present requires learning from the past is particularly true as this case well illustrates

Judge and be Judged Eric Bain-Selbo, 2006-01-01 Judge and Be Judged offers insights into moral life and moral judgment that aim to help in understanding our society's tendency towards either fundamentalism or relativism By examining the social function of shame the possibility of cross cultural understanding and obstacles to moral judgment in the classroom this book charts a path that helps to avoid both fundamentalism and relativism

Changing Religious Worlds Bryan Rennie, 2001-01-01 Assesses Mircea Eliade's contribution to the contemporary understanding of religion and the academic study of religion

NVMEN, the Academic Study of Religion, and the IAHR Tim Jensen, Armin Geertz, 2015-11-24 Nvmen publishes papers representing the most recent scholarship in all areas of the history of religions ranging from antiquity to contemporary history It covers a diversity of geographical regions and religions of the past as well as of the present The approach of the journal to the study of religion is strictly non confessional While the emphasis lies on empirical source based research typical contributions also address issues that have a wider historical or comparative significance for the advancement of the discipline Numen also publishes papers that discuss important theoretical innovations in the study of religion and reflective studies on the history of the discipline Brill is proud to present this special volume of articles compiled to celebrate the occasion of the 60th anniversary of NVMEN International Review for the History of Religions in 2014 The articles in this volume have been selected under the auspices of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR and reflect critically on the past present and future of NVMEN the IAHR and the study of the History of Religions

Petre Tutea Alexandru Popescu, 2018-01-16 Petre Tutea 1902-91 was one of the outstanding Christian dissident intellectuals of the Communist era in Eastern Europe Revered as a saint by some he spent thirteen years as a prisoner of conscience and twenty eight years under house arrest at the hands of the Securitate This book explores his unique response to the horrors of torture and re education and reveals the experience of a whole generation detained in the political prisons Tutea's understanding of human needs and how they can be fulfilled even amidst extreme adversity not only reflects huge learning and great brilliance of mind but also offers a spiritual vision grounded in personal experience of the Romanian Gulag Following the fall of the Ceausescus he has begun to emerge as a significant contributor to ecumenical Christian discourse and to understanding of wider issues of truth and reconciliation in the contemporary world As Tutea's pupil and scribe for twelve years as a psychiatrist and as a theologian Alexandru Popescu is uniquely placed to present the work of this twentieth century Confessor of the faith Drawing on bibliographical sources which include unpublished or censored manuscripts and personal conversations with Tutea and with other prisoners of conscience in Romania Popescu presents extensive translations of Tutea which make his thought accessible to the English speaking reader for the first time Through his stature as a human being and his authority as a thinker Petre Tutea challenges us to question many of our assumptions The choice he presents between sacrifice and moral suicide focuses us on the very essence of religion and human personhood Resisting any ultimate separation of theology and spirituality his work affirms hope and love as the sole ground upon which truth can be based At the same time hope and love are not mere ideal emotions but are known and lived in engagement with the real world in politics economics science ecol

Biblical Interpretation in Early Christian Gospels Thomas R. Hatina, 2008-08-18 The second title in a proposed five volume work volume two following on from the volume on Mark's Gospel concentrates on Matthew's Gospel Contributors consider the function of embedded scripture texts in the context of the Gospels written and read heard in their early Christian settings The project is wide ranging with essays on the function of scripture in the compositional history of the gospels and the collection is broad in scope as a result of current interest in the integration of methods especially historical and narrative ones Advancements over the last 20 years in the study of genre and narrative criticism have left a void in the study of the function of embedded biblical texts in the Gospels This collection of essays will move the study of scripture within scripture forwards Rudolf Otto and the Foundation of the History of Religions Yoshitsugu Sawai, 2022-02-10 This book provides an up to date treatment of Rudolf Otto and his work placing him in the context of comparative religion theology and the philosophy of religion Yoshitsugu Sawai shows how Otto has three faces the Lutheran Theologian the Philosopher of Religion and the Comparative Religionist The book also shows how of these Otto saw himself primarily as a Lutheran Theologian and provides an account of Otto's engagement with India and the centrality that Hindu theology had on his thinking In Otto's theory of religion his well known concepts including wholly other and numinous constitute a multiple structure of meaning For example his concept of the wholly other das ganz Andere no doubt has the meaning of God in his Christian theological studies At the same time however from the perspective of comparative religion or the phenomenology of religion this same term semantically implies the ultimate reality of other religious traditions Brahman and God Isvara in Hindu religious tradition as well as God in Christianity Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought
