Red Square Martin Cruz Smith, 2007-09-25 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK Sharply evocatively written and elaborately plotted Red Square should find as many friends as did Gorky Park The Washington Post Book World Back from exile in the hellish reaches of the Soviet Union homicide investigator Arkady Renko discovers that his country his Moscow even his job are nearly dead But his enemies are very much alive and foremost among them are the powerful black market crime lords of the Russian mafia Hounded by this terrifying new underworld chased by the ruthless minions of the newly rich and powerful and tempted by his great love defector Irina Asanova Arkady can only hope desperately for escape But fate has something else in store Gripping Smith at his best The Wall Street Journal A crackling suspense thriller The Boston Globe Fascinating powerful The Philadelphia Inquirer Absorbing The New York Times Extraordinary Time

Red Square, Black Square Vladislav Todorov, 1994-11-04 This book builds a new vision of the development of Russian revolutionary culture bringing together fiction criticism utopian projects manifestos performance and film theory religious philosophy and the imaginary space of communism centered around the Mummy of Lenin Revolution and modernization are two main issues of the book The author argues that in Modernism the work of art was conceived as a miniature of the world to come thus art was meant to make projects not master pieces He analyzes the genre of the manifesto as a special rhetorical device of modernist discourse and shows how projects of biological and social engineering elaborate a vision of a future human type apt to exist under unprecedented conditions Red Square Black Square traces the process of totalitarian reduction of the modernist impulse into a rigid party doctrine It follows the turbulent development of Russian Modernism through its categorical arrest under the official doctrine of socialist realism Moscow's Red Square is examined as a primal communist space that manifests the symbolism of power Viewing communism as an aesthetically not economically motivated society the book enacts political aesthetics as a discipline that provides the fundamental tool for an adequate and thorough understanding of communism Todorov concludes by discussing the rise of nationalism in Eastern Europe as a post communist condition and the new mission of the intellectuals The Moscow Kremlin and Red Square Илья Александров, 1991

Cognitive Development David Klahr, J. G. Wallace, 2022-02-16 Originally published in 1976 the authors present a theory of cognitive development based upon an information processing approach This approach leads to the presentation of precise models of performance on a number of tasks derived from a set of critical quantitative concepts elementary quantification number concepts conservation and transitivity These models encompass both early and late developmental stages and a process model of the developmental mechanism itself is outlined Here is one of the first attempts to apply the information processing view of cognitive psychology to developmental issues raised by empirical work in the Piagetian tradition It includes an extensive analysis of the processing demands of several of the classic tasks and describes the development of a system capable of performing a wide range of other tasks including the ability to be self modifying It provides an introduction to general concepts and detailed properties of cognitive models stated as production systems It will be most valuable for students in cognitive development and related courses in developmental cognitive and educational psychology as well as computer science Oxford Studies in Epistemology Volume 4 Tamar Szabó Gendler, John Hawthorne, 2013-04-25 Oxford Studies in Epistemology is a biennial publication which offers a regular snapshot of state of the art work in this important field Under the guidance of a distinguished editorial board composed of leading philosophers in North America Europe and Australasia it publishes exemplary papers in epistemology broadly construed Topics within its purview include traditional epistemological questions concerning the nature of belief justification and knowledge the status of scepticism the nature of the a priori etc new developments in epistemology including movements such as naturalized epistemology feminist epistemology social epistemology and virtue epistemology and approaches such as contextualism foundational questions in decision theory confirmation theory and other branches of philosophy of science that bear on traditional issues in epistemology topics in the philosophy of perception relevant to epistemology topics in cognitive science computer science developmental cognitive and social psychology that bear directly on traditional epistemological questions and work that examines connections between epistemology and other branches of philosophy including work on testimony and the ethics of belief Anyone wanting to understand the latest developments at the leading edge of the discipline can start here Light List ,1941 Gulf Coast of the United States United States.
