Fein,2022-02-26 Higher education is in trouble Commentators of all stripes bemoan escalating costs and diminishing quality Solutions have been offered from all quarters but tend to be piecemeal and all too often ideological In this tough minded look at the history current climate and future of university education in the United States Melvyn L Fein re examines the mission of higher education and outlines what institutions can do to better prepare students for an ever more complex techno commercial society Fein argues that students must have the opportunity to explore and discover what works for them and that the most important tool for institutions of higher education is self direction Professors must be allowed to teach in their own ways bringing their own experience into the classroom Since university missions differ both universities and professors need the freedom to make decisions independently The imminent need is for a democratic elite consisting of self directed leaders who possess technical and social expertise as well as personal motivation The tools for change are appropriate curricula communities of learners and a genuine marketplace of ideas While there is no magic bullet Fein contends that we can and should build on the achievements of the past so as to evolve more responsive educational institutions those that promote merit responsibility and universalism Redefining Asia Pacific Higher Education in Contexts of Globalization: Private Markets and the Public Good Deane E. Neubauer,2015-10-18 This edited volume addresses the dynamic global contexts redefining Asia Pacific higher education including cross border education capacity and national birthrate profiles pressures created within ranking status systems and complex shifts in the meanings of the public good that influence public education in an increasingly privatized world

Redefining Tandem Language and Culture Learning in Higher Education Claire Tardieu, Céline

Horgues, 2019-08-21 This book provides a comprehensive critical account of tandem learning charting its evolution from its origins in European educational settings to modern programs offering new perspectives on the approach's role within higher education. Taking stock of the ways in which increased globalization has produced new linguistic and sociocultural realities, the volume begins by looking back at the development of tandem learning over the last several decades, growing out of a need to create more opportunities for L2 learners to communicate in their target language. The book then examines the different learning objectives and learning outcomes of tandem learning arrangements, moving toward a discussion of tandem learning's potential role in shaping language policy and the unique challenges involved in implementing tandem programs at higher education institutions. The final section of the book brings the previous discussions together to consider new tools and technology and the ways in which they can better equip language educators to implement tandem learning in their own practice. Highlighting tandem learning's potential to promote multilingual and multicultural learning on a global scale, this volume will be of particular interest to students and researchers in intercultural communication, language education, multilingualism, and applied linguistics.

Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emmet

Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century. Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread, this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post-Apartheid era. During this time, there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent's culture and identities of all South Africans. The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead a deeper, more fundamental shift in higher education structures, values, and systems is needed. Overall, the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities, enhance quality and competitiveness, address past injustices, and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future. Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa.

Higher Education Voldemar Tomusk Open Society Institute Budapest For a man who no longer has a homeland, writing becomes a place to live. Theodor Adorno. Minima Moralia. 1. REDEMPTIVE IRONY OF STRATEGIES AND PROCESSES It is unfortunate to a degree that as soon as we begin discussing our human condition in the third millennium, since mankind was offered its salvation and the state of our institutions that structure and guide our existence as social beings in order not to act as beasts or mere social animals we cannot avoid the word ironic For the people of intellectual calling who cannot but try to make sense of what is happening around in and with us beyond digestion in the broad sense of the term that is beyond the consuming the resources of the earth ironic is the word without which nothing can be said any longer Deliver Us from Irony is the title of a recent paper by a young historian discussing the last great post modern historian Hayden White in his approach of employing epistemological irony against moral irony Paul 2004 The degree to which our existence has become ironic is truly tragic though it could be worse Human existence has become ironic so much that one can but weep However there are other ways to explain the situation Higher Education Divided Allison L. Palmadessa, 2020-08-13 This book critically considers how tertiary institutions of higher education in the United States are charged with the duty of preserving democracy teaching citizenship literacy and contributing to economic stability The author offers a comparative analysis of how presidential and national policy agendas shape these social institutions re creation and re constitution of ideological identities that influence the social position of the participants in the institution types creating a divide in the realization of national identity across institutional and class lines In fulfilling this role four and two year institutions become representations of the social class divisions in the United States as the institutions and their students experience American national identity differently By answering a call to serve the American public and presidential agendas institutions of higher education reinforce the economic and social divisions in American society resulting in varied understandings of American national identity Educational Research and Innovation Higher Education to 2030, Volume 1, Demography OECD, 2008-11-18 Drawing on trend data and projections this book takes an in depth look at how demographic changes will affect higher education to 2030 Handbook on Globalization and Higher Education Roger King, Simon Marginson, Rajani Naidoo, 2011 the Handbook constitutes an essential reference source for everyone interested in studying the current meaning scope and implications of globalization Strongly recommended Higher Education Review Higher education has entered centre stage in the context of the knowledge economy and has been deployed in the search for economic competitiveness and social development Against this backdrop this highly illuminating Handbook explores worldwide convergences and divergences in national higher education systems resulting from increased global co operation and competition The expert contributors reveal the strategies practices and governance mechanisms developed by international and regional organizations national governments and by higher education institutions themselves They analyse local responses to dominant global templates of higher education and the consequences for knowledge generation social equity economic development and the public good This comprehensive and accessible Handbook will prove an invaluable reference tool for researchers academics and students with an interest in higher education from economics international studies and public policy perspectives as well as for higher education policymakers and funding and governance bodies

International Organizations and Higher Education Policy Roberta Malee Bassett, Alma Maldonado-Maldonado, 2010-04-15 Higher Education operates in an increasingly global context and yet the examination of what drives and moves the field has remained largely focused on domestic campus leaders national governments and institutional actors International Organizations and Higher Education Policy expands the analysis to include the global drivers behind higher education policy including a full array of influential organizations such as the World Bank UNESCO OECD WTO bilateral aid agencies and major private foundations The significance of these organizations is especially pronounced in the developing world where the expansion of higher education is happening in conjunction with the broadening influence of globalization International Organizations and Higher Education Policy critically analyses the impact that these influential organizations have at different levels of policy development and implementation around the world It examines their role in higher education institutions examines the strength of these relationships and exposes both the positive and negative implications This edited volume is composed of scholars and members of these organizations from around the world They address How international organizations represent the interests of the developed world and subsequently have an impact on the developing world How these organizations drive and shape the global agenda for higher education How higher education as an international industry is subject to a myriad of influences from the international to the regional level What ethical issues emerge when international organizations intervene in national policy making processes Globalization And Reform In Higher Education Eggins, Heather, 2003-12-01 This book charts the key issues that are involved in reforming higher education to meet new global challenges It draws on a team of distinguished international researchers from North America Africa Australia and Europe who consider particular topics the reform of governance and finance the funding of higher education managerialism accreditation and quality assurance the use of performance indicators faculty roles and rewards and the cultural social and ethical dimensions of change Innovation and Evolution in Higher Education, 2024-10-02 Higher education fulfills vital functions in talent cultivation scientific research social service and innovation Its innovation and transformation play a critical role in societal development In recent years countries around the world have been actively exploring effective pathways for the innovation and transformation of higher education This book capitalizes on this momentum summarizing the theoretical and practical advancements concerning higher education reform and innovation in various countries and regions It emphasizes the significance of higher education in regional development how the learning sciences lead to talent cultivation in higher education and the theories and practices of student development in higher education providing valuable insights into higher education reform and innovation India Higher Education Report 2015 N. V. Varghese, Garima Malik, 2015-12-22 The unprecedented expansion of higher education in India and the proliferation of providers in turn have posed enormous challenges to equity quality and financing of the sector The India Higher Education Report 2015 traces the evolution of higher education and discusses the key role of committees and commissions whose reports and recommendations form the backdrop of contemporary developments Authoritative and comprehensive the volume examines a range of themes including equity financing employment quality and governance It also engages with new and recent data as well as current issues and debates The volume will be an important resource for academics policy makers civil society organisations media and those concerned with higher education It will also be useful to scholars and researchers of public policy sociology and economics

Higher Education Systems Ulrich Teichler, 2007-01-01 In economically advanced countries the shape and the size of higher education systems vary substantially In some countries access becomes almost universal whereas in others only about one third in the corresponding age groups enrol All higher education systems are diversified but formal dimensions such as types of institutions or levels of study programmes and degrees play different roles and informal dimensions are by no means irrelevant In some countries the hierarchy according to quality and reputation is steep and in others relatively flat Profiles of individual institutions and programmes might be striking or superficial This book based on more than three decades of research aims to show actual trends in the development of higher education systems It describes the policy debates in a broad range of countries Moreover it provides an overview of varying concepts aiming to explain the dynamics of structural developments The author shows that comparative perspectives and the search for an internationally best or most modern solutions at times lead to convergent trends However specific policy options dominating and specific traditions of higher education tend to reinforce an international variety of patterns of higher education systems This book invites readers policy makers and practitioners in the area of higher education as well as scholars and graduate students to look beyond the idiosyncrasies of national debates and beyond the Zeitgeist of currently fashionable international debates e g Bologna process ranking of world class universities and to consider both persistent tensions and changing conditions underlying the extent and the kind of diversity opted for on individual countries

The Dialogue between Higher Education Research and Practice Roddy Begg, 2007-11-23 Nearly 24 years ago in November 1979 26 scholars and administrators from 12 countries met in the Sorbonne in Paris at the First European AIR Forum to discuss Institutional Research in North America and Europe Most of the European participants had not heard of institutional research but discovered that what some of them had been engaged in for most of their careers was this very topic Over the intervening period 26 has grown to over 400 participants in the Annual Forum a separate European Association EAIR has been established and the Association s influential journal

Tertiary Education And Management is published quarterly and is now in its 9th year This book addresses the interface between research policy and practice in the fields of Higher Education Management and Institutional Research It provides an overview of the current state of research and best managerial practice in the field of HE Management so vital to the well being of higher education and currently at a crucial stage of evolution in so many countries of Europe and the rest of the world Non-University Higher Education in Europe James S. Taylor, José Brites Ferreira, Maria de Lourdes Machado, Rui Santiago, 2008-06-01

Today a substantial portion of higher education is provided outside of the traditional universities in non university institutions with a multitude of varied characteristics In recent decades higher education systems have been subjected to many changes and reforms throughout the world One of the most important was undoubtedly the expansion of higher education in the second half of the last century from an elite system to one for the masses While institutions of higher learning have been in existence for approximately 1 000 years this exponential growth has been much more recent This movement toward mass higher education has created substantial national impacts on the development of the systems of higher education While common denominators of change and adaptation can be identified globally there remain important differences from country to country There are many factors challenging higher education today and in the foreseeable future In one form or another these issues and trends can be seen in higher education systems throughout the world They include chronic underfunding marketisation and competition alternative providers massification internationalisation governance leadership strategic management accountability accreditation and social relevance Another key factor for many countries especially in Europe and the focus of this book is the current and future status of the higher education systems that differentiate the university and non university sectors University Rankings, Diversity, and the New Landscape of Higher Education, 2019-02-18

University rankings are a relatively new phenomenon in higher education Although quite an established practice in the U S it is only within the last decade that attempts to analyse university performance have spread to the rest of the world and that we also have seen new global rankings appear rankings attempting to measure university performance beyond national borders No wonder that this trend is accompanied by a growing interest in studying rankings throughout the world This book is written as part of the effort to better understand rankings and their effects on higher education A serious approach towards university rankings implies that rankings should be analysed properly including the methods used and the indicators chosen and investigate the objectives claimed If university rankings are considered as consumer information then everyone should have an interest in basing such guidance on valid and reliable data and methodology A serious analysis should also discuss the wider implications of rankings as an emerging phenomenon in higher education Consequently the contributions to this book investigate and analyse how different rankings work how they reach their conclusions and on what data and methodology they are built Furthermore it provides a critical reflection about the impact of rankings on higher education how and in what way rankings influence policy making the structure of the sector or the internal life of the sector Higher Education in The Caribbean Austin Ezenne, 2012-12-01 This book on Higher Education in the Caribbean explores the key issues facing Higher Education institutions in the twenty first century and its emphasis is on the financial and social commitments of Higher Education The book examined research tendencies experiences challenges and practices to rethink and propose new routes for the interchange of values between Higher Education institutions and the Caribbean society
