Refashioning Iran Orientalism Occidentalism And Historiography:

Refashioning Iran M. Tavakoli-Targhi, 2001-10-10 Mohamad Tavakoli Targhi offers a corrective to recent works on Orientalism that focus solely on European scholarly productions without exploring the significance of native scholars and vernacular scholarship to the making of Oriental studies He brings to light a wealth of eighteenth and nineteenth century Indo Persian texts made homeless by subsequent nationalist histories and shows how they relate to Indo Iranian modernity In doing so he argues for a radical rewriting of Iranian history with profound implications for Islamic debates on gender

Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2016-09-01 The first book on historiography to adopt a global and comparative perspective on the topic A Global History of Modern Historiography looks not just at developments in the West but also at the other great historiographical traditions in Asia the Middle East and elsewhere around the world over the course of the past two and a half centuries This second edition contains fully updated sections on Latin American and African historiography discussion of the development of global history environmental history and feminist and gender history in recent years and new coverage of Russian historical practices Beginning in the mid eighteenth century the authors analyse historical currents in a changing political social and cultural context examining both the adaptation and modification of the Western influence on historiography and how societies outside Europe and America found their own ways in the face of modernization and globalization Supported by online resources including a selection of excerpts from key historiographical texts this book offers an up to date account of the status of historical writing in the global era and is essential reading for all students of modern historiography Religion, Culture and Politics in Iran Joanna de Groot, 2000-08-01 This book offers a new interpretation to the social history of religion in Iran from the 1870s to the 1970s It aims to situate the revolutionary upheavals of 1977-82 in an extensive narrative context of historical developments over the preceding century and to relate the religious elements in that history to other social and cultural issues In the author's analysis Iran's revolution was complex and contingent on a range of factors rather than a simple or inevitable outcome of the nature of the Iranian state or the nature of religion in Iran The focus of the argument is on the human responses of Iranians to their experiences and problems in all their diversity and on the rich variety and complexity of relationships between religion and other aspects of life thought and culture in the daily life of Iranians The Political Economy of Iran Farhad Gohardani, Zahra Tizro, 2019-03-07 This study entails a theoretical reading of the Iranian modern history and follows an interdisciplinary agenda at the intersection of philosophy psychoanalysis economics and politics and intends to offer a novel framework for the analysis of socio economic development in Iran in the modern era A brief review of Iranian modern history from the Constitutional Revolution to the Oil Nationalization Movement the 1979 Islamic Revolution and the recent Reformist and Green Movements demonstrates that Iranian people travelled full circle This historical experience of socio economic development revolving around the bitter question of Why are we backward and its manifestation in perpetual socio political instability and violence is the subject matter of this study Michel Foucault's conceived relation between the production of truth and production of wealth captures the essence of hypothesis offered in this study Foucault 1980-93-94 maintains that In the last analysis we must produce truth as we must produce wealth indeed we must produce truth in order to produce wealth in the first place Based on a hybrid methodology combining hermeneutics of understanding and hermeneutics of suspicion this monograph proposes that the failure to produce wealth has had particular roots in the failure in the production of truth and trust At the heart of the proposed theoretical model is the following formula the Iranian subject's confused preference structure culminates in the formation of unstable coalitions which in turn leads to institutional failure creating a chaotic social order and a turbulent history as experienced by the Iranian nation in the modern era As such the society oscillates between the chaotic states of socio political anarchy emanating from irreconcilable differences between and within social assemblages and their affiliated hybrid forms of regimes of truth in the springs of freedom and repressive states of order in the winters of discontent Each time after the experience of chaos the order is restored based on the emergence of a final arbiter Iranian leviathan as the evolved coping strategy for achieving conflict resolution This highly volatile truth cycle produces the experience of socio economic backwardness and violence The explanatory power of the theoretical framework offered in the study exploring the relation between the production of truth trust and wealth is demonstrated via providing historical examples from strong events of Iranian modern history The significant policy implications of the model are explored This monograph will appeal to researchers scholars graduate students policy makers and anyone interested in the Middle Eastern politics Iran development studies and political economy

Cinema Morteza Yazdanjoo, 2022-12-29 As an endeavor to contribute to the burgeoning field of comparative literature this monograph addresses the dynamic yet understudied intertextual dialogism between modern American literature and contemporary Iranian Cinema pinpointing how the latter appropriates and recontextualizes instances of the former to construct and inculcate vestiges of national gender identity on the silver screen Drawing on Louis Montrose's catchphrase that Cultural Materialism foregrounds the textuality of history and the historicity of texts this book contends that literary texts are synchronic artifacts prone to myriad intertextual and extra textual readings and understandings each historically conditioned The recontextualization of Herzog Franny and Zooey The Glass Menagerie A Streetcar Named Desire and Death of a Salesman into contemporary Iran provides an intertextual avenue to delineate the textuality of history and the historicity of texts
