

One True Friend

As I stop to count my blessings,
There is one thing which rings true,
I'll always be so grateful,
For the friend I found in you!

Grateful for the special times
We've shared throughout the years,
Times that brought us closer,
Through our laughter and our tears

Grateful just to have someone,
As kind and good as you,
To share my finest moments with,
And share my sorrows, too.

And when I look upon my life,
What matters in the end,
Is that I was really lucky,
To find one, true, faithful friend!

Women's Best Friendships Patricia Rind, 2012-12-06 Explore the distinct relationships of close female friends Women's Best Friendships Beyond Betty Veronica Thelma and Louise gives new and comprehensive insight into the complex world of women's closest friendships Recent studies have shown that women place enormous value on best friendships and consider them to be woven tightly into the fabric of their lives Using in depth interviews along with close readings of relevant literature and theory this book focuses on the many facets of these relationships With heartfelt first person accounts and insightful commentary from the author this book examines three intertwining themes feelings of competition issues of dependence and independence and knowing understanding This book sheds light on areas of tension among women especially difficulties in communication frustration about not being entirely let into a friend's life and thought processes and the feeling that one friend may value the friendship more than the other It also discusses women's struggles to maintain closeness over increased distances and the realization that one's friends are flawed even as friends This informative book grounded in established research and theory presents stories of real friendships told by the people who live them These women talk candidly about what makes a best friend about navigating the choppy waters of friendship and much more Somehow when we started living farther apart there were ways in which we were being insensitive We recognized that there was a really strong bond but we were taking it for granted So we talked about how close we feel to one another and perhaps how that leads to some arguments or hurt feelings Liz on how distance has affected her relationship with her best friend Susan Em and I don't fight at all I don't know if that's good or bad I don't think I do well with fights I think that's probably a lot of conflict avoidance on my part And I think it does lead to some distance even though it's a best friendship I think I'm uncomfortable asserting myself And so it's easier not to have to do that So maybe my inability to deal with the problems keeps the friendship at a distance where it's safe and comfortable for me in that one respect Linda about her desire to avoid any confrontation with Emily her best friend Women's Best Friendships Beyond Betty Veronica Thelma and Louise is a fresh and exciting look at the inner workings of relationships between women Drawing upon a multitude of issues and insights this book is a must have for women's studies classes

Dark Reflections Kelsey Ketch, 2019-04-15 Being possessed by a vampire sucks Alana Jones's world has been completely turned upside down after being bitten by a vampire's reflection in a cursed mirror Now she's forced to stay in an abandoned Victorian inn on an isolated island off the west coast of Florida where Alana lives a double life one as herself and one as a vicious murderer Over the past year she has spilt and drunk the blood of sixteen victims The guilt of their deaths slowly eating away her sanity Sixteen dead However things become even more complicated when Alana finds Cole a surfer she felt a connection with the moment they met on the mainland locked up in the island's shed Knowing his death is inevitable she attempts to distance herself from him continually reminding herself of the monster residing underneath her skin Unfortunately it's a small island and the more she interacts with Cole the more her feelings grow for him Eventually she has to make a decision Either accept his fate or find a way to expel the vampire's spirit from within herself before she murders him as well

Reflections with Lessons Ric Grubaugh, 2025-05-05 This book Reflections with Lessons A Journey through Grief could be described as two books in one One part depicts how a person moves through his life and either grows or regresses in his attempt to find his way forward The author reflects on many events that occur in his life as he moved from a child to a teenager to an adult and now to a senior citizen In his reflections of these events he tries to draw a lesson what did he learn how did it shape his future and was it correct or should he have used the reflection to draw a completely different lesson that would have served him better It is hoped that these reflections and lessons are meaningful and are written concisely and occasionally with a bit of humor sometimes third grade humor The other half of the book does not reflect on a child playing baseball or a teenager trying to date the cheerleader or a young child lying to his mom No these tell of finding and losing the one The one person who made sense of the time between the finding and the losing This book will not find world peace or cure cancer or help you decide between Diet Pepsi or Diet Coke but it is hoped that upon completion the reader chooses to attack the grief and not let grief or the other bears and wolves of life win Bang on possible by an email link to friends and family around the world hoping to provide some light during a dark time Though the virus and its variants are still with us and have taken quite a toll on the nations of the world there is hope for a day when this particular sickness will be behind us But even if it lingers or should another such crisis arise we always have the Word of God to give us comfort and provide grace to face whatever challenges may come our way Reflections on Romans will hopefully be a tool that will aid those who continue to look for direction for their lives and a connection to their God amid such times
