Reflections Images Of British Women In Their Own Words:

Reflections Mary Gifford Brown,1988 Paradise Pursued Alice Crawford,1995 Paradise Pursued reinterprets the fiction of one of England's most important mid century novelists Knowledgeably yet accessibly written it demonstrates the recurring obsession with paradisaal pursuit that runs through all twenty three of Rose Macaulay's richly varied fictions

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1990 Reflections Mary Gifford Brown,1988 British-Bangladeshi Women in Higher Education Berenice Scandone,2022-12-30 Drawing on primary qualitative research this book explores the experiences and identities of a group of British born women of Bangladeshi background attending university in London through a Bourdieusian theoretical framework It demonstrates the inequities that these women experience in UK higher education and employment as well as how they challenge them This book presents stories that illuminate the diversity of views and experiences marked by dynamics of class race ethnicity religion and gender These stories reveal family projects of social mobility and discourses of aspiration the multiple resources and constraints that influence decisions experiences and pathways and the mutual construction of different dimensions of identification and tensions between them Through participants narratives the book tackles wider questions around fair access to education and employment social mobility and the re production and transformation of social inequities The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of Youth Education Race Ethnicity and Migration Sociology as well as community and education practitioners and anyone with an interest in multi ethnic societies and young people's histories Picturing the Woman-Child Morna Laing,2021-01-28 The childlike character of ideal femininity has long been critiqued by feminists from Mary Wollstonecraft to Simone de Beauvoir Yet women continue to be represented as childlike in the western fashion media despite the historical connotations of inferiority This book questions why such images still hold appeal to contemporary women after three or even four waves of feminism Focusing on the period of 1990 2015 Picturing the Woman Child traces the evolution of childlike femininity in British fashion magazines including Vogue i D and Lula Girl of my Dreams These images draw upon a network of references from Kinderwhore and Lolita to Alice in Wonderland and the femme enfant of Surrealism Alongside analysis of fashion photography the book presents the findings of original research into audience reception Inviting contemporary women to comment on images of the woman child provides an insight into the meaning of this figure as well as an evaluation of theory on the female gaze Both scholarly and accessible the book paves the way for future studies on how readers make sense of fashion imagery The Methuen Drama Handbook of Women in Contemporary British Theatre Marissia Fragkou,Rebecca Benzie,2025-02-06 This handbook provides a detailed exploration of the rich and diverse theatrical work produced by women in the first two decades of 21st century British theatre The book explores key issues and methodologies relevant to women working in the UK's theatre industry including the legacies of feminism and its role in shaping contemporary work by women the politics of visibility and inclusion in theatrical institutions and collaborative strategies in creating original work It closely examines how women in contemporary British theatre tackle urgent social issues such as environmental risk the representation of marginalized identities and mental and physical wellbeing Chapters by both established and early career scholars from a variety of international contexts present new perspectives on significant questions and issues underpinning women's work in 21st century British theatre by engaging with contemporary debates from theatre and performance studies and cultural theory A concluding roundtable with women theatre practitioners addresses key questions pertaining to their work including working conditions the politics of funding and of ageing disability and care With a foreword by the Guardian's chief theatre critic Arifa Akbar and featuring research tools such as introductions to sections a detailed list of sources and an annotated bibliography this is an authoritative study for anyone with a keen research interest in the distinct contribution of women to contemporary British theatre and performance

Feminist Bookstore News, 1988 Paul Ricoeur in the Age of Hermeneutical Reason Roger W. H.

Savage, 2015-12-16 Poetics Praxis and Critique Paul Ricoeur in the Age of Hermeneutical Reason addresses contemporary problems of justice the recognition of disabled persons the role of imagination in political judgment the need for religious hospitality and carnal hermeneutics The essays in this volume are a testament to the power of hermeneutical reason Following Paul Ricoeur's style of philosophizing they explore innovative solutions to pressing issues of our time Individually these essays advance new perspectives on the anthropological presuppositions behind the requirement of justice the role played by convictions and beliefs in pluralistic contexts and the place of a post critical religious faith Together they demonstrate the value of a hermeneutical mode of reasoning in an age in which conflicts tensions and violence abound Their thoughtful engagement with current challenges attests to this volume's conviction that we with others have the ability to intervene in the course of the world to the benefit of all Edward Said Adel Iskandar, Adel Iskander, Hakem Rustom, 2010

This indispensable volume a comprehensive and wide ranging resource on Edward Said's life and work spans his broad legacy both within and beyond the academy The book brings together contributions from 31 luminaries to engage Said's provocative ideas The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun, 2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto

Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology RIC. ,1988 I Am Brother Oji Mello Ayo,2022-03-31 In November 1989 the Royal Ontario Museum staged a controversial exhibit called Into The Heart of Africa This sparked a protest demonstration that proved to be a life changing experience for many The youth led outcry for change became a landmark in Ontario s race relations leading to an upheaval so impactful it altered the course of history for museums worldwide becoming in effect a milestone in the way museums mount and curate exhibits Thirty one years later for the first time the authorized biography of one of the main protagonists Adisa Oji the only demonstrator to be imprisoned for his actions is being told publicly Few people know of his courageous story a young man who heroically stood up against institutionalized racist practices and was punished His up until now unknown personal history sheds irrefutable light on the current public and global agitation regarding race and racism and compels us to honestly re examine the long lasting tragic effects of colonialism and slavery This biography fills an important gap even for those who may be familiar with the Royal Ontario Museum episode while providing an informative gripping history for those who may not In a world where the significant contributions of people of African ancestry are most often overlooked or given short thrift I AM Brother Oji honours and highlights for global recognition the life leadership and legacy of a young Canadian of African Caribbean descent who distinguished himself during a time of social controversy Adisa S Oji s extraordinary story provides a window of illumination on how to break cycles of oppression and exploitation His story is a source of fresh and thoughtful insight into what it means to be a person of African ancestry living in a predominantly white European milieu and calls attention to the effectiveness of efforts directed at addressing racial discrimination inequity and injustice With the help of abundant amounts of photographs Mello Ayo as narrator and social commentator weaves a vivid beautiful story of uncompromising triumph and self empowerment While the ROM episode provides a point of departure the unflinching narrative goes beyond and connects the past with the present to create an enchanting hero s journey transiting through the sociopolitical and historical landscapes of Jamaica Canada and Ghana At a time when many young people are becoming disenchanted slumping into alienation and learned helplessness or collapsing into sub cultures of violence a look at how one young man kept his youthful optimism alive and how he refused to become a victim while making a positive difference is deserving of our attention Monstrous Reflection Petra Rehling,Elsa Bouet,2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 By engaging and questioning existing definitions and ideas all of the essays in this volume represent the idea of a monstrous reflection in one way or another Monsters can serve as a means to explore the cultural anxieties they embody and the reasons for these anxieties Thus monsters act as mirrors highlighting the causes for the creation of categories A reflection can also be a comment or statement applicable in that the monstrous or the word monster becomes a label of otherness and exclusion This label is sometimes a construction a discursive and rhetorical trope which only serves to other those deemed different or undesirable suggesting that the monster might not always be monstrous This volume is about the ones gazing into the mirror and the things staring back at humanity along with the uncomfortable truths that are revealed in the process The History of British Women's Writing, 1880-1920 Holly A. Laird, 2016-10-06 The ranks of English women writers rose steeply in the late 19th and early 20th centuries contributing to the era's revolutionary social movements as well as to transforming literary genres in prose and poetry The phenomena of the new New Women New Unionism New Imperialism New Ethics New Critics New Journalism New Man are this moment's touchstones This book tracks the period's new social phenomena and unfolds its distinctively modern modes of writing It provides expert introductions amid new insights into women's writing throughout the United Kingdom and around the globe Normal Midwifery Practice Sam Chenery-Morris, Moira McLean, 2012-10-10 For new students the language and concepts of midwifery care can at first be daunting This book helps students to understand the expectations of midwifery training in relation to normal midwifery practice It covers the basics of midwifery care including professional practice frameworks informing midwifery care key concepts and philosophies of care communication and care skills antenatal care normal labour and birth postnatal care neonatal care and breastfeeding as well as a brief introduction to medicines management in normal midwifery care The book is designed to work alongside first taught modules in midwifery and underpin training in subsequent years The Creation of Anne Boleyn Susan Bordo, 2013-04-09 This illuminating history examines the life and many legends of the 16th century Queen who was executed by her husband King Henry VIII Part biography part cultural history The Creation of Anne Boleyn is a fascinating reconstruction of Anne's life and a revealing look at her afterlife in the popular imagination Why is her story so compelling Why has she inspired such extreme reactions Was she the flaxen haired martyr of Romantic paintings or the raven haired seductress of twenty first century portrayals Answer neither But the most provocative question of all concerns Anne's death How could Henry order the execution of a once beloved wife Drawing on scholarship and critical analysis Bordo probes the complexities of one of history's most infamous relationships She then demonstrates how generations of polemicists biographers novelists and filmmakers have imagined and re imagined Anne whose martyr cautionary tale proto mean girl feminist icon and everything in between In The Creation of Anne Boleyn Bordo steps off the well trodden paths of Tudoriana to tease out the human being behind the competing mythologies paintings and on screen portrayals Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image Lucy Reynolds, 2019-08-22 What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work In this groundbreaking book a diverse range of leading scholars activists archivists and artists explore the histories practices and concerns of women making film and video across the world from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist

Rachel Maclean Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist film maker Lis Rhodes Women Artists Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been re configured in the very different context of today Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history the function and nature of the essay film feminist curatorial practices and much more This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours addressing complex narratives of subjectivity representation and labour while juxtaposing cultures of film video and visual arts practice often held apart As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues it is at the point where art moving image and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons

Reading to Resist Suzanne Scafe, 2025-07-18 This is the first book to focus on writing by black British women writers using an approach that highlights the potential of this fiction to intervene into discourses that shape the worlds in which it is situated Reading to Resist Contemporary Black British Women's Writing undertakes a close innovative reading of the novels selected one that focuses on the texts aesthetics as well as their thematic engagement with the worlds of their readers and the worlds the texts themselves construct Each chapter examines themes such as freedom and agency moral understanding and history while also exploring issues of importance to the contemporary period such as well being success and achievement Reading to Resist Contemporary Black British Women's Writing covers a broad range of texts including the work of internationally acclaimed writers such as Nadifa Mohamed Zadie Smith Diana Evans and Buchi Emecheta as well as work by much less well known writers such as Jacqueline Walker Yvonne Edwards and Jacqueline Roy
