Reflections Of A Dog Face:

Dogface Soldier Wilson A. Heefner, 2010-05-05 On July 11 1943 General Lucian Truscott received the Army's second highest decoration the Distinguished Service Cross for valor in action in Sicily During his career he also received the Army Distinguished Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster the Navy Distinguished Service Medal the Legion of Merit and the Purple Heart Truscott was one of the most significant of all U S Army generals in World War II pioneering new combat training methods including the famous Truscott Trot and excelling as a combat commander turning the Third Infantry Division into one of the finest divisions in the U S Army He was instrumental in winning many of the most important battles of the war participating in the invasions of North Africa Sicily Anzio and southern France Truscott was not only respected by his peers and dogfaces common soldiers alike but also ranked by President Eisenhower as second only to Patton whose command he took over on October 8 1945 and led until April 1946 Yet no definitive history of his life has been compiled Wilson Heefner corrects that with the first authoritative biography of this distinguished American military leader Heefner has undertaken impressive research in primary sources as well as interviews with family members and former associates to shed new light on this overlooked hero He presents Truscott as a soldier who was shaped by his upbringing civilian and military education family life friendships and evolving experiences as a commander both in and out of combat Heefner's brisk narrative explores Truscott's career through his three decades in the Army and defines his roles in key operations It also examines Truscott's postwar role as military governor of Bavaria particularly in improving living conditions for Jewish displaced persons removing Nazis from civil government and assisting in the trials of German war criminals And it offers the first comprehensive examination of his subsequent career in the Central Intelligence Agency where he served as senior CIA representative in West Germany during the early days of the Cold War and later as CIA Director Allen Dulles's deputy director for coordination in Washington Dogface Soldier is a portrait of a man who earned a reputation for being honest forthright fearless and aggressive both as a military officer and in his personal life a man who at the dedication ceremony for the Anzio Nettuno American cemetery in 1945 turned away from the crowd and to the thousands of crosses stretching before him to address those buried there Heefner has written a definitive biography of a great soldier and patriot The Journey Into

D.H. Lawrence's Final Fictions Ben Stoltzfus, 2024-04-08 D H Lawrence's Final Fictions A Lacanian Perspective explores how literature thinks more specifically how the reading of fiction influences behavior Lawrence writes passionately about our alienation from ourselves from other people and from the cosmos He believes that we need to heed the voices of our unconscious and he shows us how to meld body and mind so that psychoanalytically speaking Id and Ego can come together In this endeavor there is a salient convergence between Lawrence's writings and those of Jacques Lacan the French psychoanalyst In this book Stoltzfus examines the poetics of seven major fictions that Lawrence wrote between 1925 and 1930 five productive years that are referred to as his fabulation period In each of the book's seven chapters in tandem with Lacan's writings Stoltzfus analyzes seven major characters four of whom move from alienation to the renewal of self and the cosmos He argues that Lawrence's fiction is simultaneously descriptive and prescriptive by showing us how to circumvent dysfunction Stoltzfus brings literature and psychoanalysis together in readings that are both aesthetic and epistemological They are recipes for curing the Anthropocene
